President Garland Here.

Saturday a district convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers was held in Trades Assembly hall to consider proposed reductions in wages in sheet mills in the vicinity. The final action could not be learned, but the meeting lasted from 2 p. m. until after 7. President Garland came down from Pittsburgh especially to attend the meeting, but his presence here and the fact that a meeting was held were kept very quiet. There is reason to believe the convention voted against accepting any reduction.

Powell the Magician.

The clever and, to the ordinary eye, inexplicable feats performed by this wonderful man, make him incomparable, save with the magicians of old. Of the many feats performed there are none more mystifying or fascinating than the wonderful illusion, "Icarian; or, From the Earth to the Sun," presented for the first time in America by Powell. Two pretty ladies are used in this illusion, one a brunette, the other a blonde, both of different size and each dressed differently. One is placed in a large cannon, situated in the extreme front of the stage, the other stands at the extreme upper corner of the stage in a scenic star placed some ten or twelve feet in the air from the floor of the stage. At a given signal, and without any apparent preparation, the cannon is fired, and in a second, and before the report has fairly died away, the two ladies have changed places, the one that was placed in the cannon appearing in the star, and the one that was in midair, reappearing immediately from the cannon. How this is done is Powell's own secret, but this great sensational novelty is in itself alone worth the price of admission to see. Powell's appearance here at the Opera House Tuesday evening October 10.

McClelland the Winner.

He Beats Peter Priddle in the Five Mile Foot Race.

E. C. McClelland, of this city, and Peter Priddle, of Pittsburgh, ran their five-mile foot race for the championship of the world on the state fair grounds Saturday afternoon in the presence of a good crowd. McClelland won without much difficulty. He kept even till the last few yards, when he spurred ahead, and Priddle, seeing he was beaten, gave up, and McClelland crossed the line about ten yards ahead. Good time was made, as the following shows:

BRAKEMAN KILLED.

Abram Buchanan Instantly Killed Yesterday Afternoon.

FELL BETWEEN TWO FREIGHT CARS

And Was Ground to Pieces—The Accident Was Not Known for Some Time After It Happened—Took Place at Middle Ferry, Opposite Steubenville—Buchanan Lived with His Mother in This City.

Yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock Abram Buchanan, of this city, a brakeman on the Pan Handle day freight train, due here at 5:30 o'clock, was instantly killed at Middle Ferry, opposite Steubenville. Buchanan was a young man, twenty-three or twenty-four years old, and was one of two sons of Mrs. Nancy Buchanan, who resides at No. 4 Sixth street. He had been in the employ of the Pan Handle as brakeman for some time, and was considered a good man.

Conductor George St. Myers, of the day freight, was seen last night, and tells the story of the unfortunate event as follows:

"We were below Wheeling Junction, and I had given Buchanan some freight bills to be handled at a station further on. He left the caboose and started along the cars toward the engine. We don't know where he fell exactly, but the first car where we found blood was a flat loaded with lumber. He must have made a jump for this car and fallen between it and the other car. Two men who were in the caboose with me first called my attention to the mangled form of what we supposed was a hog. We came on down, and after a while one of our crew called my attention to the fact that Buchanan was missing from the train. We then investigated, and came to the conclusion that he had been killed. I then telegraphed back giving the particulars as to where the remains would be found. They were brought down on the accommodation train later in the evening."

Buchanan was instantly killed, and his body fearfully mangled. Both legs were cut off close to the body. The right arm was torn away, and the back of his head was entirely scalped. The remains were taken in charge by Mendel & Co. The funeral arrangements were not completed last night.

The New York Theatre Company.

To-night "The New York Theatre Company" will open a week's engagement at the Grand in a repertoire of celebrated plays. The company is a strong one and no doubt will do a big week's business. The four-act comedy drama, "Outwitted," will be to-night's bill instead of "Hazel Kirke," as advertised. "Hazel Kirke" will be put on later in the week. Seats are now on sale at the box office.

SPLENDID VALUES FOR THE COMING WEEK IN MEN'S SUITS.

We carry Suits as low as Five Dollars, and they are the best on earth at that price, and Dress suits as high as Thirty-five Dollars, which no custom tailor living can improve upon at any price, (but—and we desire particularly to emphasize this statement), the best values are to be found between the two extremes. Our $10, $12, $15 and $18 Suits are the wonder and admiration of all who see them. Single and Double-Breasted Sacks and Cutaways, made up in the most approved fashions from fabrics that are in vogue.
