Accepts Anderson Pastorate.

Rev. C. B. Williams, professor of mathematics at Erskine College, who has supplied the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church here on many occasions, has accepted the pastorate of the A. R. P. church at Anderson, according to the following from the Anderson Daily Mail:

The A. R. P. church of Anderson will shortly have a new pastor, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the leaving of Dr. J. M. Garrison, May 1st, when he accepted the call to take another church. Dr. Garrison's successor in Anderson will be the Rev. C. B. Williams, for the last two years professor of Mathematics at Erskine College. The eight years prior to his coming to Erskine College were spent as pastor of the A. R. P. church at Tampa, Fla.

Local members of the A. R. P. congregation are enthusiastic over having secured Rev. Williams, he being quite well known in Anderson. He graduated at Erskine College in 1912

ABBEVILLE WINS FROM GREENWOOD

Abbeville defeated Greenwood 9 to 7 Thursday afternoon at Rosenberg Field. After letting the "Emeralds" pull into the lead by a margin of four scores, our fielding became air tight and a fatal batting barrage was laid. After that it was Abbeville's game all 'round and in the middle.

Milam, pitching for the locals got a ragged start but came through with a good brand of breakers. DeVore Andrews pitched well for Greenwood but he couldn't come up to our style of batting.

Starring with the stick, were Reames for Abbeville, who clipped off a home run in the sixth. Livingston did well for Greenwood, taking three hits out of three trips.

Score: R. H. E.
Abbeville - 100 012 500—9 12 2
Greenwood - 202 021 000—7 11 4

Some of the things that struck the Abbeville base ball fans at the game Thursday afternoon, as outstanding features of the game. What struck you?

G. A. McCanty liked Milan's work in the pinches, Reames' home-run and Bruce Galloway's leap and catch.

Owen Speed was struck by the difference in enthusiasm shown by Abbeville supporters when the tide turned in their favor.

What amused Will White was the monkey shines of the umpire.

W. Joel Smith was struck by Reames' home-run which completely unnerved Andrews.

Bradley Reese was struck by how glad everybody was when Greenwood got licked.

W. D. Wilson says: "I am D— glad we beat."

Joel Morse says the first thing that struck him in the game yesterday was the home-run by Reames.

Fred Hill was sure Abbeville would get beat when he arrived at the ball ground. The thing that struck him though was the batting of the home team and the rattling of the Greenwood pitcher.

Sanford Howie claims that the outstanding feature in the game

WANT ROAD IMPROVED

A delegation from the Broad-mouth Community appeared before the Abbeville highway commission at its regular meeting last Saturday and asked that the road leading from Honea Path to Ware Shoals be improved. This road is the main highway to market for the people living in that section and they feel that the road should be put in first class shape. After hearing the delegation the commission decided to take up this work as soon as certain other projects are completed. The road from Ware Shoals to the old Maddox place has been graded and top soiled and with the stretch from there to the Anderson county line improved it would give a good road from here to Ware Shoals.—Honea Path Chronicle.

An artificial wood that is so like the real thing that it can be worked with carpenters' tools and finished with a file or sandpaper is now being produced by an English firm.

yesterday was the hitting of the Abbeville team. The home boys were able to hit when hits were needed, and when that old lucky seven came around Greenwood was simply out-classed.

Oscar Cobb thinks the game was a regular slugging match with both teams. Greenwood being hit hard in the seventh inning.

What struck Albert Rosenberg was the batting of the entire Abbeville team and the jam up support accorded Milan; as well as the fine spirit shown by the entire crowd.

Dr. Penney was struck by the home-run of Reames and the absence of pretty girls.

Deer nose editorial—whut struck mee with the gam wus winnin em. keep it up an i will be satterfide. dote smith.

R. M. Hill thinks base ball in general is rotten.

Dr. S. G. Thomson thinks it was an exciting game.

S. G. Thomson, Jr.: A ball game is always a good game when the home team wins.

Dr. R. H. Brice: "The batting of Scoggins and Reames was the feature of the game."

Otto Bristow thinks Greenwood's pitcher was the best part of the game.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The subject of Pastor Weeks' sermon Sunday at 11 o'clock will be "Faith, A Fight."

The evening sermon will be "What's the Matter with Abbeville."

The church is making special effort now to be comfortable and attractive in every way. The new auditorium fans are in operation now and they render the church thoroughly comfortable. Come out and enjoy these services.

The Sunday School is meeting our trying period now. Some of our teachers are absent. Any teacher who can not attend his class is most earnestly urged to find a good substitute and be sure and notify the superintendent. Surely the teachers will take this interest in the work. The Sunday School pupil who comes to Sunday School on a hot Sunday morning deserves a good teacher who can and will teach the lesson in an interesting way.

The B. Y. P. U. meets at 7:30 Sunday. The program will be in charge of Group No. 1. All the young people of the church are urged to be present.

The Abbeville Association will organize an associational B. Y. P. U. at Greenwood July 13th. All the young people's organizations in the Abbeville Association are urged to send delegates to this meeting. The meeting will be held in the South Main Street Baptist church. This hospitable church has arranged the program and will serve all who come with dinner. The B. Y. P. U. of our church is expected to send a large delegation.

The prayermeeting of the church is being well sustained now. There is room for more, however. This service is held in the basement of the church where it is always cool and comfortable on Wednesday evenings. Our new members are specially urged to attend this service, as it affords a splendid opportunity to get acquainted with the membership of the church.

Our hearts go out in tenderest sympathy with the stricken family of our brother and sister, T. V. Howie. The going of our dear little girl, Elizabeth, leaves us all, especially this home, in bereavement indeed. "But we sorrow not as others who have no hope."

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

was auctioned off in front of the city hall by Dr. Pressly. After the auction a social hour was spent on the square during which the refreshments were served and music furnished by Hatch's Band.

At 8 o'clock the crowd repaired to the Opera House where a picture show and vaudeville was given which was in every way a proper ending to a most delightful entertainment. The program for the evening was as follows:

Song—Hospital Birthday, by Girls.
Turner Sumersault Orchestra.
Mose Johnson in Original Coon Steps—Jimmie Burns.
Awarding Parade Prizes.
Picture Program.

Dr. Pressly's number had to be called off on account of the absence of the Doctor on an important case. Many were disappointed that this part of the evening's entertainment had to be omitted. But the other features were more than attractive. The young girls as nurses were as sweet as young girls should be and the pantomime orchestra performance was greeted with applause as well as the number by Jimmie Burns of Greenwood in his minstrel song and dance.

After the vaudeville numbers Mr. Verchot gave one of his picture shows, and they are always good.

The following ladies were in charge of the different parts of the entertainment: Mrs. Frank Nickles had charge of the parade. Miss Mae Robertson and Miss Gladys Wilson of the entertainment at the opera house at night while Mrs. F. B. McLane, Mrs. E. R. Thomson and Mrs. C. H. McMurray and Miss Maggie Brooks looked after the social hour and the serving of refreshments.

The Hospital committee desires to thank the people of Abbeville County for their help and cooperation in getting up the entertainment.

Those failing to make their gifts at the party may do so by forwarding to Mrs. Frank Nickles, Abbeville, S. C.

New York, July 6.—Babe Ruth hit a home run with three men on bases in the third inning of the first game of a twin bill with the Indians here today.

It was Ruth's fourteenth home run of the season.
