WHEELING DAILY INTELLIGENCER, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1900.

The Democratic Candidate for Sher iff Called Kentucky's Leading Republican,

GOV. BRADLEY A BLACKLEG!

This Daseless Imputation Will Be Resented by the Republican Voters Next Month.

In the Wheeling Sunday News of Feb ruary 4 last, Mr. Will W. Irwin, since nominated for sheriff of Ohlo county by the Democrats, came out in an inter view, in the course of which he use strong and abusive language referring to the leading Republican of the state of Kentucky, the Hon. William O. Bradley, late governor of that state, a prominent in politics, respected and esteemed for his estimable qualities as a man and citizen, whose record in the governor's chair is unsulled, who has several times been prominently mention ed as a Republican Vice Presidential possibility. This man, whom all Re-publicans the country over admire and respect, does not merit villification from Mr. Irwin, and few, if any, of the Republican voters of Ohio county will feel disposed to support such a man. For the information of the public, the Intelligencer again reprints the Irwin interview, as it appeared in the Wheeling News of Sunday, February 4, 1900, and in this connection it is well to remember that Mr. Irwin has never denied publicly (nor privately, so far as the Intelligencer knows) that he was quoted correctly by the News re-as the Intelligencer knows) that he was quoted correctly by the News reporter. The interview follows:

"Goebel," said he, "possessed every virtue which we in the south think necessary to constitute a gentleman. He was always gentlemanly with those with whom he came in contact. He was a man of thorough integrity, brave even to reshness and a man who considered his hunor above all else. He was the one man who had the nerve to stand for the people, the state and for justice against the Louinville & Nash-ville railroad, and declare that it had a just right to pay taxes as did all other owners of property in the state. As they virtually owned the politicians in the state for a number of years, this was a new position for anyone to assume, and they never forgave Goebel, but waged an unceasing war against him.

"The railroad furnished transportation free to all excursions or other parties working against Goebel during the campaigm, brought the 'hoodiums' from the mountains when the legislature met and was the cause of ex-Governor Bradley's cailing out the militia on election day, thus intimidating many and keeping them away from the polls. The road was the cause of the third ticket in the field, which was only brought forward for the purpose of defeating Goebel.

"As to the shooting in which Goebel killed his man, there have been so many who have written on this matter who knew nothing of the facts or wilfully perverted the truth, that Goebel has been greatly misrepresented. Sanford had made threats that he would kill Goebel on sight, and attempted to carry out his threat by firing at him when they met. It was then, and not until then, that Goebel fired the fatal shot. Sanford had the first shot, but it went wild, while Goebel's found its mark. Goebel has been the most maligned man in Kentucky.

Bradley's Career.

"As to ex-Governor Bradley, I have Bradley's Career. "As to ex-Governor Bradley, I hav known him since I was a mere child. He resided at Lancaster, ten miles from Danville, where I was raised. HE IS Danville, where I was raised. HE IS ONE OF THE LOWEST, MOST CORRUFT AND IMMORAL MEN IN THE STATE. HE BELONGS TO WHAT IS KNOWN AS THE "BLACK LEO" ELEMENT OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. He always did the bidding of the party, and belonged to that class to which there was nothing too low for them to stoop. That class was never recognized by the higher and better class of Republicans, only when they had some dirty work to do. When he was nominated there was no hope whatever of his election, as Kentucky had always gone from 40,000 to 50,000 Democratic. It was only a peculiar coincidence of events which made him governor. Tha Republicans would never have given him the nomination if they thought there was the least show of electing a good Republican to that office. After his election he manifested a strong desire to call the milkia out on every possible occasion, and Governor Taylor has made the great mistake in following in his footsteps in this matter.

following in his footsteps in this matter.

"The people of Kentucky are very qu'gk tempered and touchy on the militia question, and it was the militia, and this only, which caused the trouble at Frankfort.

"Jack Chinn resided at Heraldsburg, a short distance from where I was raised. I was well acquainted with him, and the account of his career the News published a few days ago was strictly correct.

"Some of the peculiarities of the late election can be noted when you are aware that some of the streng Republi-section can be noted when you are tware that some of the strong Republiaware that some of the strong Republican counties gave Taylor a majority over Goebel greater than the number of voters in the county. The returns were not sent in from some of these counties until it was known about what number of votes they had to make up.

"The netion of Taylor in interfering with the legislature is an outrage which will be resented by every Kentuckian, without regard to politics. London, the town to which he has called the legislature, is a town with no hotel accommedations, and no police protection, and one in which any one would fenr to visit in ordinary times, much loss when people are aroused. It is one of the feud seats of the state."

Bradley's Scathing Reply. Immediately after the publication of the interview in the News, a Wheeling Republican who is a friend of Governor Bradley's, wrote the latter, and en-closed the interview. That Governor Bradley should feel indignant and express his feelings was not at all sur-prising, and the way in which he disposed of his Wheeling villifier was concitaire enough to convince any reader who did not himself know of Governor Bradley's high character, both as a public man and private citizen. Gov ernor Bradley's letter was as follows, the original of which is in possession of the Intelligencer:

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 10, 1900.

MY DEAR SHR:—I con't know Mr.

Irwin, and never heard of him before,
and am sure, after reading the clippings you send that he doesn't know
ms. and hever heard of me before.

