

CAUGHT THEM UP.

The Grand Jury of the Criminal Court Yesterday DID A VERY GOOD DAY'S WORK.

Bringing in 410 Indictments, 345 of Them Being Against Saloon Keepers who Took Out the Short License of $100—The Emblems Get It Again for Renting Houses for Immoral Purposes—Largest Presentment Ever Made—Other Court Matters of Interest.

The grand jury of the criminal court was called yesterday morning in the criminal court and Judge Hugus, as required by law, called their attention to the infractions of law they were bound to consider, whether presented to them by the prosecuting attorney, or of their own knowledge.

An evening paper in a sensational article in regard to Judge Hugus' charge, sought to leave the impression that the judge had some ulterior motive in charging the jury in reference to the conduct of primary elections.

The following saloon-keepers were returned as selling whisky and other drinks of like nature on the $100 state license, each getting thirteen indictments:

Isaac Bogard, Mary Kileves, J. P. O'Malley, Frank Albinger, Charles Oberman, William Fette, Michael Stein, Charles Selbert, Patrick J. Gavin, B. F. Stuba, James Sternagle, Emil Junkinzel, Hinkleman Bros., John C. Bishop, Dorothy Bunch, Harry Knote, T. P. Porter, Henry Shodder, Joseph Marshall, Fred Knott, Menge & Howley, Ed. Miller, Joseph Michael, James Scroggins, Lewis Becker.

John Seaward got one indictment, William Knote fourteen, George Grubb fifteen, Eberhard Hoffreuter, seventeen.

There were ten true bills returned against Elizabeth and W. T. Embler for renting houses for immoral purposes. Indictments for felonies were returned against Edward Zane, John Rice and Edward Payne.

The misdemeanor list is rather a conglomerated one and includes the women who preside over houses of immorality as well as those who, technically, were "found loitering" in such resorts.

There were only fifteen indictments returned as not true bills. They were Besie Ladrue, Maggie Conroy, and twelve against John Seaward.

Mr. Thomas Howley called at the Intelligence office last night and stated that he had not been a member of the firm of Menge & Howley, indicted by the grand jury yesterday, for over a year, and consequently claimed that so far as the finding of the grand jury was concerned, he was not liable for any of the consequences.

Before Judge Dull in the circuit court yesterday Mr. Nelson C. Hubbard was admitted to practice law on the motion of Mr. J. J. Coniff.

In the case of Melville D. Post vs. W. M. Carr, the mandate of the supreme court, sustaining the judgment of the lower court, was entered.

Woman Attorney Admitted to the Bar. Yesterday Mrs. Agnes J. Morrison appeared before Judge John A. Campbell.

Bank

President Isaac Lewis of Sabina, Ohio, is highly respected all through that section. He has lived in Clinton Co. 75 years, and has been president of the Sabina Bank 20 years. He gladly testifies to the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and what he says is worthy attention.

Neuralgia

In one eye and about my temples, especially at night when I had been having a hard day of physical and mental labor. I took many remedies, but found help only in Hood's Sarsaparilla which cured me of rheumatism, neuralgia and headache.

In the circuit court, and on the motion of Mr. Guy R. C. Allen, was admitted to practice in the courts of the county. Mrs. Morrison is the first woman ever admitted to the Ohio county bar, and there is no doubt but that she will prove to be a shining ornament to her sex.

Assistant Deputy Clerk. Yesterday Mr. A. J. Wilson, who has been connected with the circuit court clerk's office, was appointed deputy clerk of the criminal court, by Judge Hugus.

Prisoner Discharged. Thomas Gross was discharged from custody yesterday by Judge Hugus on account of his inability to pay his fine. He was sent up for petit larceny.

Along the Landing. The marks at the public landing at 6 p. m. showed 8 feet and stationary. Weather clear and warm.

This morning's Cincinnati packet is the popular Keystone State. She has big engagements all along the river.

The J. C. Risher, a Pittsburgh tow boat, broke her shaft below Parkersburg yesterday she passed up in tow of the B. D. Wood, of Pittsburgh, where she will be repaired.

Captain Crookard, of the Wheeling wharfbot, did not get an opportunity to see Captain Kerr, of the Virginia, on her last trip up, as the boat passed Wheeling at 1 a. m. Captain Crookard has therefore written Captain Kerr, requesting him to name the second day the Virginia will arrive there, if she intends to make two trips a week to Cincinnati.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The packet Lexington made a flying trip down to Parkersburg on Sunday, where she went on the dry docks and had a new stem-band put in place. She injured the old one in the accident at the public landing here last winter during a run of ice. Coming up the river Sunday evening the Lexington did some fast running, her average time from Parkersburg to Matamoras being eight and one-half miles per hour.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

Scales Down Old Item, and Makes Some Suggestions for Increase of Revenue. The council committee on finance met last evening and held another session over the appropriations to be made to the various city departments for the ensuing year.

It was also the sense of the committee that all vehicles should be taxed. In the informal discussion that followed the virtual adjournment of the committee a proposition was considered to impose a license on all breweries doing business in the city.
