THE ADVERTISER, Edgefield, S. C.

HAPPY NEWYEAR!

To our subscribers, advertisers, and friends in general, the ADVERTISER extends its best wishes on this the first day of the year 1902.

Resolutions are easy to make, but hard to keep. Remember that you must have assistance in doing good and helpful deeds.

Who are you indebted to for the goodness you have received during the past year?

The first year of the twentieth century is past and gone, and the deeds, the bad as well as the good, have been recorded.

The book, "Somewhat of a Liar Myself" has reached our desk. It contains about 85 pages, and is written by J. W. DeVore, of Edgefield.

The twelfth stroke of the clock sounded its last, the year 1901 died away and the birth of the New Year entered while we were in sweet dreamland.

Today marks another important era in our lives. What this year shall bring forth we know not. The past is all we have to judge the future by.

With the birth of 1902, of which today is the first, were born new duties, new responsibilities, new privileges, new hopes, and new joys.

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman.

WINE OF CARDUI is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendene, Ky., Feb. 13, 1901. I am so glad that you, of Cardui in helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years.
