STATE LEGISLATURE. SENATE. Daily Session—Number of Bills Passed. The Senate met yesterday at 2:30 P. M. The reading of the Journal was dispensed with. Several committees reported bills that had been under consideration.

Mr. Dennis arose and said that he was necessarily detained from the Senate on Wednesday when House Bill 93 was passed, and as he wished to make some amendments to it he moved to recall it from the House. He stated that he intended to move to strike out the provision in the bill requiring the depositaries to pay at least two per cent interest.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES. Judge Morrow on the Railroad Bill—A New Liquor Measure—Proposition to Issue $5,000,000 Bonds—Money to Repair the State House.

then took the floor and proceeded to review the practical and legal questions involved in the pending bill. He said he had been accused of making the motion to lay on the table the day before for the purpose of delaying, and if possible defeating the bill.

By Judge Ferguson, from the Judiciary Committee: House Bill No. 188, amending the provisions of the Code in relation to courts and their jurisdiction, so that the law will conform to the recent amendments to the Constitution.

By Mr. Lowry: House Bill No. 192, relating to the incorporation of the Elk River Land Improvement, Manufacturing and Booming Company. By Mr. Hall, of West Virginia: House Bill No. 193, to provide for the reassignment of all lands in the State.

Incumbent upon the House to pay the bill "and no questions asked." Judge Ferguson advocated the payment of the bill. Mr. Hubbard took the ground that the authority had been irregularly conferred, and could involve no responsibility on the part of the House.
