The Mount Vernon Green Houses.

Year by year the home of George Washington becomes more and more a national monument, dear to the heart of every American.

Among the many important and beautiful features that have lately become prominent at Mt. Vernon, are the Green Houses, which, under the loving and learned care of Mr. Franklin A. Whelan, have within a year or two past, become marvels of beauty.

The Sims' Case.

The Grand Jury at Aiken Finds a True Bill Against the Accused.

AIKEN, February 6.—Notwithstanding the conflicting opinions, the grand jury found a true bill against Dr. W. S. Sims at five o'clock this afternoon.

The Cokesbury District Church Record.

This is the name of a very interesting monthly published at Cokesbury by Presiding Elder Kirkland.

Annual Reports of County Disbursing Officers.

Aiken Recorder.—Just here we would call attention to the fact that in February 1882 the Legislature of South Carolina passed an act requiring all the County Treasurers, as well as County and School Commissioners to make annual reports through the public printer; and, in addition, that said reports shall be handed to the Circuit Judge for proper inspection and examination by the grand jury of each county.

The Defuncting State Treasurers.

The Governor of Alabama has offered a reward of $5,000 for the arrest of Vincent, the absconding State Treasurer, while the bail of Polk, the Tennessee defaulter, has been reduced from $100,000 to $50,000.

Wiggins' Storm!

In less than a month, half the American continent is to be swept away! On the 11th of March is to come Wiggins' great storm.

The Augusta Chronicle's edition on Sunday morning last, was five thousand copies.

Don't Want Graded Schools.

The citizens of the town of Orange, at a public meeting last Friday, decided by a vote of 15 to 13 that no additional tax should be levied for the purpose of establishing a free graded school.

The News and Courier declares that industrially, and particularly in manufactures, South Carolina is the most progressive State in the Union.

The Mexican Veterans.

WASHINGTON, February 7.—Mr. Rice who has charge of the Mexican Pension bill, said to-day that he had little hope of getting the bill passed this session.

Another Edgefield Man Dies in the West.

Mr. Joe Padgett, of whom we made pleasant personal mention some time ago, died at his home near Buffalo Gap, Texas, on Tuesday, January 23rd, after a sickness of only four days.

Carolina's Military.

WASHINGTON, February 8.—A statement of the militia force of the United States, prepared by the Secretary of War and submitted to Congress, shows that South Carolina has one hundred thousand men available for duty, unorganized; 5,179 non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, 452 commissioned officers, 382 company officers, 63 general staff officers and 7 general officers.

A Janit Through Edgefield.

We subjoin a portion of a very pleasant letter to the Augusta Chronicle, signed H. D. B.:

EDGEFIELD, February 9.—While at Trenton, yesterday, I was much interested with the enthusiasm of the Trentonites regarding their town and its advantages over Aiken as a seat of government.
