A HOPE BLASTED.

The State Fair People Refuse to Allow Base Ball There.

ONLY THE CILLES SITE REMAINS

To be Considered Now, and Nothing Has Yet Been Decided-The Situation is Dechiedly Depressing-Boxing Contests at the Ozark Club's Arena To-morrow Evening - Last Night's Bowling-New Orleans Races-Other News of Sport.

The determination of the board of directors of the West Virginia State Fair Association, arrived at yesterday, not to allow base ball to be played on the state fair grounds, blasts another hope of the base ball cranks. With negotiations going on with the state fair peo-ple and with the owners of the Cilles site it was thought one of the two sites would surely be available for the ball cab. Now that the state fair people refuse to make an offer for the use of their grounds, the hopes of the ball club are centered entirely on the Cilles grounds. If nothing can be done there tis a two to one shot there will be no club and no Inter-state league, too. Mr. Wright continued the negotiations yesrday, but no decision was reached. The other clubs that are holding back to see what is done in Wheeling are griting impatient. A decision should be reached immediately. If we are to have base ball the people want to low it.

Mike Lewis, of Cleveland, claims the 185-pound championship of the United States. His championship claim is no doubt untenable, but he is a good boxer and that is more to the point. John Finnegan, of Pittsburgh, with whom Lewis will box eight rounds, is well known here, being a former Wheeling man. He came into note not long ago by outclassing Dave Corbett at Homesicad. This bout should be a corker. The six-round contest between Charley Och, of North Wheeling, and Frank Sweeney, of Bepwood, will be one of the most interesting of the evening. Last fell, it will be remembered, the Benwood man greatly outchassed Och out in the Metropolitan arena. Och is said to be very anxious to refrieve himself in the eyes of his local admirens. For this reason the contest will be worth witnessing.

The third bout is between Jimmle McKeever and Eddie Horen, of Pittsburgh. These men boxed here in the Opera House when Maher's combination appeared. They are in the Hispound class and should put up a lively set-to.

and 28, Wheeling, W. Va.; March 29 and 30, Cincinnati; March 31 and April 1. St. Louis; April 2 and 3, Kanasa City; April 4 and 5, Chicago.

All of the Linden Grover players are in fine form and they say they will be surprised if they lose a game. The only possible stumbling blocks are thought to be Wheeling and Buffalo. Recent scores of Wheeling players have opened the eyes of the boys.

On the Jaw From Steve O'Donnell Put Jim Dwyer to Sleep.

Jim Dwyer to Sleep.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The attraction carded for the new Manhattan athletic Club boxing entertainment tonight was the ten round go between Steve O'Donnell, Corpett's former sparring partner, and Jim Dwyer, the Elizabeth heavy weight. Several other bouts were down on the programme and a large crowd gathered around the arena. The evening's entertainment bogan with a six round contest at 125 pounds between Martin McCue, of New York, and Tommy White, who has gained considerable fame as a feather weight in Chicago. The boya were in good condition, but they fought wildly after the second round. White got the decision.

The second bout was between Paddy

The second bout was between Paddy Purtell, the western welter weight and Joe Harman, of New York, amateur champion, six rounds at 145 pounds. The judges decided the contest a draw. O'Donnell and Dwyer then came on. O'Donnell had an easy mark in the Jersey man and he took advantage of it for nine rounds, at the conclusion of which he put Dwyer to sleep with a right-hand swing on the law.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Robert Fitzsimmons arrived in this city to-day.
He was accompanied by his wife, Martin Julian; mother and Jack Everhart. In regard to Corbett, Fitzsimmons said to a reporter:

"Corbett is a big wind bag, and I don't believe he really wants to fight me. At all events, I'll keep him guessing for a while, thus giving him a dose of his own medicine. He told me to go night Sieve O'Donnell and get a reputation. Now I'll tell him to fight O'Donnell and then I'll meet him. Hereafter I'll only fight under the auspices of recognized clubs. No more Mexico for me."

Last evening Nate Fiel arrived in the city from the southwest. For the past two months he has been running a book at the New Orleans and St. Louis tracks. He reports that Von der Ahe's base buil grounds track in the Mound City is a money maker. In New Orleans the crowds were very large throughout the winter meeting. The ruces continue in the Crescent City until the end of March.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical lils which vanish before proper efforts—gentleefforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrap of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its benedicial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. Its therefore all important, in order to get its benedicial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If affilleted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere. Syrupot Figs atoms highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

West Virginians Aroused.

Captain John F. Drayo, who returned yesterday from a trip to Parkersburg, is highly elated over the interest the West Virginia people are taking in the efforts of the coal operators to secure a free Monongahela river, says the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph. Capt. Drayo said he talked with a number of members of the legislature and congressmen. During his stay he had an interview with Senator Faulkner, who informed the captain that he was heartily in favor of making the river free. He said that what the people of West Virginia wanted was a free river from the Ohlo to Falimont. To reach the latter point from Morgantown it will be necessary, however, to build a system of locks and dams.

Senator Faulkner maintained that however, to build a system of locks and dams.

Senator Faulkner maintained that Fairmont and vicinity must have an outlet to the lower markets of the Ohio, and it can only be obtained by a continuation of the slackwater system and the freeling of the Monongahela. Capt. Dravo has been in high slee ever since he returned from Washington, and says it is only a matter of a short time until the river will be made free. He said he does not know just what course the river and harbor committee will pursue, but whatever they decide upon in the matter will be to the advantage of all concerned. Capt. Dravo declared that the river would be free before the end of next year.

The Wharfare Gastion.

The Wharfage Question.

The Wharfage Question.

The river people do not look with favor upon the wharfage ordinance introduced sh council at its meeting last Tuesday evening, from the committee on ordinances. The committee can redinances. The committee started with the avowed intention of making a radical reduction in the existing scale of wharfage, which, as is notoriously well known, are exhorbitantly sigh and unreasonable. The chamber of commerce, it will be remembered, took action recommending wharfage as cheap, at least, as that obarged at the two most importance ports on the river, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. This the committee falled to do. For boats of 400 tons capacity and upward the new ordinance fixes the wharfage rate at 176 per 471 por 13.76 for the round trip. At both Cincinnati and Pittsburgh the rate for the round trip is $2.50. Wheeling should at least come down to the $2.50 mark. At the last council meeting the ordinance would have been opposed by a representative of the river interest, except that it was passed over for consideration at the next meeting. The Cincinnati packets are now exempted from paying wharfage, by process of law, on account of the excessive scale of charges now in force here, and it is probable they will refuse to pay at the 33.60 rate. Therivermen claim they want nothing but have justice, and that as Cincinnati and Pittsburgh charge only $2.50, Wheeling should not expect more.

Hallroad News Yoter.

The visit of Chief Assistant General Passenger Agent F. Van Dusen and Superintendent G. L. Peck, of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania, to Whreling, is believed to have a connection with the probable new trains to be put on in the near future between Wheeling and Pittsburgh as exclusively mentioned in this paper. Although none of the local officials will talk on the subject, it is learned that the officials of the road are considering this matter and will arrive at a decision in a few days.

The Chesapeake & Ohio has a clever scheme for cutting rates practically without making an open cut. This road has put 90-mile mileage dooks on the market at $15. The 900 miles is just enough for the round trip between Cincinnail and Woshington. The Pennsylvaria and Baltimore & Ohio are making a vigorous kick at this practice but so far without effect.
