To Republican Voters.
 The new election law requires each voter to vote in the precinct in which he resides. It is also necessary to be listed on the assessor's books as a voter in the precinct. The assessor for the city district will be at the office of the clerk of the Board of Commissioners from 10 to 12 o'clock a. m., and from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m. each day from October 1 to October 6, inclusive. Voters having moved from one district to another, or from one precinct to another, since June 1st, should call on him and be listed during the above period. The county committee will notify the voters who are not listed, as far as possible, and every voter so notified should see that his name is on the assessor's list; otherwise he will be put to inconvenience on election day, and will possibly lose his vote.
J. K. HALL,
 Chairman Republican Committee.

Wool Bought at 16 Cents.
 John Bloyd, the Moundville wool buyer, took in quite a lot of wool yesterday for 16 cents, which is the prevailing price in this section of country, as the farmers have good reason to know.

He Fell in a Kettle.
 Early yesterday morning Mike Ho-miller, an employee of Raymann's brewery, slipped and fell into a huge kettle. Fortunately it was empty and cold, but as it was so badly bruised that he will be laid up for several weeks.

One Doctor is Enough.
 Night before last George Ennin, of Portland Station, over in Belmont county, took two doses of medicine that he had received from two physicians, and yesterday morning he did not arise at the usual hour, and soon after the door to his room was broken in and he was found dead. The physicians from whom he got the medicine were Drs.
 John Hoge and Caldwell, of Portland.

Wholesale Robbery.
 Recently Parker Bros., the produce dealers, lost about seven barrels of potatoes and a lot of cabbage out of a car in the Terminal yard. The police were notified, and Chief McNichol had Officer Creighton search the vicinity, and found some of the potatoes in the cellar of Lucy Belmont's house. She claimed they had been given to an inmate of her house, and agreed to return them, and prosecution was dropped.

The Keller Funeral.
 The funeral of H. H. Keller took place at Moundville yesterday afternoon.
 Rev. G. W. Grimes, pastor of the M. E. church, officiating. It was one of the largest funerals that ever took place in Moundville. About seventy-five members of the I. O. O. F. from Cameron, Moundville and other places, with a large number of friends and relatives followed the remains to their last resting place. Interment at Mt. Rose cemetery.

A Republican Pole.
 Wednesday two Republican poles were raised at Little Short Creek over in Belmont county, by Henry Koehn-line and William Connolly, of Martin's Ferry. A huge banner is stretched between the two poles and bears this inscription: "For Congress, Lorenzo Dan-ford." A big crowd was present and there was much enthusiasm. Three ex-Democrats made speeches, one of them a farmer, who comes into the party of protection, because wool is not selling at the Register's fake figures.

In the Courts.
 In Judge Campbell's side of the circuit court yesterday the hearing of the appeal case of D. L. Prager vs. Cox was resumed, and again occupied the entire day's session.

In Judge Paull's court the case of J.
 W. Howell vs. the street railway company is still pending.
 In the United States court the case of the Terminal Railway Company vs. ex-President H. H. Cochran was the only business under consideration at the various sessions yesterday.

MEETING THIS EVENING.
 The Ohio County Republican Club at I. O.
 O. F. Hall.

This evening in the I. O. O. F. hall the Ohio County Republican Club will hold a regular meeting. A great deal of interest is already manifested in the gathering, which ought to be a rouser.
 The best speakers in Wheeling will be present and address the audience, and at the opening of an interesting and important campaign as that of this year the hall should be overflowing with voters. Every man has a personal practical interest in the pending issues, and every one should lose no opportunity to secure light upon them, or to get material to use in converting others to the right way of thinking.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

Proposition for the Establishment of a Flouring Mill.

WHEELING NOW FEEL THE LOSS

Of the Patronage of the Farmers Caused by the Abandonment of the Pollock Flouring Mills—Details of a Scheme to Build a Flouring Mill Here in the Near Future—Business Men Are Interested.

The retirement of the Pollocks from the flouring business has taken away from Wheeling its last industry of that class, and its loss is being more or less severely felt by the business people of the city. In addition to giving employment to a considerable number of workmen, a flouring mill brings to town farmers, who, after disposing of their wheat, leave a large portion of the money they received for their commodity. Since the Pollock mill was abandoned this has come to the attention of Wheeling business people more prominently than before, and unless the field here is filled it is a well known fact that no inconsiderable amount of trade will be diverted from the channel that flows Wheelingward to other places where there is a local demand for the wheat of the farmer.

This situation is the incentive of a project which it is hoped will end in success—that of the establishment of a flouring mill in Wheeling. It is estimated that formerly about 30,000 bushels of wheat annually came to Wheeling, and it is proposed that a joint stock company be formed, to be encouraged by the business people, with the object in view of building a mill that will consume that amount of wheat yearly. This would give the mills a capacity of about 5,000 barrels of flour for the year. Those who are encouraging the scheme suggest that the mill site be on the line of one of the railroads, which would be an advantage not possessed by the Pollock mill. If sufficient encouragement is given the project a meeting to form a company will be called to be held at the chamber of commerce.

AN EXCITING FIRE.

A Stable on Woods Street Destroyed—An Accident.

Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a child crossing Eighteenth street noticed a blaze issuing from a stable on Woods street south of Eighteenth, and yelled fire. An alarm was at once turned in from box 38, on that corner, but another one was unfortunately turned in from box 34, which made a mix with the department, and the apparatus was unusually slow in responding.

The stable was an old wooden structure, belonging to Mr. Casper Breiding.
 The flames started in the haymow, from what source cannot be conjectured.
 The fire among the hay and straw was very stubborn, and it was a good while before it was out. There were no horses in it at the time, and a dray and cart were saved. The loss will not exceed $250.

Jim Cahill, foreman at the Atlantic, was driving the chief's buggy at full speed to the Atlantic house to order more hose, when at the corner of Eoff and Eighteenth streets he made a sudden turn and ran into a horse wagon.
 His horse was thrown heavily to the ground and he was flung across the street. By rare good luck, however, the only permanent damage was to the harness.

Paddock Coats. Stouts and Slims

Folks go a sight on dress nowadays, and if you want to stand well you must dress well. The old adage doesn't run that way. But in this day and generation the want of good clothes is very apt to unmake the man.

Effort is the parent of success. We tried to perfect past perfections, and the fifteen hundred Fine-Fitting OVER-COATS and almost a third as many more SUITS are on our tables, the result of our ambitious endeavor. We selected the very freshest and choicest weaves made by the best manufacturers that we could find. Every garment is tailored in the very best manner; every stitch is securely taken; every quality honestly weighed. It's the perfection of the parts that makes the perfect whole, and we've been vigilant from the very beginning. When you come to review our stock you'll see new styles that cannot be found anywhere else—styles that appeal to the appreciation of the young nobby dressers—styles that will suit the quieter tastes, and styles that will win favor with every settled, sedate clothes wearer. In all our Suits and all our Overcoats, from the cheapest to the best, are the virtues that belong to fine tailoring. We are showing a Greater Variety, offering Better Values, asking Lower Prices than ever. If these are not trade bringers, nothing can be.

We have succeeded in making one of the largest Collar and Cuff contracts ever made by any half dozen houses combined, and shall sell the Finest Linen Collar and Cuff Made, guaranteed to be four-ply 2100 linen, in all the latest styles, as good as any 25c Collars and 40c Cuffs. Our price for as few or as many as you want will be 10c for Collars, 25c for Cuffs. Remember twenty-one hundred linen. Come and see them. Buy and compare, and if they are not as good as any you've been paying considerably more for we will buy them back at the price you paid, no matter in what condition they're returned.
