A GOOD TICKET

Put Up by the Belmont County Republicans on Tuesday

AT ST. CLAIRSVILLE CONVENTION

SEVERAL EFFICIENT OFFICIALS RECEIVED THE RENOMINATIONS THAT THEIR ABILITY DESERVED—FOREMAN WINS A ONE-SIDED CONTEST FOR SHERIFF—THREE BALLOTS WERE NECESSARY TO DECIDE THE CONTEST FOR INFIRMARY DIRECTOR.

The Republicans of Belmont county held their convention at St. Clairsville yesterday. There was a large number of the prominent workers of the party present and although most of the ticket to be named was renominations, there was considerable of the old time enthusiasm that foretold that the county can be relied upon to roll up the usual majority at this fall's election. The convention was held in the court house hall, and before it convened the Heatherington band rendered several patriotic selections in front of the hall.

The convention was called to order at 11 o'clock by Henry M. Davis, chairman of the central committee, and after prayer by Rev. D. B. Brooke, of the M. E. church, he introduced the temporary chairman, Hon. C. L. Weems, who delivered an able speech upon the importance of the present duties of the party. He said that we should be proud that we belong to such a grand party which had fulfilled all the promises that it had made in the platform adopted at the last convention. He referred to the stand that had been taken and the services that the party had performed in times of peril, had carried the country back to confidence and prosperity, and each victory has been followed by a new and grander victory. He congratulated the party on the present condition of the country, compared with what it was two years ago, when the party took charge. He said that confidence is not coming, but is already here, and it has come to pay us a long visit.

At the conclusion of the address C. C. Carroll was elected secretary, and upon the motion of F. B. Archer, Chairman Weems announced the following credentials—F. B. Archer, of Putney; Charles R. Sanborne, of Flushing; J. L. Heed, of Goshen; W. R. Carle, of Washington, and J. A. Fish, of York. Permanent organization—John Pollock, of Richland; C. C. Laws, of Goshen; F. S. Mason, of Putney; Thomas Thompson, of Pease, and John Hall, of Kirkwood.

Rules and order of business—George A. Colpitts, of Warren; T. C. Nicholson, of Putney; Robert Humphrey, of Wheeling; B. D. Strickland, of Pease, and S. D. Wilkinson, of Smith.

Resolutions—James W. Cope, of Colerain; A. L. Bumgardner, of Richland; H. G. King, of Wayne; W. W. Ferrell, of Meade, and Theo. Keller, of Pease.

To select delegates to the judicial convention—E. T. Petty, of Warren; D. M. Huntsman, of Somerset; H. W. Burrows, of Putney; John T. Smith, of Pease, and J. T. Bentley, of Richland.

The convention then took a recess for dinner.

At 1 o'clock the convention met and the committee on permanent organization reported the selection of the temporary officers as the permanent officers and the Republican editors present as assistant secretaries.

The committee on credentials reported no contests and all the delegations present.

The committee on resolutions reported the following resolutions:

That we endorse the calm judgment and great statesmanship of our President, William McKinley; his wise and patriotic policy of espousing the cause of the suffering Cubans, his efforts to secure the freedom of Cuba by methods of peace, and his brilliant and successful prosecution of the war.

That we endorse Joseph B. Foraker and Marcus A. Hanna, our noble senators.

That we endorse the declaration of principles of the state convention.

That we congratulate the people of our country upon the prosperity which has come to our mills, our farms and our homes as the result of a wise administration of the national government and a protective tariff.

That we are proud of the representative of this county upon the state ticket, in the person of Hon. Joseph D. Blackburn, state dairy and food commissioner. His renomination has been earned by faithful and intelligent service and we pledge a renewed and increased exertion to give him a larger vote than that of two years ago.

The judiciary convention committee reported as follows: Delegates—L. C. Sedgwick, A. H. Mitchell, H. M. Davis, E. T. Petty, E. D. McCombs, H. S. Armstrong, James F. Anderson, J. C. Gray, C. O. Carroll, E. B. Armstrong, J. O. Helm, M. Coven and C. L. Weems. Alternates—G. A. Colpitts, Ray Tallman, C. J. Howard, A. G. Holloway, C. H. James, Joseph Shotwell, Enfield Hoge, A. G. King, A. C. Landers, M. C. Mitchell, Samuel Westwood, J. B. Trueman and Rodney Barnes.

The convention then proceeded to nominate a ticket. J. C. Gray presented the name of Madison M. Aldridge for renomination for auditor, and on motion the rules were suspended and he was nominated by acclamation.

Hon. C. J. Howard presented the name of Lawson E. Emerson for renomination for clerk, and he was nominated by acclamation.

James Cope presented the name of Frank Dinsmore, of Colerain, and George A. Colpitts presented the name of S. S. Foreman, of Warren, for sheriff, and upon a ballot Dinsmore received five votes and Foreman ninety-six.

Hon. C. L. Weems presented the name of A. S. Taylor for renomination as recorder. He was nominated by acclamation.