I was twice nominated for governor, the first time in 1817, reducing the plurality on governorship race of 1833 (some 144,00) to less than 17,000 in 1837.
I cannot afford to enter into a controversy with one so lost to all sense of truth as this creature Irwin, concerning my career. There was not a Republican county in Kentucky which gave Taylor a majority greater than the number of voters in said county. The majoritles were in the same proportion on average as heretofore, and in no county did more persons vote than are shown on the assessor's books. His statement as to the town of London is false in nearly vevry particular

His statement as to the town of London is false in nearly every particular—the town has good hotels, and is a peaceable, quiet town, nor is it one of the feud seats of the state.

The statement as to delay in sending in the returns is false.

The fact that I have been nominated three times for Congress; sent to three national conventions as delegate from the state at large, endorsed three times for Unité States senator, nominated twice and elected once governor, should be sufficient evidence also as to the character of the creature who assails it. (Signed.)

W. O. BRADLEY.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

John Furlong, of Philadelphia, Dies in This City Friday.

John Furlong, of Philadelphia, aged xty-eight years, employed on the Wheeling Gas Company's pipe line in Marshall county, met death suddenly yesterday morning on Market street, in ront of the White Cloud hotel, in the Second ward. He had been lunching in the restaurant and with a companion ame out onto the pavement, where he was attacked by a coughing spell, and was attacked by a coughing spell, and fell headlong upon the curb. The patrol wagon was called and while coming down street to the police headquarters the man died. The body was taken to Foster & Watkins' undertaking establishment and prepared for burial. Coroner Schultze made an investigation during the afternoon, who determined that death came from natural causes.

Death of Fred Arndt Thursday night, at his home, on South McColloch street, occurred the death of Fred Arndt, in the fifty-eighth year of his age. Deceased was a widower, and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He is survivied by two sons, one married and one single. The funeral will take place from his late residence, No. 3137 McColloch street, and will be in charge of the Rev. Willman Protestant church, Interment will follow at Mount Zion.

PERSONAL NOTES. Going and Coming of Wheeling People and Visitors.

Edward G. Friedel, for a number of years with Hicks & Hoge, wholesale dry goods house, has resigned his position to locate in Philadelphia, and Hyron McColloch, for a number of years with J. M. Dauer, has resigned his position to locate also in Philadelphia. They will enter in the dry goods and notion business. They will leave Sunday afternoon. ple and Visitors.

Hon. Charles Burdett Hart, of this city, the United States minister to Colombia, will arrive in the city next week, for a stay of several weeks, it is understood, and it is intimated that his eloquence and logic will figure on the Republican stump in this state during the closing days of the campaign. This will be pleasing news to Mr. Hart's many friends throughout the state, who will see to it that he is given the warmest of greetings.

TELEGRAPHIC TICKS.

The Lourenzo Marquis railroad au-horities have been instructed to hand over to the British all the rolling stock of the Netherlands railroad. Four and probably five persons met death by drowning in Gelovin bay, off the town of Chenik, Washington, on September 28, as the result of the cap-sizing of a life boat of the San Fran-leco steamer Albion.

A sealed pouch, said to have contained $7,000, disappeared while en route from the St. Paul, Minn., office of the American Express company and the Union Depot. An attempt has been made to keep the matter secret, but the wagon man and the local cashiar resigned after General Manager Naylor had investigated the affair.

Lord Roberts reports from Pretoria.

Lord Roberts reports from Pretoria, under date of October 18, as follows: "A party of Boers got into Jagersfontein on the night of October 16 and a fight ensued in the morning. Our loss was eleven killed. The Boer loss, their commandant and twenty killed. Kelly-Kenny dispatched a column under Kenny dispatched a column under Hughes-Hallett, which should reach lagerstontein to-day."

Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5

Mr. Kruger was secretly taken at 5 o'clock Friday morning, on board the Dutch cruiser Gelderland, at Louren20 Marquis, on which vessel he is to sail for Holland. The reason given for Mr. Kruger's embarkation is that he feared the Boers at Lourenzo Marques would attack him. The feeling of the refugees against Mr. Kruger for ficeing from the country is very strong.

Joseph Mendelsohn, of Chicago, a first class cabin passenger of the Ward line steamer Mexico, which arrived in Maryland on Tuesday, October 18, from Manila, was among those removed to Hoffman Island for observation. He complained of feeling ill and was removed to Swinburne Island hospital for treatment. Last evening he developed unmistakable symptoms of yellow fever. Dr. Doty says the case is mild and that the patient is doing fairly now.

Receiving Bribes From the Liquor Dealers.

DAMAGE SUIT WITHDRAWN

Through an Agreement Between Messrs. Clemans and Waterhouse and Attorney Howard.

Several months ago, during a meet ing of council, when the first branch was discussing applications for liquor license from certain alleged objectionable saloonists, Councilman John Waterhouse, of the Fifth ward, electrified council and the large number of spectators present, by arising in his sent and saying with great emphasis and carnestness

"The chief of police is being paid by the liquor dealers' association to allow Sunday selling, and I can prove it if necessary,'

An immediate development was the filling of a suit for $50,000 damages in the circuit court, by Captain William M. Clemans, the chief of police, against Councilman Waterhouse. Then there was the usual legal drag, and nothing has transpired since the sult was entered, until yesterday, when, it is learned, as the result of a conference between Chief Clemans and Councilman Waterhouse, with Attorney John A. Howard acting as the intermediary, Mr. Water house made a written retraction of his azsigning as his reason for making the discussion. In consideration of this retraction, which is in the possession of Chief Clemans, the latter withdraws his sult for damages against the council-
