On a solemn day
I climbed the shining bulwark of the skiee:
Not by the beaten way,
But climbing by a prayer,
That, like a golden thread, hung by the giddy stair
Fleck'd on the immemorial blue,
By the strong step-ctroke of the brave and few,
Who, stirr'd by echoes of far harmonies,
Must either lay them down and die of love.
Or dare

Those empyrean walls that mock their starward eyes.
But midwar in the dread emprize
The faint and fainter footsteps cease.

And all my footing gone, Like one who gathers sapphire. I hold on, And up and down through answering vasts descry Nor Earth nor Heaven;

Home in Wartime.

She turned the fair page with her fairer hand— More fair and frail than it was wont to be— O'er each remembered thing he loved to see, She lingered, and as with a fairy's wand Enchanted it to order. Oft she fanned New motes into the sun; and as a bee Sings thro's brake of bells, so margured she, And so her patient love did understand And so her patient fore did understand. The reliquary ream. Upon the still.

She fed his favorite bird. "Ah. Robin, sing! He loves thee." Then she touches a sweet string Of soft recall, and towards the Eastern hill Smiles all her soul—for him who cannot licar. The raven croaking at his carrion ear.

CLIFTON HOUSE, NIAGARA FALLS,

CANADA SIDE.

CANADA SIDE.

THE PROPRIETORS WOULD ANNOUNCE TO their many friends, and the public generally, that they have isseed the above house for a term of years, and have refitted, newly furnished, and made such additions and improvements as to equal in point of style and comfort any hotel at the many fishionable Watering Places. This, together with its local tion, which cannot be equalled, commanding as it does a complete view of the American and Horse-Show Falls, and the clorts of the Proprietors to keep it in every respect as a first-class Hotel, will, they trust, make the "Clifton" a favorite house at Ningara Falls. Visitors arriving by the several railroads should have their baggage checked for and stop at "Suspension Bridge," Canada side, where omnibuses and porters will be in attendance on the arrival of every train. Those by boat from Buffato and Toronto will stop at Clifton-House Station on Eric and Ontario Railway. The house is now open for the season.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentieman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomitums, nor useless pufferey from the press:

Bath. Main. Jan. 20, 1856.

Professor O. J. Wood & Oo.: Gentlemen:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I purchassed a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its naof the most EXPERIENCED and SKILFUL NURS. #### HOSTETTER'S Stomach Bitters!

IT IS A FACT THAT, AT SOME PERIOD, EVERY member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; be t, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common scale, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazzard of vital Strongth and life. For this purpose, br. Hosetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomuch, bowels and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepcia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Billious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbos, &c. these Bitters have no exercised.

Bowels producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colle, Choler orbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal. or Bowels producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhoea, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to the derangement of the digestive organscan be cured without fall by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTES, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND ACUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTET. can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTET TER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further none of the the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even it exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per direc-tions. And as they notifier create names nor offer-the palate, and render were reader.

or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as specifity as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Pears, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluably as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother, while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's noarishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is nested to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weak ness.

CAUTION .- We caution the public against sing any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hosyeter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter" Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and bserve that our autograph signature is on the label. # Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers and dealers generally throughout the United States.
