were selected from the various Academics in Barnwell District, and composed of gentlemen of high literary standing. The Principal, Mr. James E. Crossland, is a graduate of the South Carolina College, and has had the charge of this Institution for six or seven years, and has never failed to render full satisfaction to all who have patronized the Institution, and annually sends off, more or less, students to some Colloge, nor has one of his pupils failed to take a high stand in any College they have applied to for admission. It is but justice to our friend pecially to her bereaved father, and her truly kind for admission. Crossland, to say, that those pupils sent to the different Colleges by him, acquit themselves honorably on their examination for collegiate

At the close of the examination, one of the committee, Mr. Jos. D. Lee, Principal of the Lower 3 Runs Academy, rose and addressed the audience for a few moments on the occa-sion, and in the course of his remarks said that the exercises, to himself and the rest of the committee, were entirely satisfactory, and that the examination was the most perfect he had ever witnessed in the whole course of his literary career. He concluded by bidding Mr. Crossland "God speed" in his pursuits.

GOOD EFFECTS OF EARLY RISING .- It is related that King George III., who made the cause of longevity a subject of investigation, procured two persons, each above a hundred years of age, to dauce in his presence. He then requested them to relate to him their modes of living that he might draw from them, if possible, some clue to the cause of their vigorous old age. The one had been a shepherd, remarkably temperate and circumspect in his diet and regimen; the other, a hedger, had been noted for his irreglarity, exposure and intemperance. The Morarch could draw no inference to guide his inquiries from such different modes of life terminating in the same result; but on further inquiry he learned that both men were alike dis tinguished by a tranquil easiness of temper, nctive habits, and early rising. Dountful.—A woman down-east is said lately to have gone three whole days without speaking a word to any body. How she must have suffered!

A SMART WOMAN .- In the county of Choc. taw, Ala., a woman was charged with the murder of her husband, and employed a legal gentleman, whose name it is not necessary to mention, to defend her, promising him two negroes as his fee. He undertook her defence, and contrary to the expectations of all, she was acquit-ted. He called upon her for the two negroes, when she gravely informed him that the negroes belonged to her daughter. Not relishing the idea of being cheated out of the negroes, he instituted a suit against her for perjury, which she defended and muleted him for the costs! In a short time she gave birth to an illegitimate child, made outh that he was the father, and compelled him to enter into bonds for its support and maintenance, according to the statute in such cases made and provided.

A GENTLEMAN in Lowell, Mass., lately sprink A GENTLEMAN in Lowell, Mass, lately sprink-led some cowage over the petals of a peony which stood near his garden fence, as a trap for persons who had often taken the liberty of helping themselves to flowers as they were passing. The bait took—a gentleman and lady were shortly after noticed most vigorously rubbing their noses, and doub:less wondering "how come they so." On the principle that the hair of the same dog will cure the bite, it may be supposed that the itch caused by the cowage effectually cured the itch for stealing flowers.

OBITUARY.

Digo, of Consumption, in this District, on Friday morning, the 11th inst., NANCY S. RICHARDSON, daughter of James M. Richardson, Esq., aged, 15 years and 13 days.

Possessed of a truly mack and quiet spirit, this young lady endured the sufferings consequent on a lingering disease, with a patience and resignation unequalled perhaps by one of her age.

Being of an amiable disposition, her attachment to relating and friends was a standard and a suffering and friends was a suffering and sufferin and attentive step-mother, who administered so constantly to her wants and necessities.

She had never made a public profession of Reli-gion, but her fondness in her last days for the read-ing of the Bible, and other religious exercises, to gether with the calm and quiet manner that characterized her last moments, inspire her friends with the hope, and indeed belief, that she was altogether prepared to exchange worlds.

In the exercise of this belief, and in the close of this poor tribute of respect, what shall we then say to parent, relatives and friends, but to exhort them to give especial head to the oft-repeated, " Be ye also ready, for in a day and an hour that ye think not the Son of man cometh."

Digo, in this District, on Thursday evening, the 17th inst., Octavia Celeste, daughter of Dr. W. S. and Mrs. Susan E. Mobley, aged 6 years, 8 months and 2 days. . Sad and melancholy are the reflections caused by LEWIS' STRAW CUTTER. THE Undersigned takes this opportunity of stating to the public, that he will have another lot of his Machines ready for market, in the course of a few days. Persons wanting these Machines will do well to send in their orders early so as to ensure their being filled.

He refers to the following Certificates, of the many which he has received, for additional test mony in their favor.

- Certificates. Wyson, (Penr.) January 22d 1851. Mr. Lewis, The Patent Straw Cutter which you invented, and are now offering to the public, is a most excellent article and deserves public favor. Two years since I purchased one and have had in any respect, answering all the purposes you re-commend it for. I most cheerfully commend it to farmers in all sections, and could not be induced to part with the one I have, without the prospect of obtaining another, for five times it cost.

Respectfully, V. E. PIOLLET. Augusta, (Ga.) Sept 16, 1851. MR. Lewis,-Dear Sir : Some time since Insed one of your Straw Cutters to cut roots for my preparation of Georgia Sarsaparilla. Some of the roots were very hard and tough .- I am happy to say your Straw Cutter has far exceeded my expectat The public need not fear of its getting out of order by cutting straw or fodder, or by accidentally get-ting hard substances in it.

Yours, respectfully, J. DENNIS. EDGEFIELD C. H., Sept. 10, 1851. MR. WM. LEWIS,-Sir: In your letter you sak how I like the Straw Cutter I bought from you. I say it excels any thing of the kind I have ever seen, and I could not be induced to part with it, without the prospect of getting anciller, for any common consideration.

WM. P. BUTLER. EDGEFIELD C. H., Sept. 18, 1851. Drag Sin: I have been using one of your Straw Cutters some three or four months, and am satisfied tout its advantages over all others, are such that it will recommend itself to every observer. Its adaptedness to cutting all kinds of grain, in any desirable length, its security to the operator, the minimum of power required to keep it in operation, the dispatch with which it executes its work, come bined with its simplicity and durability, must make
