A BUNGLING JOB

Of Forgery Yesterday Ends Badly for James B. Campbell.

WAS ARRESTED BY THE POLICE

IN THE AFTERNOON AND TAKEN BEFORE SQUIRE FITZPATRICK, WHO HELD THE MAN FOR A HEARING NEXT MONDAY IN DEFAULT OF ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS BAIL—FORGED THE SIGNATURE OF HIS BROTHER, D. M. CAMPBELL, OF THIS CITY.

James B. Campbell is well known in this city, being a brother of D. M. Campbell, the merchandise broker. Until recently he has been employed in Pittsburgh as a conductor on one of the electric car lines, but not long ago returned to this city and has not been engaged in work of any kind. Yesterday he worked himself into a peck of trouble, and this morning he eyes the beautiful Indian summer landscape through the bars at the county jail and meditates upon the uncertainty of earning a livelihood via the forgery route.

Campbell entered the produce store of Counahan Brothers, 1518 Main street, and succeeded in getting a check for $20 cashed. The check was drawn on the National Bank of West Virginia, October 14, 1897, by D. M. Campbell in favor of James B. Campbell—that is it was signed by D. M. Campbell so far as appearances went, but later it was found the check was a forgery.

Later, Campbell went to John Gressner's place, on the upper Market square, and attempted to cash a check ostensibly drawn by D. M. Campbell, for $5.00 on the Dollar Savings Bank, and dated October 14, 1897. Gressner declined to take the check, whereupon Campbell offered to take $1, and then $2. Seeing he couldn't do business with Gressner, he turned to a bystander and, showing a lot of "bad" checks, proposed that they go into partnership, cash the checks at once, and take a trip south.

Officer Walker, of the city police, was informed of the incident and lost no time in taking Campbell in tow and hauling him to police headquarters. On his person were found a number of the "bad" checks, but the charge against him is based on the check passed on Counahan Brothers and on the other which he attempted to utter at Gressner's place.

The young man was taken before Justice M. J. Fitzpatrick, who committed him to the county jail for a hearing next Monday at 2 p. m., in default of $1,000 bail.

SIX WERE ARRESTED.

Martin's Ferry Men Concerned in Robberies in West Virginia and Pennsylvania Captured Yesterday Morning.

The Martin's Ferry police arrested six men before daylight yesterday morning, charged with burglary. Four of them are accused of burglarizing a store near Belton, W. Va., three with jobs at Burton, W. Va., Glover's Gap, W. Va., and Ned, Pa., and two of them are charged with burglarizing a store at Littleton, W. Va. Three of the number are wanted at Burton for a job last Saturday night, but refuse to go without requisition papers. Four of the number are white and two colored.

The Martin's Ferry police had been working up these cases for several days and outside parties were there on Thursday on one or two of the cases, but it was not considered well to make any arrests that day or night for reasons known to the authorities, and certain matters precipitated all of the arrests.

The six were located and no time was lost in doing this and not one man wanted, made his escape. The six arrested are William Gardner, Thomas Wilson, both white men, and Sanford Baker, Pat McGruder, Charles McGruder and Wesley McGruder, all colored. The first man arrested was Wilson, followed by Pat and Wesley McGruder and the fourth was Charles McGruder. The next was Sanford and the sixth and last man arrested was Gardner.

The different houses were visited one at a time by the police, and after the man wanted was arrested the house was searched on officers taking a man to the city building while the others searched the house, high and low, and as stated, every man was arrested and merchandise was found at the homes of Gardner, Wilson and McGruder.

The last place robbed was Robinson's store at Burton, on last Saturday night, and the three men accused of this crime are Thomas Wilson and Wesley and Pat McGruder. When officers came from Burton yesterday to take these three men with them, they refused to go to West Virginia unless the officers produced the necessary papers, and the officers left to get the requisition papers and will return to Martin's Ferry for the men as soon as they procure the papers.

Wilson is married and lives on Main street. He is nineteen years old. Gardner is a single man, aged twenty-eight, and resides on First street. Baker, who is about thirty-five, was married only two weeks ago, to a sister of the McGruders. Charles McGruder, who is twenty-two and resides on North street, has a white wife. Wesley McGruder, who was married to a white woman, lives on First street, and is a man of about thirty-eight years. His brother Pat is only nineteen and is unmarried.

The Martin's Ferry police found much stolen property in the several houses visited. They found concealed in McGruder's coal house two suits of men's clothing, six pairs of men's shoes, calicoes, ginghams and other goods. The articles were covered with about 200 bushels of coal. One of the men arrested says a lot of the goods stolen are hidden in an old log cabin near Burton, W. Va.

THE BENWOOD END.

The Benwood police were largely instrumental in locating the McGruder gang at Martin's Ferry yesterday. The gang were wanted at Burton, Wetzel county, where a general store was plundered one night last week, and also for the Grandstaff and Plathery burglaries, at Glover's Gap, and Greene county, Pa., respectively.

They were detained in Martin's Ferry by Marshal Frew after he had been communicated with by Marshal Porterfield, yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, but they refuse to come to West Virginia without requisition papers. There are two McGruders and two men named Wilson and Baker. Search of their residences at Martin's Ferry by the authorities, including Officers Brannen and Geary, of Benwood, disclosed much of the merchandise taken from the store at Burton.

