

SPORT.

FOOT BALL.

Thanksgiving generally rings down the curtain on the football arena, and this year's is no exception so far as the big games are concerned, but there will be many an argument settled on the gridiron before the snow flies.

In considering the two defeats administered the local team, it must be remembered that Greensburg is the strongest athletic association team in the country.

There is considerable rivalry existing between the Aetnaville Juniors and the Madisons for the junior championship. They played a 60 game at Bridge park Saturday, in an exciting contest.

La Grippe Cured

This modern malady has become dreaded not more for its direct fatality than for the weakness of body and mind it leaves behind it. Prolonged debility, permanent prostration, melancholy and suicide follow La Grippe. For this disease there is no remedy superior to Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"The best remedy for the grippe that I know of is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."

Rev. JOHN K. CHASE, South Hampton, N. H.

"My wife and five children were taken down with the grippe, while the disease was widely prevalent. I dosed them with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and before using quite two bottles my family was restored to health. I know of several obstinate cases of the same complaint which were also cured by this remedy."

J. PARMETER, PAINTERS, Miss.

"I was cured of the grippe by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."

C. S. THOMPSON, Pub. "Signal," West Farmington, O.

Will Allow Nothing Excessive. BERLIN, Nov. 28.—The state department at Washington has requested United States Ambassador White to ascertain exactly the intentions of Germany with the respect to the claims of Herr Lueders, whose recent imprisonment in Hays had caused friction between the German and Haytian governments.

THE MISSING MILLER. A dispatch from Harrison, Ohio, says that an old man answering the description of Morris V. Miller, the missing C. & P. engineer, was at the East End hotel at that place on last Tuesday, and that his actions indicated an unobscured mind, as he offered a small dog chain and lock in payment for some trifling purchase. Mr. Miller carried a considerable amount of life insurance and his location dead or alive is important both from a humane and business point of view.

AMUSEMENTS.

Mr. Charles Coghlan's new play, "The Royal Box," has for its dramatic personae, characters prominent in court and diplomatic circles and in the stage world at the time just preceding the regency of the Prince of Wales, son of George III, which began in the year 1811, and lasted until 1820, when he became George IV. Mr. Coghlan impersonates the leading actor of that time, the story also giving the Prince of Wales, who was an impulsive and generous man, a prominent place in the plot. The motive is a pure one. Mr. Coghlan avoiding all risque coloring in the drawing and placing of his characters. This piece is said to be the strongest and most novel drama that has ever come from Mr. Coghlan's most versatile pen. His support will be a large company of leading artists, conspicuous for their talent and long experience. Mr. Coghlan in "The Royal Box" will appear for the first time in this city next Saturday, at the Opera House.

"DEVIL'S AUCTION." Charles H. Yale's "Devil's Auction" has enrolled among its members some very beautiful women, notable among whom are Mildred Holden, Mabel Harrison, Flora Leonard, Eleanor Worthington, and Mayme Mayo, who represent the American contingent; Amalia Mavroffer, Adele Amore, who hail from sunny Italy and Fraulein Wasserman from Germany, while there are others from England, Poland, Hungary, Russia and almost all known points of the civilized globe. That "The Devil's Auction" is certainly indisputable. It will be presented at the Opera House, next Wednesday night.

EDISON'S PROJECTOSCOPE. Manager Charles A. Feinler offers patrons of the Grand Opera House a novel entertainment on the last four nights of this week, beginning Wednesday. Edison's Projectoscope, one of the most wonderful of the wizard's many inventions, will throw a series, embracing half a hundred different views, upon illustrated songs to be rendered each evening by prominent vocalists.

BELLAIRE. All Sorts of Local News and Gossip From the Glass City.

George Crawford, the fellow arrested in Benwood for the robbery of Nicholson & Ball's shoe store, will be taken to Moundsville to-day and held as a fugitive from justice until requisition papers can be had. It is known that Crawford had two companions with him in this city the evening of the robbery, but he offers to give up what information he has only on condition that he will not be prosecuted. The firm will not have anything to do with this proposition, but will push the prosecution as the evidence that Crawford did the work is conclusive. Crawford formerly lived in this city and was known when a young boy as "Sycamore." Officer James S. Johnson knew of the character and whereabouts of the young man and followed a slight clue, assisted by Marshal Bahra, found Crawford with a pair of the stolen shoes on his feet and also found two persons to whom he had sold shoes, all of which were identified. He will be brought to this side of the river as soon as the necessary papers are obtained. The stolen goods were taken up to Thirty-fifth street through Plum alley and thence to the river, where a johnboat was stolen from Sam Oblinger, and the find was taken to Benwood. The two companions will probably be located without Crawford confessing.

SATURDAY'S DISORDER. There was more than the usual amount of drunkenness on the streets Saturday night, and seven characters of this kind were locked up. One unruly fellow who thought he would take a hand at teaching the officers a lesson, was punished by the marshal in a way that made him quiet down.

TWO SCARLET FEVER DEATHS. There is some scarlet fever in this city at this time. Two children, both boys, of Frank Dean, died early yesterday morning of this disease. They were aged one and three years, respectively.

THE MISSING MILLER. A dispatch from Harrison, Ohio, says that an old man answering the description of Morris V. Miller, the missing C. & P. engineer, was at the East End hotel at that place on last Tuesday, and that his actions indicated an unobscured mind, as he offered a small dog chain and lock in payment for some trifling purchase. Along the Landing. The marks at 6 p. m. showed 10 feet and rising. Weather, clear and cool. The report from above last night shows 11 feet and rising at Davis Island dam; this means that there will be more water at Wheeling than has been seen since last spring. It is expected there will be fifteen to twenty feet. Above Pittsburgh both rivers were falling, so it is probable twelve feet will mark the top notch of the rise at the Smoky City.

The rise let the Queen City and Ben Hur off the bar at Wallory's, and both boats returned to Pittsburgh. The Ben Hur passes down for Parkersburg this evening, and the Queen City will be here on Thursday, her regular day, for Cincinnati.

The Keystone State passed up for Pittsburgh yesterday morning with a fine trip. Business on the upper river is excellent this fall.

The Leroy will not resume her Sunday excursions to Sistersville, as was published last week.

The Keystone State is to-morrow's packet for Cincinnati.

A MILLION BUSHELS. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 28.—Over one million bushels of coal left this port to-day for southern markets. There are in the neighborhood of eight million bushels loaded awaiting shipment and it is expected that between five and six millions will get out on the present rise.
