Hall, older son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Hall, was injured as the result of a frightened team running into his bleycle and throwing him to the ground. An Elm Grove car was coming down the hill and a carriage team was passing out to the park when the accident occurred. The horses became frightened and dashed to one side, catching the boy before he could escape. He was thrown and the carriage passed over him. Mr. Hall was out driving nearby at the time, and took his eon home in his carriage. Doctors Cracrart, Hupp and Dickey were called and it was found that the boy was not serjously hurt, his worst injury being a wound above the left ear in which four stitches were taken. The wound was very palaful, but Frew bore the pain with a fortitude that was remarkable for one of such tender age. frightened team running into his bley-

Supreme Court Sustains the Foot Ease Trade-mark. Justice Laughlin, in supreme court Buffalo, has ordered a permanent in-Buildio, has ordered a permanent injunction, with costs, and a full accounting of sales, to issue against Paul B.

Hudson, the manufacturers of the foot powder called "Dr. Clark's Foot Powder," and also against a retail dealer of Brooklyn, restraining them from making or selling the Dr. Clark's Foot Powder, which is declared, in the decision of the court, an imitation and infringement of "Foot-Ease," the powder to shake into your shoes for itred, aching feet, now so largely advertised and sold all over the country. Allen S. Olmsted, of Lo Hoy, N. Y., is the owner of the trade-mark "Foot-Ease," and he is the first individual who ever advertised a foot powder extensively over the country. He will send a sample Free to any one who writes him for it. The decision in this case upholds his trademark and renders all parties liable who fraudulently attempt to profit by the extensive "Foot-Ease" advertising, in

He said that even if the boys abandon their strike now the company would stand by its proposition to go to Weilsburg if the Brooke company accepts the proposition advanced by the North Wheeling.

Mr. Park said the boys were being paid ten cents more than the average wage in this district before they went on strike, and now they want seventeen per cent, more. At first he thought the boys' parents would influence the boys' to abandon their unreasonable demands, but he recently learned that the parents are upholding the boys.
