

Local News

: Personals :

WATCH YOUR LABEL.

The Press and Banner is issued strictly on a cash in advance basis. Our lists are corrected the first Saturday in each month. If your label is marked "July 22" or "7-22" it means that your subscription has expired, and that your name will be dropped unless you renew your subscription before Saturday, Aug. 12th. We make no exceptions to the rule.

Mrs. Frank Palmer of Central was in town shopping Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Eaken is visiting relatives in Coronaca.

Thurston Clark is spending his vacation in Clinton.

Miss Annie Jackson, of Prosperity, was in town Monday.

L. C. Nickles of Means Chapel was here today on business.

John Todd of Due West was in Abbeville to see Tuesday's ball game.

Mr. Albert Power of Antreville was in town today on business.

R. M. Burts of Honea Path was in Abbeville Wednesday.

S. W. Watt of Due West was in the city Monday on business.

Mrs. Frank Welsh is visiting relatives in Greenwood this week.

Mrs. J. C. Cox has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives in Honea Path and Townville.

Miss Alpha Graves leaves today for a visit to her friend, Miss Jennie Nance of Monterey.

Miss Patty Wilkes of Laurens is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Moore Mars.

Mr. D. P. Hannah of Long Cane was here today. He says the boll weevils are busy in his section.

Col. A. T. Hall took a day off today and attended the annual reunion at Carswell's Institute.

Miss Mary Roche leaves Thursday for Georgetown where she will spend a pleasant vacation with friends.

Walker Edwards of Due West was one of the fans who saw the ball game on Tuesday.

Rev. Charles Evans of Lincolnton, Ga., is in Abbeville spending a few days with his relatives.

Miss Ira Hamilton left this week for Orangeburg where she is visiting friends.

Miss Rose Hamlin is in McCormick where she will spend a week visiting her relatives.

Misses Lucile and Thelma Loden are attending the Adkins' reunion near Verdery.

W. P. McGrath, of Lethe, is spending a few days in the city with R. M. Murphy.

Miss Susie Mabry is spending this week with Mrs. Herbert Allen in Greenwood.

Misses Agnes and Ruth Eakin leave today for a visit to relatives in Greenwood.

Mrs. O. M. Lanier of Monterey is in Richmond Virginia, where she is paying a pleasant visit to relatives.

Mr. D. S. Edwards of Due West was in the city Tuesday to see the ball game.

Mrs. Jim Ferguson of Brownlee was attending the Market Tuesday morning.

Miss L. E. Baskin is visiting her cousin, Miss Mary Reid near the city.

Mrs. Howard D. Faison of Columbia is in Abbeville visiting Mrs. D. A. Belcher.

Misses Essie Lee and Elizabeth McCord leave tomorrow for Birmingham, Ala., to spend their vacation with relatives.

Bob and Perrin Dargan returned to their home in Spartanburg today after a weeks visit to Frank and Hapoldt Neuffer.

Messrs. J. F. Barnwell and W. M. Langley are in New York this week on business for the Abbeville Cotton Mills.

Mrs. W. C. DuPre, Miss Eleanor DuPre and little Henry Dupre, Jr., have gone to Newberry for a visit to Mrs. Sallie Golden.

Wallace Cheatham of Columbia is in Abbeville spending sometime with his mother, Mrs. John T. Cheatham.

Messrs. M. W. Wells and J. O. Sheppard of Edgefield are among the delegates attending the meeting of the Junior Order.

Miss Mildred Cochran went to Williamston Tuesday to spend a few days with her friend, Miss Garce Lander.

E. J. Adair, of Clinton, was in the city yesterday looking after the big sale being put on by the Adair Department store.

Miss Nellie Murphy, accompanied by her nieces Misses Ruth and Mildred Murphy, and L. A. Murphy spent the week-end at Lethe.

Miss Vivian Fender of Valdosta, Ga., is in the city visiting her friend, Mrs. Floyd Graves on Washington street.

Miss Elizabeth Smith returned to her home in Greer Tuesday after spending two weeks with Miss Mildred Cochran.

Mrs. W. D. Barksdale, Mrs. C. D. Brown, Jr., and Miss Mae Robertson went up to Greenville Monday and spent the day.

Messrs. Victor and John Lomax leave this week for North Carolina to spend their vacation in the "Land of the Sky."

