

The Social Side

One of the most beautiful entertainments of the week in honor of visiting guests, was the Valentine and initial party given Wednesday, by Miss Martha Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Clark, of North Main street, complimentary to her house guest, Miss Coates, of Dubuque, Iowa, and the Spintaker organization. Every appointment was charmingly conceived. The large number of guests had a most delightful afternoon, recalling the famous men and women, battle fields and events of all times, and Miss Louise Todd Baird, captured the trophy, of the greatest acquaintance, Miss Clark will entertain with an informal tea this afternoon, in honor of Miss Coates, who leaves the city to-morrow, for the Pacific, with Honolulu as the end of the journey.

Miss Elizabeth Sooy, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. L. Sooy, has issued invitations for a luncheon, at the residence of her parents, North Chapline street, in honor of Miss Coates, the house guest of Miss Martha Clark.

Miss Bowman, of Uniontown, Pa., is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hearn Crockett, Fourteenth street.

"The Players" are meeting socially at the homes of the members of the organization, and while sitting "at the board," are discussing the next "on the boards" appearance, which the many friends of the club eagerly anticipate.

Miss Baird, of Washington, Pa., is the house guest of Miss Louise Todd Baird, Fourteenth street.

Miss Nellie Stifel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stifel, of North Main street, entertained yesterday afternoon, complimentary to her cousins, Misses Nettie and Emma Reymann, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Reymann, who are about to leave for an extended European tour.

The Woman's Musical Club chorus will not rehearse this afternoon, in deference to the memory of Mrs. Caroline Larimore Williams, mother-in-law of Mrs. Flora Williams, the choral director.

The Swope Guild supper, at St. Matthew's church Tuesday, was a beautifully planned one, and successful as well from the money-view-point, materially aiding the cause of its giving, a free bed in the City Hospital.

The Junior King's Daughters, of St. Matthew's, chartered by George B. Caldwell, are holding a cake and candy, apron and tea-towel sale, at Huescroft's, to-day. A liberal patronage is assured.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Bloch, of Pleasant Valley, delightfully entertained a large number of children with a dancing party, Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to their daughter, Madeline.

The Twentieth Century Girls met Thursday afternoon at the residence of Gen. and Mrs. Alfred Caldwell, North Main street, with their daughter, Miss Helen Caldwell, and Miss Louise Todd Baird as hostesses. A charming afternoon was the result. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Waterhouse, nee Miss Mamie D. Grubb; Miss Baird, of Washington, Pa.; Miss Ella Howell; Miss Etta Rinehart and Miss Bessie Rice. The next entertainment will be given Tuesday, February 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Waterhouse, South Chapline street, with Miss Gene Waterhouse, as hostess. This will close the Twentieth Century Girls' social doings until after Lent.

Miss Jennie Jenson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. J. Jenson, leaves Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where she goes to attend the McCortney-Muncaster wedding, as maid of honor. Miss Angela Feeny and Miss Carter, of North Chapline street, will also be Wheeling representatives there.

Miss Flora Stifel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Stifel, of North Main street, gave a charming valentine euchre Wednesday afternoon, at the family home. Each guest received a beautiful silver heart pin as souvenir of the day. The prize winners were Miss Nellie Stifel, Miss Bessie Booth, of Texas, and Miss Frances List.

Hurried lunch and supper patrons of the Loan Exhibition, for the benefit of the City Hospital, can enter the building on Twelfth street, and not be compelled to pass through the main exhibition each time. Lunch will be served every day at twenty cents, from 12 to 2 o'clock, mid-day; supper from 5 to 8 in the evening will cost thirty-five cents. All patrons entering the building from Main street, will be given a pass to the lunch rooms, and return, to re-visit the loan. The ladies in charge of the dining department, and from whom the finest meals can be expected, and who will be most liberally patronized, are: Mrs. B. W. Peterson, chairman; Messrs. J. F. Merriam, Louis Frassell, T. C. Moffat, J. W. Grubb, Thomas Carr, Frank Hoffman, Frank Stamm, Charles Killmyer, Henry M. Russell, George K. McMechen, R. A. Harben, Thomas Prince, William Johnson, William Gilchrist, M. Chew, George House, Edgar Boyd, Joseph Speers, William Fee, Robert Brown, Henry Ott, L. J. Bayha, J. C. Lynch, J. F. Agnew, Will Rice, Hutton Quarrier, Archie Hupp, E. McFadden, George Flaccus, Joseph Gibbs, T. C. Burke, W. W. Irwin, A. W. Foster, George B. Caldwell, Walker Frissell, J. F. Paul, Fortney; Misses Jennie Jenson, Della Carr, Alice Bates, Janie Good, Bessie Rogers, Gussie Wright, Madge Johnson, Sophia Carr, Jessie Martin, Effie Lewis, Alma Hubbard, Beile Mendel, Anne Nell, Kate McLaughlin, Lila Little, Sue Metcalf, Eliza Hope, Virginia Miller, Annie Miller, Bessie McLaughlin, Katherine Hupp, Lena Myers, Ella Chew, Sallie Dudley, A. Frassell, Fannie Kelly, Della Kelly, Louise Evans, Bessie Canahan, Kileven, N. Kileven, Jessie Moffat, Margaret Dudley.

