DRESSES

in a sale

to stir the town

2,300 Dresses in fashions and fabrics unknown till now at this price of

$9.90

Living models will display these dresses tonight, from 7:30 to 9, in our show windows, to prove that their fit and finish are as fine as the fabrics and fashions.

Eight of the fashions are sketched; there are scores more, just as good looking.

But the real value of the dresses is told in the fabrics:

Canton Crepes
Crepe de Chine
Satin Charmeuse
Poiret Twill
Tricotine
Twill Cords
Velvetena
Men's Wear
Suedes Velour
Novelties, etc.
Combination

Misses' sizes 16 to 20, women's 36 to 42, and also
stout sizes are 42 to 52½

All Dresses Segregated According to Size

Please go to each counting your size.

No Phone or Mail Orders

None C. O. D.

And we shall be too busy to make any alterations.

Sale Begins Friday at 9:15 A. M.

The Hecht Co.

Seventh at F

The Washington Times

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1921

Society

by JEAN ELLIOT

The American Army's Designs

For the coming season, the American Army has designed a line of military dresses for women, which will be manufactured in the United States. The dresses are said to be of the latest fashion and to be made of the finest materials. They are to be worn by women in the American military forces, and are said to be a great success. The designs are based on the latest fashions, and are said to be as attractive as they are practical. The dresses are to be made in a variety of colors and styles, and are said to be suitable for all occasions. The designs are a joint effort of the American Army and the fashion industry, and are said to be a great improvement on the military uniforms of the past. The dresses are to be made in the United States, and are said to be of the finest materials. The designs are said to be a great success, and are expected to be a great hit with the American public.