Dr. Samuel F. Killingsworth of Columbia is in Abbeville attending the meetings of the Junior Order. Dr. Killingsworth is the presiding officer at the meetings.

Mrs. Chas. Todd of Columbia is up to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McLane. Mrs. McLane and Mrs. Todd went to Due West Wednesday for a short visit.

Mr. Fred Dickinson, of Rockingham, N. C., traveling representative of the H. and B. American Machine Company, spent Tuesday night in the city with his cousin, Mrs. Jas. S. Cochran.

Geo. A. Miller of Poston, Florence County, is in the city for a visit to his sister, Mrs. Horace R. McAllister. Mr. Miller hold a responsible position with the Seaboard at Poston. He is looking well and all his friends are giving him the glad hand.

Misses Florella and Katherine Carroll of Monroe, N. C., who have been spending sometime in Abbeville with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Eakin, go to Greenwood today for a short visit to relatives before returning to Monroe.

Miss Mary Rudisail returned to Spartanburg this morning after a weeks' visit to friends in and near the city. Miss Rudisail made the trip in her car and was accompanied by Miss Annie Belle Little who will go with her to Chimney Rock for a few days outing.

SOCIETY

FRIDAY MORNING BRIDGE CLUB

The Friday Morning Bridge Club will meet this week with Mrs. Charlie McKenzie, on Pickens street.

DANCE AT CLUB.

A pleasant dance at the Country Club was enjoyed by about thirty of the younger set on Monday night. The Carolina Syncopators furnished the music for the occasion.

BOOK CLUB MEETS.

The Book Club meets this afternoon with Mrs. T. G. White on Greenville street. About twenty members are enjoying the afternoon, discussing the new books. Refreshments of cream and cake will be served.

FOR MRS. DAVIS.

Mrs. J. D. Keer is entertaining two tables of bridge this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Thos. L. Davis of Augusta. Ferns and pink roses comprise a pleasing decoration for this party. After the game of cards are over, refreshments of sandwiches and tea will be served.

IN HONOR OF MRS. WHITE

Mrs. J. Bonar White of Atlanta was the honor guest at a bridge party given Wednesday by Mrs. W. P. Greene. Two tables of players were invited to meet Mrs. White. After the games refreshments of salad and an ice were served.

FOR MRS. GRACE.

Mrs. G. E. Williamson has issued invitations to an afternoon tea to be given Friday in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. T. Grace of Graceville, Florida, who is spending sometime in Abbeville. Mrs. Grace is always a welcome visitor here

FOR THE VISITORS.

Mrs. J. F. Barnwell entertained two tables of bridge on Wednesday morning in honor of Mrs. J. T. Grace of Florida and Mrs. Thos. L. Davis of Augusta. The tables were arranged on the porch, and after the games delightful refreshments were served.

THE MERRIE MATRONS

Mrs. C. P. Townsend is entertaining the Merrie Matrons' bridge club this afternoon at her home on South Main street. Four tables of players are present to enjoy the game of cards. A color scheme of yellow carried out in both decorations and refreshments, makes the party an artistic one. Vases of marigold, zinnias and sunflowers are used to beautify the Townsend home; and at the close of the afternoon refreshments of cream, orange sherbet and cake will be served.

MRS. PERRIN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Lewis Perrin was hostess this morning at a lovely luncheon in honor of her guest, Mrs. A. C. Ancrum of Camden and of Miss Kitty Perrin of Greenville. A color scheme of yellow was carried out in the decorations and table appointments. Vases of yellow gladioli and sunflowers were used to beautify the Perrin home for this entertainment. Nine guests were present to meet the honorees of this pleasant occasion. A course luncheon was served at noon.

GOO DROADS.

Dr. R. S. Ligon, of Spartanburg, was in Abbeville on business today. He has traveled extensively by automobile through North Carolina and this section of South Carolina, and he says that the Abbeville-Due West road is the best that he has seen.

VISITORS FROM COLUMBIA

Mrs. Hubert Cox of Columbia arrived in Abbeville Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. Jennie Cox on North Main street. Mr. Cox will come from Columbia Thursday and spend a few days in Abbeville with his family.

FROM GREENVILLE.

Mrs. W. B. Perrin of Greenville arrived in the city today and will visit for sometime with Mrs. T. G. White on Greenville street.

FAMILY REUNION.

