Within a radius of three miles of Calhoun Falls, there was raised during the past year over two thousand five hundred and sixty bales of cotton. This when sold, even at the present low price, will amount to one hundred thousand dollars or more. A large part of this sum will go into circulation in this town.

The Calhoun Mills are, and have been running on full time, with a full force of operatives. The weekly pay roll is about eleven hundred dollars, nearly all of this sum is spent in Calhoun Falls.

Near Dresden, about two miles from this town, there is iron ore in sufficient quantity to pay to work.

On the Calhoun Estate, there are several old gold mines; these mines, during the lifetime of the late James Edward Calhoun, were worked with crude machinery, and I am told paid well. Several years ago, I took from around the old shaft of one of these mines, several pieces of rocks and had them assayed, and the assay showed four dollars to the ton, these pieces were refuse from the mine, and did not indicate the value of the gold bearing strata.

On the Calhoun Estate there are deposits of kaolin.

Our Baptist pastor, Mr. Stewart, of Calhoun Falls, will preach at Mt. Carmel Sunday morning and at Willington in the afternoon. Mr. Stewart is a man of deep thought and a fluent speaker. We hope that every one who possibly can will come out to hear him.

We also take this opportunity to suggest that every one come out to prayer meeting. Lets take more interest in it and just see how much good we can get out of it. There is an old saying that the people get as good government as they want and is it not just as true that we get as much good out of religion as we want. As a rule we take entirely too little interest in religious affairs when the chief end of man is to glorify God and enjoy him forever. This is a matter that we should not neglect for "How shall we escape if we NEGLECT so great a salvation."

FERTILIZERS.

Mr. Wakefield Gives Valuable Information.

Antreville, S. C., Feb. 15, 1915.

Mr. Editor:

Saturday the 13th of February was advertised by Clemson College, and to be held in every County in the State, as Economy and Fertilizer Day. While it was not largely attended, I feel sure many of us were disappointed, as we were led to believe we would have something along the line of Economy and Fertilizer by experts that would have done us good. I, for one, was disappointed in the meeting, but still hope that good may result from it.

Now, Mr. Editor, I want to say something along the line of Fertilizer, and by your publishing the same it may reach some in time to save them some money. Every man in the County (if he be a man) is doing his utmost, not only for self but those he can help, be it by some kind word or otherwise. So I feel that this is season for fertilizer I might save some at least paying out unnecessary money for this commodity. So under the circumstances, what will be the best thing for us to do?

I say that the farmer who has disposed of his cotton seed (and I hear there is not one in a hundred but what has done this very thing) should buy 14 per cent Acid and Nitrate of Soda: take 1760 lbs. Acid and 240 lbs. Nitrate of Soda and you have a first-class fertilizer, minus the Potash, for $16.00 per ton that will analyze 12 per cent. Phos. Acid, 2 per cent. Ammonia, no Potash. Of course we would all prefer some Potash, but on account of high prices prevailing, would cut it out for this year. It matters not what brand you buy this year you won't get much Potash; and should you get it, you are paying too dear for your whistle.

Now they are quoting a 10-2-2 fertilizer at $22.50 per ton, and I assure you I would rather have the one outlined above, 12-2-0, at even prices. Yet you are saving $5.00 per ton by mixing your own goods. Is it not quite an item? Think of what it would save to the County.

Now, I am making no fight on Cotton Seed Meal on any other ammoniates, as there are many good ones, but they are all too high compared to Nitrate of Soda. For instance: In 2,000 lbs. of Soda you get 360 lbs. actual Ammonia at a cost say, $45.00. In a ton of Cotton Seed Meal you get 140 lbs. actual Ammonia at a cost of $30.00 per ton. Don't you see in the Nitrate of Soda proposition you are buying your Ammoniates at $2.50 per unit, and in Cotton Seed Meal you are paying for the same thing $4.50 per unit? This is based on lawful 7 per cent. Cotton Seed Meal. It is true C. S. Meal has a little Phos Acid and a little Potash, but so little it amounts to almost nothing. Now, could I make this most plain? It is so plain anyone can see it. The most serious proposition that confronts us is, where the money is to come from to buy this Nitrate of Soda. The dealers are selling strictly for cash and you won't be able this season to buy on any other terms. So Mr. Banker comes in, and should advance deserving farmers this amount, and you will have no trouble in buying your Acid Phos, provided you have settled up and made satisfactory arrangements for last year. I know many have not done so, so let all such do without, or the best they can.

Now, Mr. Editor, there has never been any reason for any man to owe one dollar for fertilizer, and it takes time like this to put us to thinking. Our cotton seed rightly managed will always give us an abundance. You can almost any year swap Ton of Seed for Ton of C. S. Meal and often do better, and you can always swap Ten of Seed for Two and sometimes Three Tons Acid, so you see you are getting two for one, and 1-4 Meal and 3-4 Acid will give you a good fertilizer and it paid for. In some cases I know of all the cotton made on farm going to pay fertilizer bill. Now, what are your seed worth on this proposition? $45.00 per Ton or 67 1-2 per Bushel, and they are always worth 50c to the farmer, managed as outlined. I am aware all farmers can't make this exchange, for there would not be enough meal to go around, as we only get 800 lbs. Meal from Ton of Seed; but swap yours in future and get the other fellow's meal and owe no fertilizer account in fall. This will surely solve the fertilizer question. Now, it is useless for me at this time of economizing to advise you to make all home-made manure possible. Bake up your dirt in flats, haul leaves and anything you can get, and with a little Acid sprinkled in, you will be able to cut your fertilizer account at least in half.

I could write on and on, if I knew it would amount to anything, but will close for this time; and I hope to see others express their ideas, as this is the only way to reach the people—through the County papers at their leisure.

Yours truly,

S. J. Wakefield.
