DR. HILDRETH DEAD. A PROMINENT PHYSICIAN GONE. And an Honorable, Distinguished, Useful Career Comes to a Sudden End—A Record of His Achievements in Science and Letters, and Public Service.

Dr. Eugenius A. Hildreth, one of the most prominent physicians and citizens of Wheeling, was taken suddenly ill Sunday morning, and his symptoms grew steadily worse until yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Hildreth's death removes from Wheeling's professional and public circles a central figure, and he will be sorely missed by all who were acquainted with him.

Dr. Hildreth was born September 13, 1821. His father, Dr. Hildreth, was a man of high scientific attainments.

Dr. Hildreth was a member of the Ohio Medical Association, and the American Association, and was President of the County Society in 1878.
