

THE MARCH COURT.

The Jurors and the Cases Which they are Expected to Try.

Judge James Aldrich will hold an extra term of the Court at this place, commencing March 31st, for the purpose of disposing of the cases now on the different dockets.

The jurors for this term have been drawn, as follows:

- Whiskey at Abbeville.
- The coming election campaign will be largely upon the question of licensed sale of whiskey at Abbeville.
- The temperance people of Abbeville county are sorry to make the issue in an election year, but it seems that they are forced to do it. Accepting the prevalent opinion that it was better to keep the whiskey question out of politics, the people several years ago merely asked the Legislators to allow them to vote on the question—if petition was made to the Legislature for such election. Nothing was done in the Legislature looking to an election on the subject, until a long petition had been sent to that body—the number of signatures to that petition being perhaps equal in number to a majority of the voters of the county.
- A law was then passed submitting the question to the people.
- An election was held. Peace and order, friendship and good feeling prevailed.
- The temperance people won an overwhelming victory.
- During the first six months after the law went into effect, almost no whiskey was sold in Abbeville, and almost no drunkenness was seen on our streets.
- The latter part of the year whiskey was sold to some extent, and more drunkenness was seen.
- When it was understood that the townspeople would petition the Legislature for the right to grant license, the sale seemed to be increased, and without much attempt at concealment.
- It is a matter of extreme regret that the people will be called upon to re-vote on this question in a campaign year, but the question is a living one, which will not down, and the people will expect to hear definite and positive declarations from the candidates to the General Assembly.
- This is a Republican form of government and the will of the people should govern.
- If they want the sale of whiskey continued at Abbeville, they can so express themselves at the ballot box, while electing men who will carry out their wishes.
- On the other hand, if they want the sale of licensed liquor discontinued at Abbeville, they can elect men who may be pledged in unequivocal terms to the enforcement of their will on the subject.
- The people therefore, will raise the issue, and, at the primary election, they will again decide the question for themselves.
- If a majority of the people want the licensed sale of whiskey at Abbeville, the temperance people must submit.
- If a majority of the people wish to see the matter closed, then why not let them be closed?
- This is a campaign which must be for a principle. No bitterness of speech should enter. Every man in this free country has a right to his own opinion, and no man has a right to assume to be the keeper of his neighbor's conscience.
- Let this campaign be for the single purpose of deciding whether we want liquor at Abbeville.
- Every man put his hand on his heart, and vote according to the convictions of his own conscience.
- A full expression of opinion is all that any owes it to himself and to his neighbors, to vote according to his convictions.

Taxing Cotton Seed.

There is now a proposition in Congress to levy a heavy tax on the products of the cotton seed oil.

Semi-occasional efforts have been made to take the tax off of cotton seed and tobacco.

If we could get free whiskey and tobacco, and then have our cotton seed taxed out of reason, the South would be happy indeed.

What need our people care for the burden laid on the farming interests—by destroying the marketable value of cotton seed—if we can only get enough free whiskey?

Whiskey is good for snake bites and other things, and therefore ought to be free. The cotton seed oil is only eaten, or used in cooking, and therefore is an unimportant product, and ought to be taxed. That's the way to look at it.

The Address of the Executive Committee.

The daily papers of last Saturday contained the address of the State Executive Committee. Without intending to give offense to any brother editor, we take our copy from the News and Courier, and present it to our readers as it appeared in that paper.

The address is unobjectionable, and can do no harm, and may do some good. Let every Democrat read it, and "get together."

What's the Country Coming To?

They've hanged a white man out in Mississippi for killing a negro. He was a very poor sort of a white man, or else they enforce the law better in Mississippi than they do in South Carolina.

Mr. D. A. Smith, of the Keenest Courier, is a candidate for School Commissioner in Oconee county. If we were a citizen of Oconee, we would vote for him, sure.

After an absence of several weeks, we welcome the Columbia Record back to our sanctum.

DEATH OF MRS. McCASLAN.

After a Long and Useful Life, She Goes to the Grave in the Hope of a Blessed Immortality.

Mrs. M. O. McCaslan died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. A. B. Lindsay, on Friday the 21st inst. after a long and useful life. She was only sick a few days. She lived out six weeks after her husband's death. They had been married nearly six years.

She was a devoted Christian and expressed great willingness to die. It was touching to hear her beautiful dying prayer for her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved everybody and was kind and generous to all.

A number of friends and relatives had met at her home, and Dr. Lindsay was to conduct the funeral services, but was prevented by sickness. A friend read the 5th chapter of Job, (a favorite chapter of hers), then made an appropriate prayer. Her remains were taken to the Foster burying ground to rest with her husband and children.

Let us, like this dear mother, say, "Dear Lord, thy will be done."

ACTIVITY ON THE FARMS.

Methods of Economy—Shipments of Wire Fencing—Enlarged Pastures.

Our farmers are working with great energy in preparing their lands for another crop. The immense number of miles that has been sold by drovers to the planters means much planting and sowing. The land which has heretofore been planted, will be re-planted this year.

The banks at Abbeville are furnishing money to scores of farmers who have heretofore given loans to the stores for goods, and there seems to be a general desire to carry on the farms with a view to more practical results than on any previous year.

While it would seem that every farmer should make his own supplies—including manure—it is gratifying to see those who will not provide for their own wants, more careful in the matter of contracting debts.

Money borrowed from the banks will buy more goods and more care on the same amount of goods bought on a credit. There never was a time when there was so general a desire to enlarge the area of pastures than now. Car loads of wire are being distributed all over the county.

PUTTING ON WAR PAINT.

THE REPUBLICANS GIVE NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS THAT THEY MUST GET TOGETHER.

The colored people are called upon to organize into clubs, and their first and only duty is to get registration tickets.
