

Poetic Access:

From the American Statesman.
MY LIFE IS LIKE THE SUMMER ROSE.
The following stanza, by the late Mr. Wilde of Georgia, have been often re-printed, but are not the worst on that account.

My life is like the summer rose,
That opens to the morning sky,
And ere the shades of evening close,
Is scattered on the ground, to die!
Yet on that rose's humble bed
The softest dews of night are shed,
As though she wept such waste to see—
But none shall shed a tear for me!

My life is like the autumn leaf,
That trembles in the moon's pale ray,
As held in frail—its date is brief—
Restless—and soon to pass away!
Yet, when that leaf shall fall and fade,
The parent tree will mourn its shade,
The wind bewail the leafless tree,
But none shall breathe one sigh for me!

My life is like the track of feet,
Left upon Tampa's desert strand:
Soon as the rising tide shall beat,
Their marks shall vanish from the sand;
Yet, as if grievous to efface
All vestige of the human race,
On that lone shore loud moans the sea,
But none shall thus lament for me!

GRUMBLING.

What an ungrateful, restless, dissatisfied being is man! How prone to murmur, and raise the lamentation of discontent, let him be placed in whatever situation he may! Is he a Ruler? He complains of the indolence, inertness and want of respect manifested by those over whom he governs. Is he a subject? He grumbles because his superiors do not manage affairs more congenially to his taste and judgment. The Lawyer grumbles on account of the lack of clients, or that he is pressed to death with the rush of business. The Physician complains for the want of patients, while another of the same fraternity grumbles because he is run off his legs—by day and by night there is no rest for him. The Merchant groans over unpaid bills and loaded shelves, for lack of customers; the Mechanic that he can get nothing to do, or that his life is wearied out in search of hands to finish his contract in the time specified. And the Farmer, too, who of all others, should be contented, murmurs; yea, grumbles at Providence! Does it rain? His lowlands will be overrun and this part of his crop spoiled. Is it dry? His whole plantation is burning up, and he will not be able to make a thing this year. Are his barns swelling out to fullness? He must go to some new country where he can make more, and more rapidly amass wealth.

Let us learn to be more content with our lot. Let us be inspired with the indomitable spirit that gave utterance to the noble sentiment of "Don't give up the Ship," being well assured, that with perseverance and energy we can accomplish almost impossibilities. The true old axiom will ever hold good, "Let well enough alone." If we are steadily but slowly getting along—if we can see that our means are adequate to our necessary wants, that we are enjoying a salubrious climate, in health, and amidst the society of kind friends, let us content ourselves, gratefully rejoicing in our mutual happiness.—Raleigh Register.

The Miller's Pun.—"I can't find bread for my family," said a lazy fellow in company.
"Nor I," replied an industrious miller; "I am obliged to work for it."

Dead.—Miss Blanchard, who, some fortnight since, shot the scoundrel who robbed her of her fame, died at New Orleans on the 26th ult., either from the effects of poison or the ravages of an insane mind.

A new flag has been adopted for Florida, on the occasion of her entrance into the Union. The colors were prepared by a committee who presented them to the Senate and House, and they were immediately placed over the Speaker's chair. The motto is, "Let us alone."—Mobile Tribune.

Cobb.—In the marine list of a late Cleveland paper, is the following:—"Clearing out A. R. Cobb, Capt. Z. Cobb, cargo 5,000 bushels of corn on the Cobb; Cobb & Co. shippers, and Ansel R. Cobb & Co., consignees, Buffalo."

An Antidote for Bed Bugs.—"Take a quantity of whale oil, and about the same quantity of lard or tallow, simmer them a few minutes together, so as they will mix. Apply the mixture with a feather or fine brush to the crevices and joints of the bedsteads, and these vermin will not only desert the bed, but leave the room."

Prepared Timber.—The Liverpool Standard states that Mr. Raye, a practical chemist has discovered a process that renders timber impervious to dry rot, an object of the greatest importance to shipbuilders. Unlike previous inventions of the kind, it does not destroy the edges of the tools in forming any required shape, and what is more peculiar in a great measure, resists combustion, and even when with drawn from a fierce fire will become instantly black, and not moulder as ordinary timber will, and proving its applicability for the flooring of fire proof warehouses.

