Eighty-seven special examiners in the pension office have been re-appointed—among them Alfred Bates, of Charles Town, and Daniel L. Bedinger, of Kentucky. The salary is reduced from $1,400 to $1,300.

Judge Faulkner delivered an interesting will case opinion at the special term last Thursday and entered several decrees. In the absence of Circuit Clerk Latimer, Clerk G. D. Moore, of the county court, officiated.

The Norfolk and Western Railroad will sell round-trip tickets for all trains from Saturday noon, July 1st, to Tuesday noon, July 4th, inclusive, good to return on any train on or before July 6th, for the mountains or the seashore.

The corporation tax levy has been laid at 50 cents on each $100 of real and personal property, $1.50 capitation, $1 on dogs and $5 on pigs. Property listed for taxation within the corporate limits is $400,000 personal and $573,430 real; capitations 400.

At the closing exercises of the Shenandoah University School, Berryville, Mr. Cruger W. Smith, of this town, delivered the prizes. The Courier says that "in each case he fitted the subject for which the prize was given with some well-chosen and appropriate remarks."

Philip Randolph Meade, of Roanoke, son of Rev. Dr. W. H. Meade, for years the esteemed rector of Zion (Episcopal) Church here, received at the Episcopal High School, Alexandria, second prize for declamation. We give this as a pleasing note to many Charles Town people.

The ladies of the Southern Methodist Church of Uvilla will hold a sociable on July 14th and 15th, afternoon and night—Soup, ice cream, confectionaries, etc., will be served. The proceeds are to aid in improving the church at that place. The public is cordially invited.

The case of the State vs. L. R. Custer, which was taken from this county to the Court of Appeals, came up last Monday on writ of error, and the court refused the application. This settles the case and Custer will have to serve the two years' term for which he was sentenced in the West Virginia penitentiary.—Advocate.

Dr. William Wallace, a well-known druggist of Bristol, Va., died Friday. He was a native of Culpeper county and married a daughter of the late William Hurst, of this county. Dr. Wallace was a surgeon in the Army of Northern Virginia during the late war. He was a clever gentleman and we learn of his demise with sincere sorrow.

Miss Kate Matthaei, of Martinsburg, has been invited to take charge of the musical department of Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa. Miss Ma. has recently returned from the Conservatory of Music at Leipzig, Germany, having graduated there with distinguished honors and won laurels in German musical society generally. She is young and pretty and accomplished.

We, the undersigned, examined accurately the cards on which were written the signatures of over two hundred persons, guessing at the name of the stone in sealed box at Brown's jewelry store, and do find that Mr. Samuel M. Ott was the first to guess pumice stone, and is, therefore, the winner, and entitled to the prize offered by Mr. Brown, viz: one half dozen solid silver tablespoons.

I. W. HARPER'S

Old Nelson County Kentucky Whiskey

Has been recognized for years as one of the foremost and finest whiskeys placed before the American public. Like every article of fineness it caters not for the bulk of consumers, to whom one whiskey tastes but little different from another, but for the appreciation of the connoisseurs only. It is, in short, a gentleman's beverage, and intended for gentlemen only. For sale by G. W. Thomas, Charles Town, W. Va.

Capt. J. C. Marquis, of Staunton, died there on Monday. He was a self-made man, having accumulated property to the amount of about $75,000. He served in the Confederate army, first in the West Augusta Guards and later organized and commanded a battery named for him. He was for six years a prominent city councilman, was a director in the Augusta National Bank and was prominently connected with various other enterprises. He was a man of almost giant physique. He is survived by his wife only.

Worth Their Weight in Gold.

I was troubled for ten years with dyspepsia and tried many remedies with no benefit. Suffered a great deal with gas in stomach. Was finally induced to try Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills and found them a great remedy in curing me of those complaints, and now urge all thus afflicted to give them a trial.

It was announced in the British parliament Monday that the Indian council had passed an act closing the Indian mints to the free coinage of silver. The immediate consequence is a fall in the price of silver, with prospect of further decline. The value of the metal in our silver dollar is now estimated at 58¢ cents. It is believed by experts that silver as a money metal has received a blow from which it can never fully recover.

Appeal in the case of Crumlish, administrator, vs. Shenandoah R. R. Co., and Fidelity Insurance and Trust and deposit Co., from this county, has been allowed by the Court of Appeals and the bond fixed at $500. It was the only one of a number of cases from Judge Faulkner's court in which a petition for appeal was allowed.

Cards are out for the marriage of W. F. Rowland, thriving grain and flour merchant of Summit Point, to Miss Alice Monroe, of Loudoun county, Va. The ceremony will be solemnized in the M. E. Church, South, at Bloomfield, on Wednesday, July 6th, at 10 o'clock a. m. The bride-elect was a pupil at Mt. Parvo Institute a few years ago.

Mr. S. H. Higinbotham has a hen that made a nest in a large oak tree on a limb forty feet from the ground. She laid eggs there and hatched nine chicks. When they fell from the nest two were killed—the other seven are living and doing well. She now roosts with her brood under a hollow stump. If they fall again gravitation must be the other way.

In its notice of the annual exercises of the Alumni Association of Shepherd College, the Shepherdstown Register says: "Jacob F. Engle, a promising young lawyer of Charles Town, gave a history of the class of '79. Mr. Engle, in giving the history of this class, made one of the ablest addresses ever made by any member of the Alumni and held the attention of the audience for about an hour."