The Wilsons, Fells and Richey families held their annual reunion Tuesday near Verdery and a pleasant day and a bountiful picnic dinner with hash was served. Among those attending from Abbeville were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whaley and children, R. S. McComb, Mr and Mrs J W Tribble, W. S. Wilson and family, Misses Lucile and Thelma Loden and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans.

COUNTIES SEND TOTAL FIGURE

Enrollment Now Past That of 1920. 34 Counties Reported.

Columbia, Aug. 8.—Enrollment figures for the state reached a total of 161,890 Monday with 34 counties reported to H. N. Edmunds, secretary of the state Democratic executive committee. These 34 counties give an increase over the total enrollment of 1920 of 9,755. The total figure for 1920 was 152,035.

Twelve counties are yet to report to Secretary Edmunds and these 12 will carry the enrollment to the 200,000 or very nearly so, it is believed.

The following is the enrollment of counties in the Piedmont section: Abbeville, 3,264; Anderson, 11,250; Greenville, 16,131; Greenwood, 5,134; Laurens, 9,801; Newberry, 5,874.

IN HONOR OF GUESTS.

Misses Grace and Cecil Poole delightfully entertained their guests Mr. and Mrs. Hafner from Abbeville. and Misses Elizabeth Spearman and Marie Denard, of Greenwood, with a weinie roast at their country home on the Paris Mountain road. Yard games were played until 10 o'clock when the guests then assembled around a camp fire for the roast. About 50 guests enjoyed the evening—Green-ville News.

Race Riot Feared.

Newbern, N. C., Aug. 8.—Great excitement prevails in Onelaw county as the result of the probable fatal attack upon Cy Jones, rural mail carrier by a party of negroes late Saturday and a serious clash between the races is feared, according to information reaching Newbern, from Savannah.

RADIO FAN KILLED IN RIGGING AERIAL

Wire Crosses Power Cable—Lad's Death Leads to City Regulation.

Atlanta, Aug. 8.—The accidental death here today of Ben Camp Harper, 17, of Albany, Ga. while aiding in the installation of an amateur radio receiving set, was followed by city council adopting an ordinance requiring a permit from the city electrician before radio stations are set up hereafter.

Yong Harper, who was visting at the home of his uncle, B. C. Camp, department manager for a dry goods store, was attempting to throw an aerial wire across a high voltage cable in the back yard when the wire came in contact with the cable and caused his instant death. The new ordinance also provides that persons desiring to install radio sets must show they are capable of doing the work properly and authorized the city electrician to inspect sets already installed and order unsafe ones removed.

AGE 71 YEARS; ATTENDS SUMMER SCHOOL

New York, Aug. 8.—Mrs. A. P. Crawford of Greensboro, N. C., has entered Columbia university's summer school at the age of 71 because she thinks there is no need to grow old mentally.

Fifty years ago she was graduated from Vassar. Now she is the mother of six, three of them school teachers.

"Stagnation and intolerance are one's greatest foes in keeping young," she said today. "These changing times demand new viewpoints and the woman of today must keep well informed as part of her duty as a chieftian."

Words Not Adequate.

Mexico City, Aug. 8.—Mexico again has been told by Charles E. Hughes, the American secretary of state, that Mexico's accomplishments regarding guarantees for American properties and interests must be more of deeds and less of words if American recognition is to be extended to Mexico, according to Ex-celsior.

A communication to this effect, the paper says, was delivered by George T. Summerlin, the American charge d'affaires to Foreign Minister Pani last Thursday.

NEW LACE GOWN

The vogue for lace is distinctly expressed in this lovely gown—the orchid and violet tones of the hat match the girdle, which have been borrowed from a lady of the harem.

Owen Brothers Marble and Granite Co.

DESIGNERS
MANUFACTURERS
ERECTORS

The largest and best equipped monumental mill in the Carolinas.

GREENWOOD, S. C.

YOU ARE SAFE WHEN USING

DISTILLED WATER ICE. When you buy our Ice you can rest assured that you are not getting a "makeshift" or an Ice that is "good enough"—but the very Best that nature and science can combine to make.

We have combined experience with a careful study of all the fine points in the science of ice making—the result is DISTILLED

WATER ICE. It's a perfect safeguard for Health and General Welfare.

DISTILLED WATER ICE-LOOKS BETTER

Manufactured and Sold in Abbeville Only By

Abbeville Ice, Laundry and Fuel Co.

PHONE NO. 68.