Boy-How is IT?-It was stated in the City Council on Tuesday evening that two soldiers who have been afflicted with a certain infections disease and who have been confined in a house outside the limits of the city, when they were able to walk about, came into the city and were allowed. to go wheresoever they choose. It was also intimated by 'Mr. Glator, from the 4th Ward, that unless something is done to prevent future occurrences of this sort, the people of that ward, who are more immedistely interested than any others, would take the matter into their own hands, and effect a speedy remedy.

This city has been singularly free from contagious diseases, while other cities and towns and neighborhoods have been terribly plagued, and we cannot be too careful to prevent the spread of lostbsome afflic-

We regret very much to learn that the military and city authorities have not so far been able to act in harmony with reference to the matter of which we are speaking. We do not see why this harmony should not exist. We are all equally interested, and it is to be regretted that there should be any feeling of captionsness when such an important matter is to be consid-

BOT IS AN OFFICER A SOLDIER .- About a year ago, at the solicitation of the military anthorities here, the City Council passed an ordinance, prohibiting the sale of liquor to soldiers. The ordinance has been very rigorously executed in many instances and nearly all of the saloon keepers have been made to pay the penalties of its violation, but as yet no liquor seller has been fined for selling liquor to officers. Although the language of the ordinance is plain it has heretofore been construed to apply only to enlisted men. Yesterday two officers took a drink at the house of George Dusch .-They were observed by a policeman, who at once summoned them to appear before Ald. Robertson to testify against Dusch, but the officers declined to be sworn, and so the matter rests for the present.

Under this construction of the ordinance, which is doubtless the proper one, Lt. Gen. Grant himself, could not get, in one of our bar rooms, a drink of the whisky of whiche was once reputed to be so fond.

$65 MAYHEM .- A case of precocious depravity came up before the Mayor of Pitteburgh on Tuesday, in the shape of a charge of maybem against a boy six years of age. It was alleged that the youthful Nero, becoming ontraged with a little playmate, bis junior two years, actually punched its eye out with a rusty nail; and, not content with this, the young demon was deliberately proceeding to put out the other eye, when the little victims' screams brought it assistance. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the offender, but his parents spirited him off to the country before the officers had time to secure him.

DES ARRIVAL OF STATE CONVICTS .- A man by the name of Baker and a man by the name of Harrison, from Mason county, the former convicted of unlawful shooting and the latter of borse stealing, arrived in the city yesterday and were confined in the penitedtiary. A man by the name of White, from Lewis county, convicted of breaking open a smoke house, also arrived and was committed.

It is feared that the juil cannot be rendered capable of conveniently accommodating all the convicts that will be sent here.

ASSESSOR'S Notice -By an adverpersons are notified that the lists, valuations and enumerations made and taken by the several Assistant Assessors under the Excise Law, for this district, will be open for inspection at the offices of said Assistant Assessors until the time mentioned in BOY A CONVICT ESCAPED .- A soldier by the name of Bernard Earley, of the 5th New York Cavalry, under sentence of court martial, escaped from the guard at Glover's Gap on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad on Thursday night. Bernard was coming to this city to serve out a year's imprisonment with ball and chain attached to his leg.

BOF FORESTALLING MARKET.-A man from the country by the name of Beck was ar rested yesterday morning for forestalling the market and was fined $5 and costs by Ald. Robertson.

Fellow citizens of the United States: In all seasons and exigencies, it becomes a nation carefully to scrutinize its line of conduct, humbly to approach the throne of grace, and meckly implore forgiveness, wisdom and guidance. For reasons known only to Him, it has been decreed that this country should be the scene of unparalleled our rage, and this nation the monument at sufferer of the nineteenth century.—
With heavy heart, but undiminished confidence in our cause, I approach the perfidence in our cause. I approach the performance of a duly rendered imperative by

It is not necessary that I should tell you

More about the Bogus Proclamation New York, May 18 .- The second edition of the World to day says:

The World in connection with the Journal of Commerce and all the city morning papers, was made the victim of a malicious hoax by some scoundrel, who imitating the manifold copy of the Associated Press, sent Cincinnati, May 18th.—A special to the commercial, dated Gauley Bridge, 17th. which appeared in our columns this mornfalsity was not discovered until this morning, when the edition was nearly worked

The World does not stereotype its form as do several of the morning papers, and as it is working off a very heavy edition daily, we are compelled to go to press at an no-usually early hour. The Journal of Commerce was deceived in the same manner as the World, and of course, quite as innocently.

The Herald, we understand, printed the false proclamation in a large edition, but fortunately for them, it was discovered in time to suppress it on their regular edition. We regret exceedingly the publica-tion, as we have just pride in publishing none but reliable news, but it was one of those inexplicable accidents which is liable to happen to any newspaper establishment. New York, May 18 .- The Tribune special dated headquarters, 27th says, the enemy still holds his line northwest of Spottsylvania. ent to get up as high as Dr. Howlitt's farm.

The rebels occupy the left back of the James river, and interfered with his movements. Subsequently, however, the Admiral advanced with the intention of going us far as possible. New York, May 18 .- During the past
