THE PAST AND FUTURE. A Lesson from the Seasons.

Ohl where a the summer morn.
With all lis deny flowers.
With all lis deny flowers.
Where the waving corn.
The glorious sunny hours.
And shaded leafy bowers?
They're gone with yester's moon.
Mingled with things mov past,
They're fielded all too soon.
They were not made to last;
They were not made to last;
At the evaneacent acene!
At the evaneacent acene!

They're finded all too soon.
They were not made to last;

But let's not be downcast
At the svansacent scene!
A world thero is unseen,
Whose bright and lovely sheen,
Doth far celipse, I ween.
Earth's diadem of green!
The seasons, with their changes,
Give evidence most clear,
That a Power Supreme arranges
The wonders of the year.
So let us have no fear,
But walk right bravely on.
Through Summer, Winter, Fall,
Relying ere upon
That I fall to sall,
Who notes a 'sparrow's fall.'
Who notes a 'sparrow's fall.'
That Love Divine arranges
Winter drear and Summer bright,
And all things doth right!
For a trusting, loving heart,
Is a well-spring of delight,
Twill to the mind impart
A ray of heavenly light
Een in its darkest night!
Wee'l know then that Spring then
Is the Elernal year,
Who mys—"Be of good cheer"?
Giorions is the morn
When Summer lights the way,
But fearful is the storm
When Summer lights the way,
But fearful is the storm
When Summer lights the way,
But fearful is the storm
When Summer lights the way,
But fearful is the storm
When Summer lights the way,
But fearful is the storm
When Summer lights the way,
But fearful is the storm
When Summer lights the way,
But fearful is the storm
The microscosmic soul
Is emblem'd in the year,
And the wondrous whole
Abounds in lessons clear
To the attentive ear.
These lessons duly exam'd,
Teach us in accents plain.
That the who Nature plaum'd
Hath nothing made in vain,
But all things with an aim!
Tis thus the seasons speck
Unto the list'ning ear.

Tis thus the seasons speak
Unto the list ning ear.
Then shall we be so weak
As death and change to first?
The Odden Spring is near!
Let's pray, then we may then Improve each passing hour.
Let's say, then, "Tis day then,
"Wee'll sawk with all our power

THE AMERICAN PMIGRANT AND HOMESTEAD COMPANY, having its headquarters in the City of New York, has been organized for the sole and dennite purpose of collecting information from all parts of the country wherein itesirable lands may be had at low prices, and commending those lands to the attention and favor of all who may be induced to purchase or improve them. It has been silently perfecting its arrangements and correspondence for more than a year past; until it is more ready to offer to settlers a range for səlection, embracing more than One Million Acres of cheap wild hinds, with some improved farms, mainly in the States of Virginia, Penneylvania, Tennessee and Massouri; and it will soon extend its operations into other States.

To emigrants from Europe, to the energetic young mon of our compactly settled States and Sections, to the hives of mechanics and laborers who throng our cities and live in constant and reasonable dread that panic or pestilence, war, revulsion, or some alteration in the channels of trade, may, at any moment, deprive them of employment and their families of pread, we WHERE EVERYTHING IN THE WAY OF DRY

This Delicious Tonic especially designed for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family, possesses those intrinsic medicinal properties (Tonic and Diuretic) which belong to an Old and Pure Gill. The business of manufacturing sparious gins, and offering them as beverages under the titles, "Aromatic,"—"Cordial,"—"Medicated," is etc., has become so, common, that the public is justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to graphs the medicine.

PRIES.

Stomach Bitters!

The AFACT THATE AT SOME PERIOD, EVERY number of the human family lessablect for discase or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to escure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the frue course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least instant of vital Strongth and life. For this purpose, br. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bittersoperate powerfully upon the stomach, howels and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausca, Platulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Billious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic. Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters inye no equal.

Biarrhana dysentery of flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diot, will be specially regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be fulfillible? All mations have their Bitter's as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system the general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

A gentleman, public lecturer, took a severe cold the latter part of last month, while travelling and lecturing in northern Pennsylvania, though addressing public andiences every evening; yet in two days, by the aid of the Specific, he was entirely recovered, and enabled to pursue his calling without inconvenience. No public speaker should be without them.

A married lady of 40 had taken a violent cold, which settled on her lungs, causing severe cough, pain in the side and considerable foyer and hearseness. Such colds were usually very lasting and troublesome; but by taking the specific Cough Pills four times per day, in three days she was entirely well.

A young man of 22 had a cough and hoarseness for fifteen months. During cold weather his voice was lost so as only to speak in whispers, pain induced on coughing, cold dry or raising only atrifie in the morning, quite feeble and emaciated. Had taken several medicines with little or no benefit, If commenced with the Cough Pills—one pill three times per day—and soon found himself improving, his cough milder and softer, hoarseness passed off, strength and appetite improved, and in a few weeks was entirely well, having taken no other medicine.