The King's Daughters, of the United Presbyterian church will serve hot coffee and sandwiches at the Union Depot at the Wheeling Bridge and Terminal Company, Market street bridge, to the patrons of that road on "Dewey Day." Success to the endeavor and charity is assured.

Mrs. George Paul, of the Island, has issued invitations for a progressive euchre at her home, next Wednesday afternoon.

The Island Ladies' Progressive Euchre Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Jennie Well. The prize winners of the session were Mrs. James B. Taney, Mrs. Zach Robertson, Miss Jessie Martin and Miss Wilson.

The North Main Street Euchre Club was delightfully entertained at the R. H. List home, on Ninth street last Tuesday, with Mrs. List and her daughter, Miss Frances List, as hostesses. The prize winners were Mrs. Virginia Shaffer, Mrs. Isabelle Irwin and Mrs. Amanda Hamilton. The next entertainment will be given by Mrs. Zach Robertson and Mrs. Walter H. Rinehart, Tuesday, at Ziegenfeller's.

A more than full week for Society ends to-day, when at last the Loan Exhibition can be looked forward to Monday morning, with treasures collected from everywhere. All week society men and women have devoted their time to bringing to an artistic issue an undertaking never eclipsed in this portion of the Ohio Valley, and the outcome is worthy a travel of many miles to see. The collecting committees are to be congratulated upon the stupendous search accomplished. Purely social affairs all well attended, notwithstanding the immense charity work on hand, embraced the Clarke, Bloch and Stifel parties, the Daughters of the Confederacy dance, and the Married Ladies, the Island Ladies, the Twentieth Century Club, the Spintakers and the Rabbit's Foot Euchers, as well as Carroll and Arion and Mercantile Club house entertainments. The interest of next week's public and charity doings will be interspersed with a few things of a private character so to speak, among which will be the D. Carter List and Joseph Gibbs reception, the Zach Robertson and Walter H. Rinehart reception and the Rabbit's Foot Club entertainment at the John Moffat home. The last Colton dance of the season is being looked forward to. It will be given at Arion hall, Tuesday evening, February 27, under the management of Prof. George M. Debrugge and will be an especially elaborate affair.

Society assembled at the Carroll Club auditorium last evening on the occasion of the Charity Ball, given by the Robert E. Lee Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy. The auditorium was gracefully embellished for the occasion. The walls were festooned with the national colors and the American flag was largely in evidence in the decorations. The Opera House orchestra discoursed the dance music from the stage and the merry assemblage of young folks paid homage to Terpsichore until long past midnight. At 12 o'clock luncheon was announced and everybody repaired to the dining hall, where a sumptuous repast of the choicest viands of the season was spread. The affair was one of the most enjoyable functions of the season and was successful from every standpoint. The orchestra rendered a concert of four numbers after which a dance programme of sixteen numbers was given. The committee in charge of the affair was composed of the following well known gentlemen: J. D. Merriam, B. Caldwell, Moise, R. K. Gilen, Jr., Frank J. Waterhouse, Frank Kinchloe, Will Brice, Wilson Hope and T. H. Pollock.

The Married Ladies' Euchre Club was handsomely entertained at the George Wise home, Wooddale, yesterday, by Mrs. Wise and Mrs. John Moffat. The prize-winners were Mrs. Oliver T. Rhodes, Mrs. Charles Howard Simpson and Miss Mary Dickey. The next entertainment will be given at the Joseph Gibbs home, Echo Point, next Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. D. Carter List as hostesses. This will be the last reception until Lent is past.

