

This is a subject the most vital to our interests... We are all alike interested in it.

General Hill upon taking command of the troops in North Carolina, issued the following address to them:

RICHMOND, March 15.—Dispatches from Frederickburg, 14th, state that the Herald of the 11th has been re-elected.

The Acts, adopted respectively by the Georgia and South Carolina Legislatures, restricting the planting of cotton...

Mr. BURTON—A few weeks, through the columns of your invaluable paper, to publish the names of those of Company E, 7th S. C. Regiment, who have died since the 13th May, 1862...

F. M. Longers had been with us all the while since April 15th, 1861. At the battle of Maryland Heights he was shot dead while driving the enemy from his stronghold.

These producers who hold their bread-tuffs at high prices, and their bacon at seventy cents per pound, embarrass the government in its effort to create supplies...

The undersigned has been placed in charge of the troops in North Carolina. In assuming command he would address a few words of exhortation to his forces.

The Herald of the 11th has been re-elected. The election in New Hampshire occurred on the 10th. The Republicans are reported to have elected all the members of Congress.

There has been little in the notion of the militia of South Carolina or in the conduct of its operations since the late war...

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

Now, why not do this? And if such a proposition be rejected, and we subsequently suffer disaster and ruin as the consequence...

The Confederation has been established. It is a union of the Southern States, and is a government of the people.

Let us propose to Illinois, Indiana, Iowa and Ohio, a treaty of alliance, offensive and defensive, against the rest of the Union.

The militia system has had a fair trial, and failed—signally failed. The people throughout the State are beginning to regard it as a sort of nuisance.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

Execution of a Deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

The execution of a deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

Some interesting artillery experiments have been tried recently on James' river. The big gun of the "Richmond" was fired, first with fifteen, then with twenty, then with twenty-five pounds of powder.

The militia system has had a fair trial, and failed—signally failed. The people throughout the State are beginning to regard it as a sort of nuisance.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

The Expected Attack on Charleston. The Charleston correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser & Register, in alluding to the constant threats of the Yankees in regard to the attack upon this place, says:

The Charleston correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser & Register, in alluding to the constant threats of the Yankees in regard to the attack upon this place, says:

Some interesting artillery experiments have been tried recently on James' river. The big gun of the "Richmond" was fired, first with fifteen, then with twenty, then with twenty-five pounds of powder.

The militia system has had a fair trial, and failed—signally failed. The people throughout the State are beginning to regard it as a sort of nuisance.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

Execution of a Deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

The execution of a deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

Some interesting artillery experiments have been tried recently on James' river. The big gun of the "Richmond" was fired, first with fifteen, then with twenty, then with twenty-five pounds of powder.

The militia system has had a fair trial, and failed—signally failed. The people throughout the State are beginning to regard it as a sort of nuisance.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

Execution of a Deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

The execution of a deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

Some interesting artillery experiments have been tried recently on James' river. The big gun of the "Richmond" was fired, first with fifteen, then with twenty, then with twenty-five pounds of powder.

The militia system has had a fair trial, and failed—signally failed. The people throughout the State are beginning to regard it as a sort of nuisance.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

Execution of a Deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

The execution of a deserter. A correspondent writes from the 38th N. C. Regiment, near Frederickburg, to the Raleigh Standard, giving the following account of the execution of a deserter.

Some interesting artillery experiments have been tried recently on James' river. The big gun of the "Richmond" was fired, first with fifteen, then with twenty, then with twenty-five pounds of powder.

The militia system has had a fair trial, and failed—signally failed. The people throughout the State are beginning to regard it as a sort of nuisance.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

There has been a terrific fire by the enemy, unintermitted for four hours, from ten to sixteen heavy calibre guns, and from two heavy guns on land, and one mortar.

Important from Mississippi. (Special to the Mobile Register & Advertiser.) Jackson March 11. The following official dispatch has been received from Gen. Lovell, at Fort Pemberton...