Circuit Court—AN ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Yesterday in Judge Berkshire's Court, the case of Margaret Nixon, charged with an assault and battery upon Mrs. Della Stout came up. Hannibal Forbes, Esq., appeared for the defence and Major Gould for the Commonwealth. The alleged assault is said to have taken place in September of last year. Mrs. Stout testified in substance that Mrs. Nixon was in the habit of inhumanly beating her boy. Mrs. Stout had seen Mrs. Nixon beating the boy time and again. On one occasion she cut at the boy with a large carving knife inflicting a wound from which the blood flowed profusely. On another occasion she dragged the boy from the back yard into the house beating and cuffing him in a merciless manner. After getting him into the house she continued to beat him for a half an hour. The cries of the child and the blows that were being inflicted were distinctly heard by Mrs. Stout and her family. Mrs. Stout went into Mrs. Nixon's house to remonstrate, when she found the boy lying upon the bed apparently insensible and quivering from head to foot. Mrs. Nixon said she intended to kill the boy for he was a d-d thief. Mrs. Stout interfered and Mrs. Nixon desisted. In consequence of this interference Mrs. Nixon became violently incensed against Mrs. Stout, and was in the habit of throwing bricks and hot water at Mrs. Stout's family from her back yard, which she could easily do as the two families lived upon adjoining lots which are only divided by a fence. On one occasion Mrs. Nixon threw whole bricks into Mrs. Stout's kitchen, breaking the windows and slashing things around generally. At last forbearance ceased to be a virtue with Mrs. Stout. One of her neighbors advised her to have Mrs. Nixon bound over to keep the peace, and as Mrs. Stout was proceeding to do so she was followed by Mrs. Nixon who fell upon her with two sticks and beat her over the head and shoulders till she was black and blue. From the effects of this violent assault Mrs. Stout was taken ill and so remained for three or four months.

Mr. M. W. Amick and others who witnessed the assault on Mrs. Stout, disagreed with her as to the number of blows given and the injury inflicted. Mr. Amick interfered to prevent Mrs. Nixon from beating Mrs. Stout, but Mrs. Nixon gave the blows in spite of him, saying that Mrs. Stout had called her all manner of hard names and had provoked her beyond endurance. Mr. Amick didn't want to have much to do with the fuss. He knew what it was to interfere with the women.

A great many witnesses were examined. Some had lived near Mrs. Nixon and had never seen her abuse her boy, George, more than other people abuse their children. Others had known her to abuse the boy very bad.

The boy himself said his mother had never abused him any more than he deserved. She had whipped him sometimes but never inhumanly. In answer to a question by the Prosecuting Attorney, George said that he had not been posted as to what he should say in Court. The evidence was very contradictory and it was apparent at several stages of the proceedings that there was a "lie out" somewhere.

The arguments of counsel were submitted and the jury retired, but not being able to agree after an hour and a half's deliberation, were adjourned over till 9 o'clock this morning.

STEAMBOAT INTEREST CONFISCATED.—In the United States Court, at Pittsburgh, on Monday morning, Judge McCandless delivered an opinion in the case of the steamer Isaac Hammatt, seized there about eight months ago, under the confiscation law. The boat was owned by a Mississippi Coal Company, three-tenths being held by Victor Wilson, a resident of Mississippi, and the remaining interest by Dunsmuir and others. The loyal owners, Messrs. Dunsmuir and others, claimed that Mr. Wilson was indebted to the firm in an amount exceeding the value of his interest; and they also offered testimony to show that he was not a rebel, but a loyal man. The Court decided that it could take no cognizance of the partnership relations in this case, but under the law the property was subject to confiscation. There was fortunately a saving clause in the act, under which the Secretary of the Treasury had power to relieve Mr. Wilson whose loyalty the Court had no hesitation in admitting.

WILD GESE.—Several flocks of wild geese have recently passed over the city in a southerly direction an evidence that the cold weather has begun in their summer quarters of the Northern lakes. All of the flocks which we have seen were flying in the shape of a letter A, and moved with the precision and regularity of a regiment of well drilled soldiers. Occasionally one would lag behind the rest and destroy the form of the A but he soon "dressed up" again and "covered his file leader."

Mr. JOHN MCADAMS, father-in-law of the late Col. Webster, who was killed at Perryville, Ky., died at his residence in Warrenton, near Steubenville, on Monday morning. His funeral took place yesterday at two o'clock.

FROM THE 12TH VA. REGIMENT.—The following is an extract from a letter written by a member of the 12th Virginia Infantry, dated Balltown, Oct. 17th:
"Another accident happened yesterday in company G. A teamster by the name of Peter Lynch, was going out the Beverly road for straw. His horses got scared at some cattle in the bushes and ran off, the wagon passing over him broke his left arm close to the shoulder. He is now in the hospital and is recovering slowly. Today a man belonging to company G accidentally chopped three of his fingers off with an ax. Orders have just been received for us to be ready to strike our tents to-morrow morning at three o'clock."

