AN AUFUL CURS - THE LIST OF J. D. Halle nalielejani
Os stormy sea in open boat,
In Iceland's cold with out a coat,
Glory, Hallelujat!

No rudder, compass, sail or oar, Halle-hallelojah! A million miles away from shore, Where myriad briny moasters ross Gkory, Hallelujah!

May sharks devour him stem and stern, Halle-hallelrjab! A whale then galpa him down in turn, And the devil get the whole cencern. Glory, Hallelnjah!

Che, pirings the cura'd secession swall,
Halle-halled juli
In darkers pit of despest hell,
To gnash his teeth and roar and yell.
Glory, Hallerij hi

In burning brimstone may he be, Halle hallely falj While little devils dence in gise, And lock the door and lose the key. Glory, Hallebylahi

Good devil see you chain him well, Halle-hallelvjah! In torture wereethan tongue can tell, In hottest fire of blesing hell. Glory, Hallelujahi And mid his rears and frantic cries, Hatle-hallelyjah!

Oh make eternal sahes rise,
And blow for ever in his eyes.
Glory, Hallelt jah!

Oh, cure each blasted rebel knave, Halle-hallelnjahl
On no account Jeff. Davis save,
That hell deserving, sconodrel, slave.
Amen, Hallelnjahl

(To which is added ) And while he lives, of! may he dread,"
Halle-halletylah!
The spirits of the slaughtered dead,
Who for his impion a deeds have bled.
Glory, Halletujah!

And when he dies—Lord send it soon! Halle-hillstrjah! M'y deep oblivion be his doom, Without a grave, without a tomb, Glory, Hallstrjah!

AN ESPECIAL CUBS FOR HENRY A. Old Henry Wise, ob may he know, Halie-hallenjah!
The death of Davis, and down below,
The good John Brown his Lesarus kno
In Giory, Hallelujah!

SUMMARY SUMMERINGS.

1. When you go out of town, resolve to sink the shop. This may be a difficult thing to do if you have been talking shop all your life; therefore, suppose you 'try the experiment for a little while of not talking at all. It will be a pleasing variety, and may give you the reputation of a grea thinker.
2. Southern slaveholders and city officials have brought the term gentleman into bad odor. Therefore dont call yourself anything of the sort. Say at once that you are a loafer; stick your feet into the windows and spit. It caves no end of trouble, and also enables you to fraternize easily with a large and valuable portion of the indigenous correlation.

indigenous population.

3. Don't say you know an alderman, lest people lock up their plated spoons; or an editor, lest they think you are a correspon dent and going to put them into his paper (country people are so conceited); or an arist, lest some donkey set you down for a dissipated Bohemian.

4. As a general rule it is safest not to know anybody or anything; then you can-not be suspected of knowing more than your neighbors, which is very anti-republi-

5. On starting for the country you will be puzzled what to do with your ! Sanday-go to meeting" clothes. If you leave them behind, the moths, which, as an observant foreigner has lately remarked, really seem to like camphor, cedar and tobacco, will most probably make away with them; if you take them with you, you will waste their sweetness on the desert natives, who will moreover be approved to make the will moreover be annoyed by your appear-ing in better rig than their own. In this dilemma, your best plan is to have no good clothes. Buy your habiliments at a slop-shop, and wear them as long as they will stick together. Thus you will have money (a great point now-a-day,) and avoid the dangerous reputation of being "stuck up." "stuck up."

6. However bad any food may be, don't complain of it. Remember that an American citizen has no right to find fault with anything, and that if your landlord chis-els you he is only following the example of most great railroad and steamboat compa-nies. Remember, also, that if the son of your loins and the daughter of your boson ever know enough to keep a hatel, or take boarders, they will be able to impose upon the public in like manner. Therefore, if the viands offered you are utterly uneata-ble, all you have to do is not to eat them. By fasting for three days you will probably by insting for three days you will probably become bungry enough to eat m old book without sance, or a cat without stopping to cut the claws off.

