New Orleans, Special.-By far the largest sectional meeting of the convention of scientists was that which attended the symposium on yellow fever and other insect-born diseases of the section on physiology and experimental medicine on Tuesday The experiences of the fight in New Orleans last summer and the lessons to be drawn from it and a description of the original investigations in Cuba under the Reed commission proved subjects of great interest to the visiting delegates. At the conclusion of the symposium there was practically unanimous acceptance of the doctrine that vellow fever is alone communicated by the stegomya fas-

Surgeon J. H. White, of the Marine Hospital Service, who had charge of the fever fight here, gave the results of Dr. Reed's findings as they were observed in New Orleans. Dr. James Carroll, who was a member of the Reed commission, declared that with out mosquitos there could be no yellow fever, and detailed at length his experience in Cuba.

Assistant Secretary A. J. McKelway, of the National Can Labor Committee, attracted much attetion with a paper on the child labor problem, giving the results of his studies in the South and pointing to the danger of race degeneracy involved in sending little children to the mills. He said there were probably 60,000 children under 14 years at work in Southern mills, and how to correct the evil was an American problem, because it concerned the depreciation of the purest American stock on the continent.

Other interesting papers on the "Progress of the Negroes of Virginia as Property Owners," by Charles Edgerton, of the Bureau of Corporations at Washington, and the "Southern Cotton Mill Workers and their Condition," by Rev. J. A. Baldwin, of Charlotte, N. C., were read. Professor W. R. Warner, of Cleve-

Mouth and Eyes Covered With Crusts-Mands Pinned Down-Mirac-

We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was covered with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest and back, in short, the whole body, was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid n his bed we had to pin his hands down, otherwise he would scratch his face, and make an open sore. I think his face must have itched most fearfully.

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the caild to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him, otherwise he was to be put under good medical care here. But, Lord be blessed, matters came different, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before. F. In those good old fashioned days it was common for mothers to make their own home medicines from roots and herbs, nature's own remedies—calling in a physician only in specially urgent cases. By tradition and experience many of them gained a wonderful knowledge of the curative properties of the various roots and herbs.

Mrs. Pinkham took a great interest characteristics and power over disease. She maintained that just as nature so countifully provides in the harvestfields and orchards vegetable foods of all kinds; so, if we but take the pains to find them, in the roots and herbs of the field there are remedies expressly designed to cure the various ills and weaknesses of the body, and it was her pleasure to search these out. cines for her own family and friends. Serious Loss of Life and Property rt Albany, Georgia

SEVERAL DEAD AND MANY HURT

Havoc Was Wrought Over Portions of a Dozen Blocks, Largely in Negro Quarter, and the Fact That Scores Were Not Killed Outright is Amazing in View of Wreckage

Albany, Ga., Special.-A tornado of terrific force passed over Albany at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon coming from a southwesterly direction and spreading ruin and desolation over portions of a dozen blocks. Several persons are dead and others will die as the result of injuries, and many are more or less seriously hurt. Viewing the wreckage left by the tornado, it seems a miracle that scores were not kiled outright, the tribute claimed in the way of human lives being astonishingly small. The known dead are:

Ben Jones, a negro machinist in the employ of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company. Jake Johnson, a 9-year-old negro

Among those whose injuries will. in all probability, prove fatal are: Lula Gladden, Jessie Davis, Annie

Davis, and Jessie Woodall. The list is still incomplete, owing to the fact that much of the destruction wrought was well beyond the city limits. Reports from the tornado after it left Albany have not been received. Hundreds of negroes in the city are homeless and many have lost all their household effects. The injured are being cared for and effects are being made to secure shelter for all. This is difficult owing to the scarcity of all kinds of dwelling houses in the city. Under direction of Mayor-Rawson, relief will be secured and promptly furnished those in the greatest distress.

It is difficult to estimate the property loss. The Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company is the principal sufferer, its destroyed buildings and machinery having been worth probably $60,000. It is safe to say that the total loss will be found to exceed $150,000. Very little of the destroyed property was protected by tor-

The Southern Bell Telephone Company is among the heaviest sufferers. Its lines were down in several parts of the city. Some little apprehension is felt for Preoria, in the southwestern part of the county. The tornado came from that direction, and as the telegraph wires are down, nothing can be heard from there.

How Food Headed Of the Insidious The happy wife of a good old-fash-"In the spring of 1902, I was taken sick-a general breaking down, as it were. I was excessively nervous, could not sleep well at night, my food seemed to do me no good, and I was so weak I

"The doctor said my condition was due to overwork and close confinement and that he very much feared that consumption would set in. For several months I took one kind of medicine They contain all the materials necesafter another, but with no good effect-

"Then I determined to quit all medicines, give up coffee and see what Grape-Nuts food would do for me. 1 began to eat Grape-Nuts with sugar and cream and bread and butter three
