MY LOVERS TWAIN. My lovers twain—my lovers twain,
I pray you let me be!
To wed you both I would be tain,
Only that may not be.

One lover is like music sweet, That steals my heart away; And one is like a trumpet-blast, And one is like a trumpet-bla Which calls me to the fray.

One is of gentle, courteous mind, To low and high degree; And one is stern and bareh of mood, And melteth but to me. Solid Sterling Silver Goods, Spoons, Forks and Fancy Combination Setts,

One is strangely loveable, That but to touch his hand Do men kneel—before the one Do men uncovered stand,

And if I this one do not wed, Silver Plated Ware, Jewelry, Clocks and Fancy Goods He never wife would seek; And if that one I do not wed, He sorroweth a week.

We will give $1,000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch." Every second stitch can be cut, and still the cloth cannot be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay agents from $15 to $20 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address SECOMB & CO., Pittsburgh, Pa., Boston, Mass., or St. Louis, Mo.

Caution.—Do not be imposed upon by other parties palming off worthless cast-from machines, uncer the same name or otherwisc. Ours is the only genuine and really And here is what Don has to say about Geo. Alfred Townsend:

I missed that prince of correspondents. George Alfred Townsend. Geo.

Alf. is not on good terms with his brother quilt-drivers. I can well understand it. It is difficult for a man who possesses such powers of ridicule and sarcasm as G. A. T. to retain personal popularity. The temptation to puncture is fearful, when puncturing is so easy. And nextto doing a man a fayor, so as to bring him under obligation, you cannot make him a bitterer enemy than by getting the laugh on him. You than by getting the laugh on him. You may borrow his money, run off with his wife, kick his dog, and he may forgive you; but raise a laugh at his expense, wise. Ours is the only genuine and realign practical cheap machine manufactured.

PRACTICAL AND ANALYTICAL CHEST Ayer's Cathartic Pilis,

For Drops and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent closes to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be tak as it produces the desired effect by sympathy. As a Dirner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach. An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exist. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decadedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
