Officer Carney served the warrants, and at the hearing it was shown that Kilhan had threatened to do hollly harm to Maloney, who is a watchman at the Chapline hill tunnel. It was sloo found that Kilhan had been on a spree. He was sent to jail in default of a dollar fine in the first case and in default of bond in the second case.

Yesterday, Ho Hearn, who with Ho Why purchased Sing Tai's laundry on Market street near Seventeenth, appeared before Justice Davis and complained that Sing Tai, who has been about the laundry a great deal since he sold out, had stolen a diamond ring from him valued at $15, and two $5 gold pieces. Sing Tai was arrested by Officers Lukens and West, and upon being searched showed no ovidence of guilt. A second examination of his clothing, however, produced the ring from between the lining and outer goods of his vest. The gold pieces were not found. Sing Tai was sent to jail in default of $500 bond, and the ring was retained by the Justice as evidence.

Tea Importers and Coffee Roasters.

OUR HOUSE EARLY ANTICIPATED an advance in values owing to the pending tariff bill, which is now a law, and the total failure of the fruit crops. We had the courage of our convictions and bought largely of California's Celebrated Canned and Dried Fruits. Our purchases of Foreign Fruits have all entered the Custom House under the old tariff law and are now in transit. We have just received our first shipment of California Canned Fruits—two car loads of Peaches, Apricots, Pears and Plumbs—all new and standard goods, in heavy syrup, and propose to give our thousands of patrons the benefit of our timely purchases.