Texas.—We are (says the New Orleans Bee of Wednesday) indebted to the politeness of the Captain of the schooner Atlanta, which arrived yesterday from Texas, for a copy of the Galveston News of the 5th, which is three days later than the date of our last advice. It contains not a syllable of news. The citizens paid funeral honors to the memory of Gen. Jackson, on the 5th July. The funeral discourse was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Eaton.—Courier.

A Discovery.—It is stated in a letter recently published in the columns of the National Intelligencer, that a new race of people have been discovered near the mission established by the American Board at the Sabon, who are described as being far superior to any upon the coast, and whose language is represented as one of the most perfect and harmonious in all the world; who have among them a tradition that some two centuries ago a stranger came to their country and instructed them in civilization and their duties; who are acquainted with the facts and truths of the holy scriptures, and who are remarkably prepared for the reception of further knowledge. They are at present removing from the interior towards the coast.

Depth of Roots.—In light sub soils, the roots of trees have been found at a depth of 10 or 12 feet—roots of the Canada (this) have been traced 6 or 7 feet below the surface. Wheat, in a rich mellow soil, will strike roots 3 feet downwards, and much farther horizontally. The roots of oaks have been discovered 18 inches from the stem, and the long thread like roots of grass, still farther. The fine roots of the onion, being white, and easily traced in black soil, have in trenched soil, been followed two feet deep. The importance of a mellow soil for these fine roots to penetrate is obvious.

COTTON GINS!

THE undersigned respectfully informs his friends, that he has resumed the Manufacture of COTTON GINS, and flatters himself from his long experience in the business as maker of the celebrated Jones's Gins, to receive a share of their patronage.

He deems it useless to accompany this notice with a long list of certificates of recommendation, as to the capacity of his Gins, when he can assure them that out of near 1500 Gins made by himself not one have been condemned or returned. His Gins are of the best materials and warranted. Attached to the Saws is a Mole Cleaner, and experience has proven it to be a valuable addition, as it keeps all the motes of any size from passing through with the Cotton. The Brush Wheel has also undergone considerable alteration. Upon the whole, his Gins need only to be tested to be highly appreciated. Planters can be assured that no Gins will leave his Shop without the Saws and Ribs having been examined and set by himself alone, and respectfully solicits a call from them before they purchase elsewhere.

The Charleston Evening News.

BY J. N. CARDOZO.
AN Evening Paper, with the above title, will be published daily, in this city, on the 1st of October next, if a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained to warrant the undertaking.

It will include the usual quantity of political, commercial and shipping intelligence found in daily journals of its size, and embrace such selections as are most interesting and attractive to the general reader. It is a most unnecessary to state, that on all public questions involving the rights and interests of South Carolina, the conductor of the "Evening News" will be found at the post of duty; while it is nearly superfluous to add, that its columns will be free from every species of personality, or of remark offensive to the taste of a community with the refinement of manners that characterizes the people of Charleston.

To meet the public desire for a cheap daily journal, and to approach as nearly as possible to the principle of cash payments, in conducting this paper, the "Evening News" will be furnished to subscribers at $6 per annum, payable half-yearly, or 50 cents per month, payable monthly. Advertisements will be inserted at the rate of 50 cents per square for the first insertion, and 37 1/2 cents for each succeeding insertion. For all advertisements of 6 lines and under, the charge will be 25 cents. The "Evening News" will be of the medium size of public journals, will be printed with a neat type and on good paper.

A tri-weekly paper will be issued at $4 per annum, payable in advance.

Subscription lists are left at the Courier and Mercury Offices, and at the different Book and Stationery Stores.

PROSPECTUS OF The United States Journal.

THE first number of our new paper will be issued this (third) day of May, with an entire new dress—new type, fine white paper, with other important alterations and improvements. The paper will be devoted to a fearless exposition of Democratic principles; it will zealously and unremittently oppose each and every effort to establish a mammoth monarchy bank and other mischievous corporations and consolidations of wealth, which subvert the rights of the people and undermine the pillars of the Republic; it will oppose an oppressive and anti-republican tariff system, the assumption of the State debts by the General Government, and all other Federal principles which have an inevitable tendency to destroy public property as well as individual happiness. Against all such political delusions, we shall wage unchanging, uncompromising war.