The McGruders are well known through Marshall and Wetzel counties, and two officers from Wetzel county came to Benwood just after midnight yesterday morning in quest of them. Use of the telephone by Marshal Porterfield did the rest. It appears that after the Burton affare the men came to Benwood in quest of their cash, but they were taken by the police last night and they rode over to Martin's Ferry in a skiff.

MOTHER DID NOT APPEAR.

An East Ohio young woman was charged in Justice Hatcher's court with beating her mother last night, but the mother failed to appear and the case was dismissed. The mother's name was blackened, but the daughter alleges that the dusky hue of her mother's orbs was a result of falling over the stove.

A DOMESTIC QUARREL.

In Squire Fitzpatrick's court last night the Neman vs. Switzer case was heard. This case resulted from the quarrel of Eighth ward neighbors over children and the fence that divided them. It was dismissed at the plaintiff's costs.

THE CARROLL CLUB

Will Give a Series of Entertainments the Coming Winter.

Secretary E. J. McGowan, of the Carroll club, has sent out the following letter to members of the club, telling of arrangements in progress for a series of entertainments under the auspices of the club the coming winter:

It is the intention to give a series of entertainments in the auditorium during the coming winter, to which general admission to members in good standing will be free. The first of the series will be given next Tuesday, October 19, by Prof. Thomas H. Cummings, of Boston. It will be an illustrated lecture on "The Passion Play." Prof. Cummings is an easy, fluent speaker and understands his subject thoroughly. If you are in good standing you will find enclosed two general admission tickets. These can be exchanged for reserved seats by paying ten cents for each at Milligan, Wilkin & Co.'s music store after 9 a. m. Monday, October 18. The next attraction will be "Remeny," the famous violinist, and his company of artists. The date will be announced in the press.

THE RIVER.

Several steamboatmen attended the funeral of the late Captain J. Fred Cline, of the Lexington, yesterday afternoon.

According to Captain Inglebright, whose communication is printed in this morning's Intelligencer, there is not as low a stage now as was had two years ago.

The Guvandotte will arrive from New Matamoras early this morning and is scheduled to depart for that port at 11 a. m. to-day. She is the only boat running out of Wheeling.

The marks at 6 p. m. showed 11 inches and stationary. The rivermen are dismayed at the continued lack of moisture, but hope that before the first of November there will be enough water on the bottom of the chird log, and yesterday, the 14th, the water at the same place was 8 1/2 inches deep, so there is at least 6 inches more water now than two years ago.

NO RECORD BROKEN.

River Editor Intelligencer.

Sir: There seems to be a great deal of uncertainty about the present stage of water in the channel at Wheeling. Now I see some claim 12 inches and some only 7 inches. On the 30th of October, 1895, I measured the water at the wharf at the channel pier on the Ohio side and there was 7 inches of water on the bottom of the chird log, and yesterday, the 14th, the water at the same place was 8 1/2 inches deep, so there is at least 6 inches more water now than two years ago.

Respectfully,
L. W. INGLEBRIGHT.

PIANOS, ETC.

Beethoven's Music

is so full of chromatic successions, that is absolutely unplayable in a common piano. Beethoven every knew this, that the piano of his day could accomplish. On the Stutz & Bauer piano Beethoven's music can be played as should be the fulness of the tone, the power to hold the notes as long as the finger is held down, and the distinction of the base notes from the other—all render this music practicable and enjoyable on one of these pianos. We are only too glad to show this piano to all.

BUSINESS IN POLITICS.

Ohio Business Men Awakened to the Importance of Republican Success.

Over-the-river business men are receiving letters from the Business Men's Republican League of Columbus, asking them to organize in the interest of sound currency and for the ticket that will contribute to their own welfare. A portion of one of these letters appears below and is worth reading:

Without dilating upon the cause of the panic of 1893, we beg to suggest that from that panic the business of the country found no marked relief until the people in 1896 decided against all doubtful monetary experiments and the pernicious doctrine enunciated by the so-called Democratic platform adopted at Chicago last year and reiterated by the Democracy of Ohio this year.

The immediate results of the election of 1896 were a restoration of confidence in the monetary system of the country, an improvement in business among our own people and in our trade with other nations, a cessation of the outflow of gold, the addition to the channels of business of millions of dollars, which during the period of distrust had been withdrawn from circulation, lower rates of interest, higher prices, larger sales for farm and manufactured products, better feeling among business men, larger employment of labor and a universal tendency toward the old-time prosperity which prevailed in this country prior to 1893.

As the business men, farmers and manufacturers of the country are now making gratifying progress on the highway to prosperity, we beg to suggest that it would be unwise to obstruct their movement toward the desired end or to hazard all they have gained and may reasonably hope to attain, by the adoption of new and doubtful schemes, and the selection of leaders who have hitherto led us to disaster, lacking in a notable degree that business experience which would qualify them for the control of the affairs of a great nation.

We beg to suggest, therefore, that it would be well for us in this political contest to stand together in support of a national administration which is infinitely superior to any the country would be likely to obtain from the miscellaneous collection of malcontents now arraying against us. In brief, the country is doing well and has before it the assurance of a more prosperous period. Shall we, then, jeopardize what we have and what we have abundant reason to hope for, by failing to sustain by our vote to and through the present administration and its recognized friends?

We take the liberty of urging business men and all others interested in the maintenance of good business conditions to make all honest efforts possible to uphold the hands of President McKinley and thus assure a continuance of that good feeling, high credit and confidence in the stability of American institutions indispensable to general prosperity.

THOSE who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Gresham, of Gears Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for cholera, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by druggists.
