Wanted.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as sour stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constipation, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, despondent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At all druggists. Speed Drug Co.

Removal.

To my friends and customers throughout the county, I have moved from the store I recently occupied, known as the Kansas Building above the Court House, to one recently occupied by H. W. Lawson, known as the Tin and Stove man next door above McMill and Lyon on Trinity Street. Come around and see me. I still carry the same line of goods. Mandolin, guitar, violin and piano supplies. Babcock's chocolate No. 1 can be had in 10 cent cakes.

Yours,

Mike Cassidy.

Sale of Valuable Lands.

Mrs. Marshall is offering for sale some valuable farming lands and some desirable building lots. The land, if not sold before that time will be offered to the highest bidder, immediately after the official sale on Monday in December next. The terms are so reasonable that a good demand for them. Land in Abbeville is real property.

Tell Your Grocer What You Want.

When you order a sack of flour be certain to tell your grocer to send you "Clifton," otherwise you may get something that costs the grocer less, but which you buy cheaper. And you don't get as good, pure flour, either. Always ask for "Clifton" brand. L. T. & T. M. Miller has it.

Towels Without Cost.

Every forty-eight pound sack in which "Clifton" flour is packed will make two good towels, the regular toweling goods being used in the manufacture of the sacks. Ask your grocer to send you a forty-eight pound sack, or call at L. T. & T. M. Miller's for it.

All is the Asking.

Ask for a sack of flour and you get the flour that best suits your dealer. He may care more for his profit than your health. Ask for "Clifton" and you get the best and purest flour in the south. L. T. & T. M. Miller keep it.

Hurry if You Want to Get Coal.

James B. Moore has a new lot of Clifton coal here in a few days. Place your order quick if you don't want to get left.

TROY NEWS.

Whisky Constables on the Go—People Coming and Going.

Mrs. H. D. Presley and little girls are in Abbeville, Fla., for an extended visit with relatives.

Mrs. Elizabeth Warnock and daughter Miss Jane have left for Allendale. We are sorry to see them leave.

Mrs. W. F. Wideman was called by telephone to Gastonia, N.C., to attend her father's funeral, the venerable and much loved Dr. E. E. Boyce, who died last week.

Miss Jennie Kennedy of the Due West Female College, spent a few days with her parents at Bellevue, on her way from the Jay-Gordon wedding.

The sudden illness of Mr. O. P. Morey called his daughter Miss Nellie from Washington, D.C., and she accompanied him home. We hope he is better, and reached home in safety.

Mr. J. M. Stines of Hilder, is improving the place recently bought from Mrs. E. F. Rogers, and will in a few weeks occupy this home.

Mr. Eugene Caldwell from North Carolina, has pitched his tent here and you can have your "likeness drawn," and nicely done.

Mr. Jack Woodward of Millway has sold his home to Mrs. L. H. Harlow and will, in a few days, move near Augusta.

Constable Stone, Davenport and Newell were "made" and arrested and captured nine gallons of whisky.

On Thursday evening at 10 o'clock, Fred and Frank were arrested and taken to the Baptist church. We are sure all will be glad to hear this.

On Wednesday night, did we say where? Well, he called it "Lethia." It is just as sweet by any other name. He arrived Saturday.

Miss Emma Brown from Savannah, is a student in the Presbyterian School, and her pupils are charmed with her.

On Wednesday night, at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride, Rev. H. B. Blakely will unite the lives of Mr. W. S. Horne and Miss L. M. Carter.

Mr. J. F. Wideman is attending the A. R. F. Synod, at Pigeon, N.C.

We are glad to know Mr. J. S. Britt of Wide-mans who has been in Atlanta for treatment of his eyes, is able to see again.

Mr. R. F. Blakely is adding a dwelling to his store which will be ready for use by Christmas.

Mrs. Martha Temple and her mother, Mrs. Fisher, who have been residents of our town for 12 months, have left for the city, named home in Florida.

Cards announcing the marriage of Mr. Sam Cooke of this place and Miss Ida May Hawthorne of Iowa, on the 10th of Dec.

The gypsy traders who were here last week, leaving the citizens here with a few hundred dollars less. They were "bumbuggers," and some here can testify to it.

Court convened in session on the 11th. The jail is full, and if justice is measured the chain gang will have more boarders.

Miss Berrie Wilder from Savannah who is teaching at Chestnut, is pleasantly remembered in Abbeville.

Miss Jennie McCallister from Greenwood is here with her cousin Miss Jennie Denny.

Where is the cotton market, has the bottom fallen suddenly out?

Horse Backs.

The horse racks were removed from the public square during the fair a week or two ago. The square looks so much better, and the ground is so much clearer and prettier that it seems a pity to restore the old order of things. Abbeville is, perhaps, the only place on earth, who hitch their horses in the front yard. Couldn't a lot be secured for the horses?

Ryckard's Clocks.

