WINTER JACKETS—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

THE TYPICAL

Winter Jackets
FOR 1893-4.

RE made of Covert, Kersey, Beaver, Chinchilla, Rough Cheviot, Diagonal and Mixed Cloths. The Colors that predominate aside from Black are Havana, Myrtle, Navy and Tan. Thirty-two inches is the average length, although some are two inches shorter, or just as much longer. Double Breasted Loose Fronts, with immense revers, are largely in the majority, some few, however, being made tight-fitting. But the most pleasing feature of the 1893-4 jacket is embodied in the "Worth" collar, with its ample and wavy spread from shoulder to shoulder.

Where this collar is not applied the turn or roll is much wider than formerly, and is frequently made of velvet, with cuffs and edges to correspond. Many collars of this style have in addition a full circular ruffle of cloth attached, which gives an added air of gracefulness. Sleeves are quite narrow at the cuffs, tapering gradually into extreme largeness at the shoulders. Backs have more or less of the "umbrella" fullness. Many of the jackets are trimmed with neat fur edging. Capes in Seal Plush, Cloth and Fur that are decidedly handsome. For beauty and quantity this season's stock of CHILDREN'S WRAPS eclipses all former lines. We have special sizes—39, 41, 43 and 45, in Ladies' Jackets. Larger sizes made to order. Our Jackets and Capes are shapeliness personified—the creation of expert men tailors—products of the best skill and most advanced ideas procurable. Special values from $4.95 up.

Transfer Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made September 27 by Charles Schmidt, Fred Happy and Henry Biebersen and their wives to Michael J. O'Neill, for $300, part of lot 1 in the Belvedere addition.

Not Closed.

The Annapolis schools have not closed on account of diphtheria as stated in yesterday's Register. The attendance of the schools in Bridgeport is larger than any time for three years, it being 948. There is not a case of diphtheria in the town.

To Install a Pastor.

At 7:30 o'clock this evening Rev. Samuel Cochrane will be formally installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church at Wellsburg. Rev. Dr. Moffat, of Washington; Rev. Dr. Cooke, of this city; Rev. Joseph Waugh and Rev. James H. Snowden will take part in the services.

Arrests Last Evening.

William Gardner was locked up last evening by Officer Scally for committing a nuisance in public. A little later Paddy Christy was brought in in the wagon by Officer Kitz. He was in an ugly humor, and fought the officer. He had been drunk and was entering houses on Main street and annoying the inmates. The charge of disorder was lodged against him.

Pottery Prospects.

It was rumored on the South Side yesterday afternoon that the Wheeling pottery, now partially on, would shut down entirely last night. The officials of the concern were seen and denied that such was the case. It is said that the other portions of the pottery not now on will resume soon after the return of President Charles W. Franzheim, who is now in Chicago, but who will return Saturday.

Dewitt-Burkam.

Yesterday afternoon at the residence of Joseph Feay, on the National road, Mr. Russell Dewitt, of Baltimore, and Miss Gussie M. Burkam, Mr. Feay's granddaughter, were united in marriage. Rev. Lavery Groer officiating. The wedding was quiet, and the only guests were the closest friends of the contracting parties. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt left for Missouri, where they will reside.

To Pave Around the Mozart Incline.

Yesterday the last of the city's paving stones were hauled away and to-day the board of public works will clean up the square. The stone removed yesterday were those bought by the Mozart Park association, and they are to be used to pave the space about the foot of the incline. They will make a fine pavement. The cable was hauled up to the park Wednesday, and it is thought the park will be ready to be formally opened about a week from next Monday.

COUNCIL CONSENTS

And the Amended Appropriation Ordinance for the

PAYMENT OF INTEREST ON BONDS

Becomes an Accomplished Fact—The Ordinance Passed in Both Branches of Council Without Any Opposition. No Other Business Transacted by the Legislators at the Short Special Session last Night.

The city council met in special session last evening for the purpose of taking action on the report of the council finance committee, which had met the previous evening and decided that the amended appropriation ordinance, which had been rejected by council, be sent back to that body. This action was imperative on account of the calling in of the bonds coming due on the first proximo, as the interest due then must be paid.

There was no difficulty in getting a quorum in the second branch, eighteen members being on hand when the roll was called at 7:40 o'clock. In the upper branch there appeared to be some doubt for awhile whether a quorum would be secured, there being eight members on hand when the second went into session. At last, however, the ninth man put in an appearance, after which the branch was called to order.

The ordinance was presented first in the lower branch, and was passed without any opposition. After it had been read two times Mr. Gruse explained the situation. He said that it had been learned for the first time, Wednesday evening, that the bonds had been called; when that information was given, of course it was necessary, he said, that they be provided for. The bonds having been drawn, it stopped the committee from taking any other action.

After the second had taken action, it adjourned, and the ordinance was sent over to the upper chamber. Here there was no discussion whatever, and the ordinance was at once passed.

In notifying council that the ordinance was sent back, the report went on to state that the committee was considering the deficit in the gas works, and would report as to its investigations from time to time.

"The Burglar."

Of all the Madison Square Theatre successes none ran in the public estimation higher than "The Burglar," now in its third year. A play of surprises is this drama, of absorbing interest and pretty surroundings. With the same attention to detail and proper mounting that characterizes all of the Madison Square productions, nothing to lend effect or heighten the interest is omitted in the proper settings. Next Tuesday night it will be seen at the Opera House.

"Our Married Men."

Clark & Williams will present their new farce comedy entitled "Our Married Men" at the Grand next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The play is one of the most sparkling sessions of comedy ever inaugurated. Everything presented is bright, fresh and overflowing with humorous situations, catchy dialogue and surprising changes that keep the audience on the qui vive. Seats now on sale at the box office.