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—An accident occurred on Friday on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, a short distance beyond the Relay House, which resulted in the partial destruction of a locomotive, and serious damage to a number of cars. A train going out was moving out of a switch, when the train from Harper's Ferry came down and collided with it. One of the locomotives was so badly damaged that it could not be used. So far as could be ascertained no personal injury was sustained.

COL. THORNTON AT HOME.—Colonel Joseph Thornton, of the First Virginia Infantry, who has been lying very ill near Washington for several weeks, arrived in the city on Monday. He is still very weak, but is recovering slowly. He hopes before a very long time to again assume command of the brave boys of the First.

THE WEATHER.—Throughout the whole of yesterday there was a humidity in the atmosphere which indicated the near approach of rain. In the afternoon the clouds gathered and a brisk rain commenced falling.

THE RIVER.—There were fourteen inches of water in the channel of the river yesterday at this point. A flat boat which arrived from Steubenville, drawing only eleven inches of water, stuck two or three times between this and that point.

MAJOR B. H. HILL has assumed command of the post of Wheeling. His orders are published elsewhere.

"CHEMICAL WHITING FLUID."
"We are indebted to Messrs. E. Barr & Co. for a supply of Laughlin & Bushfield's Ink, an article we have been using exclusively for the year past. It is manufactured at Wheeling, West Virginia, by a firm whose loyalty never for a moment wavered and to whose patriotism the highest compliment we could pay would be to say that it is as genuine, as free, as unassuming and permanent as their Ink, with which we make this record."

We use this FLUID because, after being torn out with many other black devices, we have found it superior in every respect to any other, either foreign or home made, and hence pronounce it the best and most reliable in the market."

Pennsylvania Election Returns.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—The Bulletin foots up the returns of the State election as follows:
A few more official returns of the late election have reached us, and they include now most of the heavy voting counties. We sum up the vote for Auditor General in these counties, and compare it with the vote for Governor two years ago, as follows:
Seventeen counties, official, for Governor, 1860:—
For Curtin, (Union) 129,975
For Foster, (Dem) 122,272

Curtin's majority 7,615
For Auditor General, 1862, as follows:
For Steiner, (Dem.) 110,261
For Cochran, (Union) 108,399

Steiner's majority 1,862
Democratic gain 9,547.
The remaining counties voted in October, 1860, as follows:
For Curtin, (Union) 132,392
For Foster, (Dem.) 107,985

Curtin's majority 24,407
The seventeen counties already heard from officially, comprise more than half the voting population of the State. If the Democrats gain in the remaining counties at the same rate as they have in these seventeen, they will lose the State by some 15,000. We apprehend, however, that the majority against them will be not more than 8,000 or 10,000, as the unofficial returns from many counties point to such a result.

Gen. Scott's Letters.
WASHINGTON, October 21.—Early in 1861 when the civil war was pending, but had not actually broken out, Gen. Scott wrote two papers containing his views, professional and political, on the crisis and the rights and duties which devolved on the movements of the Government at this momentous juncture. One of them has recently been published without the writers consent. The second appears to-day having been furnished to the press by himself. It establishes in the first place the patriotic anxiety of the Gen. in Chief to prepare for the coming storm, and his earnest and repeated efforts to prevail on the Government to garrison the Southern forts against every possible attack, and discloses in the second place the causes of his failure which is now evident resulted from the decision of President Buchanan, mailed doubtless by treachery in the Secretary of War if not in other members of the Cabinet, in whom the head of the Government reposed a misplaced and abused confidence.

Affairs on the Potomac.
BOLIVAR HEIGHTS, Monday, Oct. 20.—Since our two reconnaissances returned the Potomac continues to be the dividing line between the hostile armies west of Harper's Ferry. The rebels who followed General Humphries back to the river again picket down to the Potomac.
Provost Marshal Capt. J. H. Pell, 1st Minn., who went out with Hancock's reconnaissance to Charlestown and called on some acquaintances residing there, it is supposed was not aware of Hancock's departure till the rebels returned and took him prisoner. No intelligence has since been received in reference to him.
Lieut. C. Howe, of the Sedgewick's staff, succeeds Capt. Pell as Provost Marshal of Harper's Ferry and Bolivar Heights, and is now acting with immense vigor in the way of squelching stocks of several sutlers, who have been made to pay for selling liquor and buying stolen commodities and quartermaster's stores from dishonest employees.
Gen. McClellan's order punishing those who absent themselves from their regiments without passes is in operation. Several hundred men and some officers are constantly employed with spades for such of them.

From Centerville.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—From the Times' special correspondent at Centerville we learn that Capt. Congdon of the 2d Virginia cavalry left that place on Saturday night with 60 men, spending the night at Bristow Station and reaching a point near Centerville on Sunday noon, wishing to capture a train of the Washington and Annapolis Railroad. The party waited till 4 o'clock concealed, at which time a small detachment was advanced to the station, driving in the rebel picket-guard. It was soon discovered that the enemy was guarding the train of cars which was near the station. Capt. Congdon fell back to a piece of woods to receive the expected attack of the enemy, but the latter after advancing a short distance retired and our party returned to Centerville arriving this morning. The whole country between Centerville and the Rappahannock is swarming with rebel cavalry and scouts who constantly note and report the slightest movements on foot of our forces.

