

LOWNDESVILLE.

Lowndesville, Aug. 13.—During the past week Miss Cornelia Tennent has entertained at a series of delightful parties in honor of her sweet young visitor, Miss Mary Milford, of Abbeville. On Saturday afternoon, Miss Cornelia entertained the young ladies at a most interesting card party; on Saturday evening she gave a most delightful dance to the young people; again, on Monday evening she entertained at an informal affair in honor of several personal friends of Miss Milford, who had come from Abbeville for the evening. The refreshments served during this series of entertainments were especially appropriate, consisting of either a salad course or ice course as the occasion demanded.

The Tennent home is a favorite meeting place for the young people and during this season of entertainment, was bright with mid-summer flowers and delightful with floating strains of sweet music. Far above all shone the gracious spirit of hospitality extended by the genial host, Mr. Charles Tennent and his charming sister, Miss Cornelia. Miss Milford is one of Abbeville's fairest debutantes, and is a young lady of unusual personal beauty and brightness, by her vivacious manner and friendly spirit she made many warm friends during her visit.

On last Thursday, Mr. Keys Bowman gave a delightful dinner at his lovely country home in honor of his sister, Mrs. Maurice Meschine's guests, Misses Wharton of Gadsden, Ala. Those present on this happy occasion speak in glowing terms of the magnificent dinner, the cordiality of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bowman and the good time in general given by the splendid young host, whose industry provides this pleasant home with all the luxuries of the season.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Meschine entertained in honor of their guests, Misses Wharton at an informal reception. Due to the inclemency of the evening it was possible for only a few of the invited guests to be present. Mr. and Mrs. Meschine have recently completed their pretty bungalow, situated on a high eminence almost overlooking the waters of Savannah river and is an ideal place of entertainment. Those who were present speak in loud terms of the splendid time given them by the young host and hostess.

Truly the voice of the land speculator is heard on every side and the real estate man has come into his own at last. To express it mildly, Lowndesville is being shaken from center to circumference by the land deals that are put on, not only daily but hourly. Mr. A. V. Barnes has bought the Henry Moseley place, Mr. A. B. Herron of Starr, has bought the John McCalla place and will make his home here. Mr. D. L. Barnes has bought the Will Nance lot on Depot Street, he has also bought the Kay farm lying below the depot, and, in the meantime, he has sold his Mauldin place to Mr. Ben Pearman of Starr. Mr. E. J. Huckabee, our hustling real estate man, has sold one tract of the Baker land to Mr. A. B. Herron of Starr; two tracts of the Baker land to Mr. Jno. Pruitt of Starr; the remainder of the Kay lands, also the Presher farm to Mr. Fearman; the Jas. H. Bell farm to Mr. Weston Shaw, who re-sold it to Mr. E. O. Clinkscales. Rumor has it that several other interesting deals will be consummated within a few days.

install a moving picture apparatus in the Drennan store room about Sept. 1st. Pictures will be shown twice weekly, Tuesday and Saturday nights.

The trustees of the Lowndesville High school have elected three teachers, Mrs. Gamewell Huckabee, Mrs. J. B. Huckabee and Miss Elizabeth Bell. No principal has been secured yet and the trustees are awaiting other applications before making a selection for this position.

For individual purchasers, prices will be $6 for new wool blankets, and $5 for reclaimed wool; $5 for new cotton mixed and $3.50 for reclaimed; $3 for new cotton and $1.25 for reclaimed cotton; the reclaimed, it is explained, are blankets used less than a year which have been renovated and laundered.

There's the same economy in using the one-ton Ford truck that there is in using the Ford car—only the larger carrying power of the truck commends it particularly to farmers, and other business men. The famous Model T motor assures reliable power, and lots of it; the manganese bronze worm drive makes certain the use of all that power; the three-point suspension gives flexibility, and vanadium steel strength. Price, without body, $550 f. o. b. Detroit.

Look Here Boys, Ten of You Get Together And Let us Sell You The
J. ALLEN. SMITH TRACT OF LAND.

Consisting of twelve hundred acres of the best land in Abbeville, County. lies fine, and rents this year for approximately $3500.00. Mr. Smith tells us that he has the young men of Abbeville at heart, and offers this most liberal proposition. On the 1st day of January, ten of you boys put up ONE thousand dollars each, buy this place, and get TEN years to settle the balance and get this money at 6 per. cent. Mr. Smith tells us that this place will pay for its-self at renting, and owners need never touch it and we know this to be so. With just a little business energy, you can put TWENTY FIVE plows to work on this place, and we tell you frankly, this place can be made to yield, SEVEN THOUSAND dollars per year. Cotton is 30 cts per pound, and we dont expect to live to see it any lower. Think this matter over, and let us hear from you.