7. You don't go in to the country to eat; else you would be wonderfully disappeinted. Nor do you go to dress; therefored dress as little as possible. If it is hot, walk about in your shirt and continuations like the plain farmers of the vicinity. like the plain farmers of the vicinity. Go barefoot if the roads are not too gravelly. It saves expense, and makes you a favorite with the ladies.

8. When you are at Rome do as the Romans do, however vain they may be. Oon form to the manners and customs of the form to the manners and customs of the people about you, provided such conformative does not lead straight to the hospital or the penitentiary. Thus, if the abordines drink whisky warranted to kill at 50 yards, you may decline joining them on the plea of being subject to pericarditis, or a total temperance society; but if they habitually speak bad grammar, by all means do the same. It is an innocent concession to their prejudices, and bad. English is nowbeen contestions.

concession to their prejudices, and Dad English is nowhere forbidden in scripture. 9. Be cheerfal, be kind, be considerate. Of course you have no occasion for these virtues in town. They might interfere with your business and derogate from your independence. But in the country, where nobody knows you, you may indulge your-selves and others in these unusual practices.

10. It is best not to have any politics or religion; then you cannot offend persons of

11. Never argue, unless you are going-through a course of Banting, and even then a walk of ten miles is better. Argument never does anybody else any good, and it will do you none unless you are paid for it. Leave it to the editors and policions and lawyers, who are paid for it.

In this condition, the mose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and simid, afterwards becoming thick and adhestive. As the disches becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quantity; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked on; coughed off. The secretions are offen sive, cassing a had breath; the voice is thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of the melli lessened or destroyed; dealness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or slimy mens, which has fallen down from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on, its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

DR. R. H. LEE—PHYSICIAN, SURGEON AND ACOOUGHER—thankful for past favors would respectfully inform his friends and the pablic generally that he is still doing business at his old stand, Makin infrest, near; the Suspension Bridge where he will be happy to attend to any business in his line that may be entrusted to his dare. Night calls promptly attended to. Dr. Lee is a graduate of the Electio Medical Institute of Uncinnati, and has been variously sugged in the practice of his profession for the last fourteen years. Dr. Hee now prepared with all the necessary praratus for the Medical application of Electricity in the treatment of Ohronic diseases, to which he would invite the special attention of the adjloted. So perfect the special attention of the present day (as practiced by Electricity) that fow need despair of receiving per manent bouefit if they cannot be perfectly cured; because all communications strictly confidential, Qua practice is safe, certain and prompt, leaving no mercurial taint in the system, but cleaning renovating and strengthening the general system, acting in unison with Nature's unerring laws.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbled the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, detera him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone be friend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as alcorated sore throat, diseased, acce, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the ship-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at names, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shlo-bones and arms, bletches on the head, face and ex-tremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, until death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveler returns."

Trust not your Hves, or health, to the care of many in learned and workless Pretenders, destints o knowledge, name or character, who copy Dr. Johnston a advertisements, or style themselves, in the newspapers, regularly Educated Physicians, incapable of Guring, they keep you trifling month after month taking their filling and poisonous compounds, or as long as the smallest fee can be obtained, and in despair, leave you with ruined nealth to sign over your own gailing disappointment.

Dr. Johnston is the only Physician advertising. His credentials or diplomas always hang in his office.

His remedies or treatment are unknown to all others, prepared from a life spent in the great heapitials of Europe, the first is the country and a more extensive priceds practice than any other Physician in the world.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured them-salves by improper indulgangence and solitary hab-its, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons MUST, before contemplating by fact that thousands fall victim to this terrible disease, owing to the unskifulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that Deadly Poison, Mercesty, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

The many thousands cored at this institution year after year, and the numerous important Surgical Cogrations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the reporters of the "Sin," "Olipper," and many other papers, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afficient.