Ryckard has a variety of clocks. He has many clocks that keep their hands before their faces. He has clocks that run and clocks that stand. He has clocks that come and clocks in wooden frames. He has clocks that hammer cathedral gongs, and clocks that cry the hour and war whoop to lovers to part. He has pugnacious clocks that knock the hours and strike the halves. He has clocks with fire-alarm bells, and he has clocks that stand as lonely sentinels during the silent watches of the night. He has clocks that tell the maiden into beauty sleep, and he has clocks that warn the prodigal of the passing night. Call and see his full stock.

The Christmas Number of the Belle-entier.

To do justice to this number, which for beauty and utility touches the highest mark, it would be necessary to print the entire list of contents. It is sufficient to state that it is the best modern writers and artists are generously represented. The book contains over 50 pages, with 34 full page illustrations, of which 20 are in two or more colors.

"A Wise Woman."

Don't forget to go to the Opera House Thursday night and see "A Wise Woman." Tickets for sale at Milford's Drug Store. Prices 50, 75, $1.

"A Wise Woman."

The great big comedy event of the season will take place when the new comedy farce, "A Wise Woman," will be presented in this city Thursday night, Nov. 13. Its representation will enlist a corps of artists of reputation and of undoubted talent.

Thanksgiving Service.

Thanksgiving service will be held at Greenview Church by the pastor. Collection for Thornwell Orphanage.

Eyes Tested Without Charge.

I am prepared with the best approved scientific instrument to test eyes. J. W. Ryckard. No charge.

DURING THE PAST WEEK

has received almost an entirely new STOCK OF GOODS.

A LARGE number of monster Dry Goods boxes have arrived filled with new Prints, new Percales, new Outings and new Dress Goods of various kinds. His stock is now about as attractive as it was two months ago, because it has been fully kept up, and where any depletion in any line manifested itself, orders for new goods have been sent forward promptly, and in this way the vacancies made by an enormously large trade have been filled at once.

COME TO SEE and join the throng of HAPPY BUYERS that fill our stores every day. All hands are kept busy and this would not be the case if we did not offer the right kind of GOODS at the right PRICES. Cold weather has not yet come, but it is not far in the future, and it is wise to prepare for it in time. Come and buy your Clothing, Shoes, Underwear, Woolens, Carpets and Rugs.

For the Ladies we have an elegant line of Jackets and Wraps, and for Gentlemen Overcoats at all prices.

L. W. WHITE.

DUE WEST.

News from the Seven Hills—A Stock Show—Fine Orchards—A Very Aged Terrapin.

Nov. 10, 1902. Mrs. Manor Rice, a childless, of Ninety six with the family of Mr. W. T. Cowan, the Mostard Symphony Club was the attraction before the Due West Lyceum Monday night. The audience was delighted and charmed with the delightful music. As another appeared they were escorted, and responded with something familiar to the audience, and among them were, My old Kentucky Home and Dixie, which brought forth an applause akin to the rebel yell.

An effort is being made to organize a Camp of Woodmen of the World at this place, but without success we cannot say. The organization is benevolent in character.

Mrs. P. L. Grier has some of the finest roses in her yard that we have ever seen. We suggest a flower show for Due West.

Senator J. R. Blake, Miss Leona Blake, Miss Margaret Giffin and Mr. Miles from Abbeville, attended the concert given by the Mozart Symphony Club Monday night.

Mr. A. H. McGee next year will occupy the place where Mr. Robert Pratt lived for so many years.

Thieves took several hundred pears from Prof. J. F. Lee a few nights ago.

Mr. A. H. Kennedy, the Cashier of the Bank of Due West, informs us that a new system of book-keeping has been adopted in the bank, and since the transfers have been made, he finds the new system much more satisfactory.

Daniel went from Due West to the meet- ing of Synod in North Carolina.

Mr. J. G. Lover made 500 bushels of corn. He works Mr. R. W. Haddon's farm, makes good crops and lives at home.

Thursday night of this week a lecture will be delivered in the A. R. F. Church to the theological students by Rev. M. M. Henry, D. D., of Alabama. A good lecture may be expected and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Supervisor Nichols is having some splendid work done on the road from Due West to Abbeville. A coat of gravel from four to six inches deep is being laid between Mrs. Gordon's and Long Cone Cemetery, and where necessary, the road is being made wider.

For the various improvements that are being made on the public roads of the County, the Supervisor will receive the thanks of the travelling public. Let the good work go on. If you appreciate the work that has been done, or is being done, let the Supervisor know it and encourage him to continue the improvements.

In the year 1857 there lived within a mile of Due West, a young man by the name of Presley Ellis. He caught a terrapin and cut his initials, E. P. E., and the year, 1859 on the back of said terrapin. A few days ago Mr. Robert Ellis, a son of Mr. W. T. Ellis and a nephew of Mr. Presley Ellis, caught the aforesaid terrapin and saw the initials on his back as they were cut forty-five years ago.

The terrapin gave no information as to where he had been all these years nor as to how he had been able to travel so long. No revelation was made as to the slight he had witnessed, the narrow escapes he had nor the various subjects his finder would have been pleased to hear him relate.

Parties who have not received their premiums awarded at the County Fair, should call on the Secretary J. Fraser Lyon for them.

Religious services will be held in the Associate Reformed Church next Sunday morning. All are cordially invited.