From Washington.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Pressure for forward movements being almost general is urged with an earnestness that has never been equalled. Argument used that a protraction of present inactivity will ruin the country.
The friction commanded by Gen. Sickles will be reviewed on Wednesday next by Gen. Banks and Heintzelman. It is expected that the President and Secretary of War will witness the review.
It is understood that a communication from Gen. Scott is about to appear which will show that that veteran soldier early pressed upon the administration of Buchanan the necessity of garrisoning Southern forts and doing other things to repress the rebellion that was threatened. A treacherous Cabinet and Senate had more control over Mr. Buchanan than counsel of the patriot had.

Massachusetts Nominations for Governor.
BOSTON, Oct. 21.—John A. Andrew has written a letter accepting the nomination of the Republicans for re-election as Governor. It is stated that Brig. Gen. Devens will accept of the people's Union nomination for Governor.
The schooner Admiral Blake, reported as among the vessels burned by the pirate Semmes, has arrived safe at Seppican. She did not see anything of the pirate.

Rebel Cavalry Captured.
HEAD-QUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. 21.—An expedition started from Slocum's command this morning for the purpose of intercepting a force of rebel cavalry, under Capt. Dug, who were foraging near Lovettsville, Loudon county, Va. It was in every respect successful, but the details are not known. Thirty-two prisoners were taken, among whom was the Captain. Ten of the enemy were killed. Our loss was one killed and four wounded. Dug was an independent company raised in Loudon county, Va., and was captured by Mrs. Gen. McClellan and Mrs. Gen. Mercey, having finished their visit to the army of the Potomac, left for Washington to-day.

Executive Order in regard to the Draft.
EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, October 20th, 1862.
It is hereby ordered that all persons who may have actually been drafted into the military service of the United States, and who may claim exemption on account of allegiance, will make application therefor directly to the Department of State, or to their respective Minister or Consul.
(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
By the President,
W. H. SAWARD, Sec'y of State.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, October 20th, 1862.
Pursuant to the above order, the proper officers are directed to report to the Department of State the cases to which the order refers.
(Signed) E. M. STANTON,
Sec'y of War.

Latest From Richmond.
FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 20.—The steamboat Commodore arrived at Fortress Monroe at 1 o'clock to-day from Aiken's Landing bringing down over 600 prisoners, many of whom came recently from Macdon, Ga., and were captured at Cedar Mountain. There are but few officers.
The Richmond Dispatch of the 18th Oct. says, from the remarkable consistency of the three reports published by us yesterday, it seems that our forces under Bragg gained a great victory over Buell. Our loss was 5,000. The present position of our is not known but doubtless they are in pursuit of the enemy.
Hon. W. H. Field, formerly of Kentucky, was murdered in Missouri by Federal soldiers.

The Examiner of the 18th says: "We have some intelligent advices from our army in Northern Virginia, but as they refer to anticipated movements we suppress that portion of them."
Our lines are quiet. The enemy are still at Harper's Ferry. The Federals on Wednesday were destroying the Railroad between Charles City and Winchester. All information from our [rebel] army is burdened with unnecessary complaints of wretched and shameful arrangements for sick and wounded. Reports from Winchester say General Stuart is off on another foray and that a cavalry fight occurred at Charlestown on Thursday last. No particulars received.

"Gen. Pemberton who supercedes Van Dorn and has been recently put in command of the department of Mississippi, beached to the Yankee army in the spring of 1861, he was in command at the siege of James Island, Charleston, S. C., and has a reputation for a large share of caution."
"Our exchanges speak with great anxiety of the prospect of an attack upon Mobile by the enemy, which might involve important consequences, as to the capture of that point would give the enemy immediate possession of the Alabama and Tombigbee rivers. A march of the enemy into the interior of Alabama would succeed in cutting the Confederacy more completely in two than the enemy could hope to do even by possession of the Mississippi river through out its entire length, as it would destroy the line of communication now passing through Montgomery, which has been of incalculable benefit to the people the entire South."

New York, Oct. 21.—The boiler in the flour mill, No. 53, Green which street, exploded this morning, killing 4 and seriously scalding some half dozen persons. Three or four are also said to be missing in the ruins.

Telegraph Markets.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.
There is less firmness in breadstuffs, and some decline in grain. There is very little demand for flour and only 600 bushels at $6.40 for super. No change for extra and $7.67 for extra family. WHEELING Business School.
CONDUCTED BY I. L. HITCHCOCK, at No. 63 B. O. R. L. Depot, over the Savings Bank. Open day and evening.
The design of this institution is to aid young men in their preparation for active business life, by making them competent Accountants, and familiar with business processes generally.
Business Writing, Counting-house Calculations, Political Economy, Finance and Banking, Commercial Law, are the chief subjects of attention, but the instructions in these are interspersed with maxims and locations tending to the formation of high character as men and citizens.
The course of instruction is intended to be as comprehensive and thorough as that of any of the Commercial Colleges, while the expense to the student is much less.
