[From the Washington States and Union.] The Fourth of July at Auction.

BY W. J. PLAGG. Here's the Fourth of July, soing, soing!
For the Fourth of July what is bid?
With its cludler of memories shawing
All about what your grandfathers did: And its musty old record declaring Certain rights, is a long rigmards. Too num'rous to mention, and bearing Octate signatures set to the whole.

Into separate last we can chart it.
But we self-it for what it will bring.
So give as a bid-just to start it.
Too the off tantespie thing. inthesity shakare gons, who'd have thought it?
Its passwors externed it so dear,
Not the gold of a world could have bought it.
What to bid? I lift, cents no I hear?

Tifty,center Going going! See round it there is wound an old three-colored rag. I offer it just as I found it— What is bid for the Fourth and its flag? Boing, gains! They you consider

We are now on the third and fast call—

Going! Gone! (what's the name, of the bidder!)

Declaration; fast, memories sall:

in all acute diseases, such as Fevers, Indiammations, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Croup, Ilheumatism, and such arupit, diseases as Scarlet Fever, Measies and Erysipelas, he advantage of giving the proper remedies promptly is obvious, and in all such cases the specifics act like a charm. The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

strack is moderated, the discase shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Goughs and Colds, which are of such, frequent occurrence, and which so often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchilts, and consumption, may all be at once cured by the Fever and Couph Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Henisches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Sat Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance. Often the cure of a single chronic difficulty, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or Female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

We have put up and sold this article for over ten years, and can any, in confidence and truth of it, what we have hever been able to say of any offer medicine, Never disk we have heave the neighbor of the medicine. Never disk we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WITAT WE DO KNOW," after ten years experience and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the liftant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in flitten or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

Prof. Wood Dear Sir. You'r Hair Restorative has lone much good in this part of the country. My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after brying used all storative for six weeks and I find that I have a head of hair now growing, after having used other remidles known, to no effect. I think it most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, &c., S. W. MIDLLETO.

PRILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. Woon—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself boneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—was in fact balb. I have used but two half plat hottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studied wift a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation I can induce many others to try it.

J. C. Aver & Co. Gents: I feel it my daty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me llaving inherited a Scrofinlous infection. I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it hurst out in Illean on my hands and arms: sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several histories.

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

New Orleans, 25th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. Atre: Sir: 1 cheerfully comply with the request of your agest, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have curred with it. in my practice, most of the compaints for which it is reco-mended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Feneral and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic alcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his month. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to Schirrus, Cuncer, Tamors, Enlargement, Ulceration Curies and Exfoliation of the Bones. A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cares or these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agent below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Mclancho-ty, Neuralgia. Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the afterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the care of throat and long complaints, that it is useless hero to publish the evidence of the virtues. Its unrivailed excellence for outsis and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilizanations of the earth. Ever are the communities or even families, among them who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living traphy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerons disorders of the throat and longs. As all known the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the care which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.