The Rabbit's Foot Club was beautifully entertained by Miss Elizabeth Stifel at the Stifel home, on North Main street, Thursday afternoon. The prizes of the day were won by Miss Martha Baird Caldwell, Miss Elizabeth Carr and Miss Flora Stifel. Miss Virginia Moffat will entertain the club next week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Moffat, Wooddale.

Invitations have been received from Mr. and Mrs. James R. McCortney, who have taken up their residence in Washington, D. C., for the marriage of their only daughter, Miss Edna Carter McCortney and Dr. Stewart Brown Muncaster, on Tuesday, February 27. The ceremony will be performed at the fashionable St. John's P. E. church, of Washington, at noon. Dr. and Mrs. Muncaster will be "at home" in that city after March 15, 1513 K street.

Latest advices from Mrs. Mary Delaplaine and daughter, Miss Hulda Delaplaine, who are traveling on the continent, place them in Italy among most interesting surroundings.

The art gallery of the Loan Exhibition is of unusual magnificence and unexpected tensions, and hundreds of paintings, etchings and bronzes will be found there. Among the bronzes, an especially beautiful and truthful conception of the subject, "The Difficult Duet," is worthy of mention.

Musical Wheeling will be well at the front on "Dewey Day," with Prof. Hermann Schockey, Prof. Henry J. Abens and Prof. Edward Bumen Blumengberg as conductors of the three choruses, "America," "Star Spangled Banner," and "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," to be sung during the presentation ceremonies.

Chairman of the various committees and the active workers are requested to call during to-day at the Hawley building and purchase their season tickets for the Loan Exhibition.

Brilliant plans are in talk for the banquet of the Sons of the Revolution to Admiral and Mrs. Dewey and the Daughters of the Revolution of this state. Mrs. J. J. Holloway, daughter of Col. Joseph DuBois, of Leatherwood, will grace the occasion as regent of the State Chapter, and be escorted by Admiral Dewey.

The arranging of the Hawley building into the picture to-day presents, is the highest tribute to the committee to which the arduous task was committed and the congratulations of all interested are extended to Mrs. O. A. Aschman, chairman, and her co-workers, who were Mesdames John L. Dickey, Robert J. Reed, George E. Stifel, Louis Horkheimer, Samuel Hazlett, W. A. Wilson, Nelson E. Whitaker, W. A. Wilson, George Vardy, Eugene A. Hildreth, William Tierman, Peebles Tatum.

James E. Tansig, George K. Wheat, Laura Ford Hearn, Fred Parks, Joseph Spield, John Topping, James K. Hall, J. H. Littel, Miss Gussie Wright, Messrs. O. C. Dewey, Ran Hicks, Percy Norton, Archie T. Hupp, Edward B. Franksheim, Andrew Wilson and G. A. Aschman.

Refreshments, consisting of cream, cake, candy and cigars, will be sold on the premises during the week of the Loan Exhibition.

Discovered and First Prescribed PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND

Prof. Phelps was born in Connecticut and graduated in medicine at Yale. His unusual talent soon brought him reputation and prominence among his professional brethren. First he was elected to the professorship of anatomy and surgery in the Vermont University. Next he was appointed lecturer on materia medica and medical botany in Dartmouth College. The next year he was chosen professor of the chair then vacated by Prof. Robby, and occupied the chair, the most important one in the country, at the time when he first formulated his most remarkable prescription.

Prof. Phelps has given to his profession in Paine's Celery Compound a positive cure for sleeplessness, wasting strength, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. It is the only specific recognized and prescribed to-day by the best physicians for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system. For such complaints Paine's Celery Compound succeeds again and again where everything else fails. No remedy was ever so highly recommended. Read our testimonials, because no remedy ever accomplished so much.

Paine's Celery Compound sustains vitality, keeps the body healthy and free from nervous exhaustion and pain.

on Information of Captain Samuel G. Brown, lockmaster at Lock No. 8. Coalboat water continues in the Ohio river and as fast as boats arrive with tows of empties they are hitched to tows of coal and started south. Much coal is being dropped out of the pools, and it is noticeable that many of the coalboats are new. The river combination is greatly adding to its fleet of craft. The Josh Cook and the Bertha were the only boats to depart this morning, the former taking twelve coalboats and the latter six barges, which will be turned over to the Cook at some point down the Ohio river. The Volunteer departed yesterday afternoon, taking five coalboats.