The Farmer and the Mechanic who produce all the real capital of the nation, will find in our paper an unflinching champion of their inalienable rights; the long cherished principles of the editors are too well known to the public to require any pledge upon this point. To the miscellaneous Department particular attention will be devoted; the Ladies will always find in our columns a choice selection from the current literature of the day, as well as original contributions from the most talented writers of which our country can boast. A general summary of Foreign and Domestic news will be furnished, a regular price current and a correct list of the prices of stocks will also be given.

The conductors have already secured the aid and co-operation of a large number of the most distinguished literary and political writers of the day, arrangements will also be made, at the earliest period possible, to embellish our columns by the contributions of correspondents from abroad. With this brief and imperfect outline of our plan, we very respectfully submit our claims to an extensive patronage to the consideration of a generous public.

In order to place our paper in the hands of all who may wish to subscribe, at the lowest possible price, we are induced to make the following proposition:

To Postmasters, Clerks, or Companies, who will forward $17 50 we will send ten copies of our weekly paper for one year; for thirty dollars we will send twenty copies for twelve months; and for Fifty dollars, we will forward forty copies for a year—reducing the price to each subscriber to ONE DOLLAR AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS per annum for a large and well filled weekly paper. We hope that this proposed reduction in the price, will induce the most active exertions on the part of our friends in obtaining us subscribers.

All payments to be made in advance: Those who have not an opportunity of paying otherwise, may remit by mail, at our risk, postage paid. The Postmaster's certificate of such remittance shall be a sufficient receipt therefor. The notes of any specie paying banks will be received.

PROSPECTUS OF The Carolina Baptist.

is proposed to publish with this title a Periodical, at Greenville, S. C., under the editorial conduct of Rev. T. W. Haynes.

PLAN AND OBJECT.
The New Testament Church—its membership—its government—its officers—its order—its ordinances—its union—its genius—its laws—its spirit—its morals—its doctrine, as understood and maintained by Baptists, will claim primary attention in the original articles of the Carolina Baptist. Our aim will be to develop, first, the christian, and secondly, the baptist, and neither to merge the christian in the baptist, nor to be less christian because baptist, in our editorial bearing. Dignified christian courtesy to all men and towards all denominations of christians will be studiously maintained, while a manly, frank and independent avowal of our cherished views of revealed truth will be no less marked. The golden mean between bigotry and latitudinarianism will be our aim. The Carolina Baptist will, as far as its size, form and period of issues will admit, be a Baptist Family Newspaper and Library of Useful Knowledge to parents, children, farmers, ministers, deacons and churches, as well as other classes of our readers. Its plan and object is to propagate truth.

Terms—Size—Form.
The Carolina Baptist will be issued monthly, neatly printed on new type, in quarto form, with three columns on a page, upon a double medium sheet, each number containing 16 pages, with a neatly executed colored cover, with an index to each number and to each volume. This form is suitable for binding. Single copies for one year, $1 25 each, payable on the receipt of the first number. Twenty-five copies one year, $25. A similar discount to Churches, Ministers or Agents.

The first number will be issued as soon as 1000 names shall be reported to the Publisher's office, if done promptly. No payment expected until subscribers shall receive the first number. Let those who procure subscribers, simply make a list of their names, written plainly and in full, with the name of the Post Office, District or County, and State, and request the P. Master to forward, under his frank, and thus save the charge of postage.

Addresses.
All letters referring to the business department must be addressed to O. H. Wells, Proprietor; and those designed for publication, the Rev. T. W. Haynes, Editor—always free of postage to them.

Agents.
All Baptist Ministers, Clerks of Churches and Deacons, and all Post Masters, are authorized and requested to act as Agents.

To Baptist Churches.
It is respectfully submitted to Churches whether they might not, as Churches, instruct their Clerks to order any number of copies desired for circulation within their respective limits.