T. B. Archer presented the name of George M. Wise for renomination for commissioner. He was nominated by acclamation.

The next officer, that of infirmary director, was the only one for which there was anything like a contest. W. D. Porterfield named J. I. Lewis, of Goshen; J. M. Rees named J. R. Wright, of Goshen; James Cope named J. C. Brown, of Colerain; T. C. Ayres named Henry Morgan, of Richland; and James Bentley named James McNary, of Richland. The balloting was as follows: First ballot—Lewis, 27; Wright, 17; Brown, 24; Morgan, 22; McNary, 11. Second ballot—Lewis, 31; Wright, 10; Brown, 32; Morgan, 17; McNary, 11. Third ballot—Lewis, 28; Wright, 12; Brown, 51; Morgan, 14; McNary, J. C. Brown was declared the nominee.

A motion was passed empowering the executive committee to fill all vacancies that may occur on the ticket.

The county committee met after the convention had adjourned and organized by electing Henry M. Davis chairman, A. L. Bumgardner secretary and Judge J. H. Campbell treasurer.

The convention was the most harmonious one ever held in the county and the ticket one of the strongest.

FOR "CAMP ATKINSON."

The Departure of Captain Willis' Company Attracted a Large Crowd—An Impromptu Demonstration Arranged—The Arrival at Charleston.

The second Wheeling company left the city yesterday morning for camp, preparatory to the sterner duties of an active campaign in a few weeks, and the boys under Captain R. H. D. Willis' command were given a rousing send-off on their departure to Camp Atkinson, where they will be mustered into the Second West Virginia Volunteer Infantry. They left over the Ohio River at 7:30 o'clock, and were transferred to the Chesapeake & Ohio at Huntington, reaching the capital city yesterday afternoon, as will be seen by a dispatch to the Intelligencer printed below.

The early hour of the departure precluded a public demonstration, yet nearly 2,000 people gathered at the "Pewee" depot to say good-byes. The company marched from the recruiting station, in the Hub building, to the depot, to the music of the Opera House band, after previously having breakfasted at the Hotel Brunswick. Captain Willis made a few remarks at the Hub building, after which the march began through the streets. The boys were cheered all along the line. Water street near the depot was blocked with people, and until train time the friends and relatives of the volunteers pressed forward to bid them good-bye.

The scenes incident on the recent departure of the immunes were repeated in all their vividness of pathos, and owing to their being more Wheeling members in Captain Willis' company there was naturally more affecting leave-takings. No speeches were made, but the informality of the occasion did not lessen the impressiveness. One of the volunteers, who has seen more than thirty years of war, lent a touch of humor by carrying a cucumber in his hand, as he said, "so as to be as cool as a cucumber." When the train passed through Benwood, an anxious mother hysterically tried to pull her son from the train.

There were 130 men in the company, in addition to the officers, Captain Willis and Lieutenants Morris and Foster. They will give a good account of themselves and represent their city with honor.

ARRIVAL AT CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 28.—Early this afternoon Captain Willis came in with his Wheeling company of 103 enlisted men, and Major Henshaw and his assistants, Surgeons Dailey and Kalbaugh, proceeded at once to hold the required physical examination. Only two men, Privates Ebert and Leydecker, failed to pass. Captain Willis and Lieutenants Morris and Foster are busy to-night making out their muster rolls in order that the company may be mustered in early to-morrow morning.

The Bramwell company, Captain T. E. Thomas in command, arrived late this evening, and for want of tent room the men are being comfortably quartered in a dwelling and barn near the camp.

The boys all appear very cheerful, and they are so far noted for their excellent deportment.

The secretary of war has notified Governor Atkinson that a third major will be allowed for the regiment, and Major Macker Babb, of the National Guard, will be given the position.

ENLISTED AT PITTSBURGH.

Ernest G. Smith and "Toby" Vickers, of Martin's Ferry, will leave on the 7:30 Pan Handle train this morning for Pittsburgh, where they will enlist in the Seventeenth infantry of the regular army. They will leave Pittsburgh this evening with their company for Atlanta, where they will receive equipments and from there go to Tampa, Florida. Ernest Smith went to Pittsburgh last week, where he passed an excellent examination and was informed by the recruiting officer that his chances were very flattering for being transferred to Roosevelt's "Rough Riders."

MASONIC APPOINTMENTS.

The following appointments are announced by Grand Master J. R. Clifford, of Martinsburg, of the colored F. & A. M. of West Virginia: Grand Chaplain—Rev. J. W. Waters, of Wheeling. Grand Lecturer—William Kent, of Piedmont. Senior Deacon—R. D. Parker, of Charleston. Junior Deacon—R. H. Arrington, of Wheeling. Grand Marshal—Grant Beasley, of Wheeling. Grand Pursuivant—George Levasy, of Fort Gay. Grand Sword Bearer—Isaac Jones. Grand Stewards—R. H. Grant and W. P. McClurg. Grand Tyler—P. B. Burbridge. District Deputies—Jerry Dillon, J. F. Johnson, C. N. Brown. Committee on Foreign Correspondence—David Buckner, F. W. Wright and Robert Bullitt.

CONTINUED SUCCESS.

The vaudeville entertainment provided by the Wheeling park management continues to attract large audiences in the Casino. Yesterday there was an outing by the Cathedral schools, and the children and adults as well, thoroughly enjoyed the performance, particularly the marvelous mental work of Master Lavender Richardson. Vaudeville at the Casino is an experiment by the park management, which has thus far proved very encouraging. If the attendance throughout the week will justify further ventures, the people of this city will be given the opportunity to witness some splendid entertainments of this character during the summer.
