Lieutenant commanding Phelps, sent with a flag of truce to-day to Columbus, has this moment returned and reports that Columbus is being evacuated. He saw the rebels burning their winter quarters and removing their winter quarters and removing their heavy guns on the bluffs, but the guns in the water batteries remain intact. He also saw a large force of cavalry drawn up ostentatiously on the bluffs but no infantry to be seen as heretofore or encampment scene. Our armed reconnoissance upon Dogs river has been removed. Large fires were visible in the town of Columbus and upon the river banks below indicating the destruction of the town, military stores and equipments.
