IT WILL HELP SOUTH

Provisions of New Immigration Measure

NEW ORLEANS GETS AN OFFICIAL

Senator Gallinger's Proviso, Authorizing the Maintenance of Agencies at Immigration Stations by States and Corporations Interested Tacked on to the Measure.

Washington, Special.—A bill of unusual interest to the South was the immigration act passed by the Senate on Wednesday.

The bill consists of a series of amendments to the existing law, all of them intended to permit stricter regulations for keeping out the defective classes of aliens. The head tax is increased from $2 to $5. The question of sectionalism cropped out during discussion on the amendment authorizing the creation of a bureau of information for the benefit of immigrants. On this point Senator McCrea said that special effort should be made to secure a better distribution of immigrants than is obtained under the present system. Now, he said, most of the new comers locate in the eastern States and large cities, where they are not needed, whereas the South, where immigration is desired, is almost entirely overlooked.

In support of his contention he said that 285,000 aliens located in New York last year, and only 600 sought homes in Kentucky. He also called attention to the fact that the South is not represented in the immigration service and criticized the arrangement as sectionalism.

Senator Spooner defended the present immigration service against the charge of sectionalism and said the commissioner of immigration was in no sense an agent for the States. Senator Bacon said the provision permitting State representation at the stations should be so extended as to permit immigration societies to be represented, his object being to afford railroads an opportunity to present the advantages of the country penetrated by them.

Prof. Blake and Prof. Shockley of the Spartanburg city schools will be the members from this county. Those from Cherokee have not been appointed so far as known here. The school will be under the charge of Superintendent of Education E. C. Elmore of this county.

A number of exaggerated and misleading reports in regard to the effect upon Los Angeles of the recent San Francisco earthquake having been widely published throughout the East the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, by unanimous vote of the board of directors, has prepared for circulation the following brief statement of facts:
The damage done by earthquake in San Francisco, outside of the loss of life, did not exceed five per cent of the total damage done by fire and earthquake. Los Angeles is 500 miles from San Francisco, a distance equal to that from Charleston, S. C., to Washington, D. C.

Lima, O., Special.—William Jennings Bryan was endorsed for President here by the Democratic judicial convention of 10 counties of northwestern Ohio. Small Outbreak in Santo Domingo.

Washington, Special.—News of another small outbreak in Santo Domingo reached here from a naval officer on that station, to the following effect: "News has been received of an insurrection at Marcoris, Santo Domingo, in which prisoners were released—the rebels withdrawing. No American interests endangered."

Louisiana to Norfolk Yard.

Newport News, Va., Special.—The first-class battleship Louisiana left here Tuesday afternoon for the Norfolk navy yard, where she will be turned over to the government. The Louisiana is the first to be delivered in competition between government and private yards, in the building race which has been on for nearly two years.

MUST APPLY TO EXPORTS

Jurisdiction of the Government in Export Freight Rates is Upheld by Federal Judge McPherson at Kansas City in Decision Overruling Demurrer of the Burlington Railway.

Kansas City, Mo., Special.—The demurrer of the Burlington Railway, denying the jurisdiction of the government in export freight rates, was overruled in the United States Court here by Judge Smith McPherson, of Iowa. The decision is of great importance to shipping interests of all sections of the country and of particular weight at present because it tends to destroy the contention of the railroads that export rates need not be made public.

It means, too, that the Burlington Railway and the other railroad corporations and persons indicted here in December must stand trial on the charge of accepting rebates. The trial of the Burlington was set for May 31.

Attention was drawn to the report of the inter-State commerce commission, December 14, 1905, in which it was said that "it was a mooted question whether the present act requires carriers to file and maintain tariffs under which they transport exports and imports, but the commission has a number of times decided that the statutes covered this point."

"The same section," the decision says, "finds the same kind of commerce included by the act, and includes from the United States to a foreign country." The fact that half a billion of dollars' worth of exports are shipped from the United States is a powerful argument in favor of the proposition that they should not be hampered with rate tariffs difficult or impossible to observe because ocean rates vary from day to day. But is that an argument that can persuade the courts upon the question of what construction shall be given a statute if such statute is vague?

The statute, Judge McPherson says, forbids lowering the rates except on three days' notice, and forbids raising them except on 10 days' notice. It is clear, he continues, that carriers by railroads and water inland, when acting under a common agreement, are covered by the statutes, as well as commerce by any method with an adjacent foreign country. And as to inter-state commerce, it is included. Because these are specifically enumerated, it is contended that all others are excluded. Conceding the force of this elementary and recognized rule of construction, there, in my opinion, is the error of the entire argument of defendant's counsel. Congress did not enumerate ocean commerce, because it would have been frivolous to do so."

Jail For Senator Burton.

Washington, Special.—The Supreme Court of the United States rendered a decision in the case of United States Senator Joseph B. Burton, of Kansas. The decision was against Burton, affirming the decision of the United States Circuit Court for the eastern district of Missouri, by which Burton was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the jail of Iron county, Mo., required to pay a fine of $2,500, and deprived of the right to hereafter hold office under the government.

Dothan, Ala., Special.—Fire at Abbeville, Ala., destroyed the business section of the town causing a loss estimated at $100,000. The amount of insurance is not stated, but it is believed to be less than half the total loss. The residence section of the city escaped.

Indiana Prohibitionists Meet.

Indianapolis, Ind., Special.—The State convention of the prohibitionists of Indiana opened here at Tomlinson Hall. A large number of delegates were represented. The prohibitionists have been very active lately in this State and expect to make an aggressive fight at the coming campaign. They intend to put up tickets in every county in the State. Clinton N. Howard, of Rochester, N. Y., a prominent temperance orator, was the principal attraction at the afternoon session.

Recipes.

Virginia Waffles.—Beat three eggs to a stiff froth and add, little by little, one cupful of sifted flour; beat again, then add four teaspoonfuls of melted butter; one cupful of sweet milk, a little salt, and, lastly, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder dissolved in a little water. Cook on well buttered waffle irons.

Fruit Cottage Pudding.

Make a batter of one-third of a cupful of butter, one cupful of sugar, two eggs, one-half cupful of milk, two cupfuls of flour and two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake as ordinary cottage pudding, cut in squares and serve with fruit preserves poured over it and whipped cream around it.

Date Pie.

Soak one-half pound of dates in three cupfuls of milk for half an hour, then set where they will heat but not cook. When hot, pass through a strainer, cool partly, and fill a plate lined with rich paste. Bake and cover with a deep meringue made from the whites of two eggs beaten with one-quarter cupful of powdered sugar.

Sunshine Pudding.

Dissolve five scant teaspoonfuls of gelatine in two and one-half cupfuls of boiling water and strain. Beat the whites of four eggs with two full cupfuls of granulated sugar, then beat with the gelatine for fifteen or twenty minutes; add a teaspoonful of cold water, a little vanilla, and set away to harden slightly. Very delicious.

Surprise Balls.

From cold mashed potatoes make balls, and with a teaspoon press a hollow in the top. Chop fine some cold lean meat, season it with pepper and salt and moisten with a little gravy, then put a teaspoonful of the meat into the hollow of the potato ball with a little milk or melted butter on top. Brown in the oven or saute.

Orange Custards.

Heat two cupfuls of milk in a double boiler with a few shavings of orange rind. Beat the yolks of three eggs light with two rounding tablespoonfuls of sugar. Pour the hot milk on the eggs and sugar and beat, then return to the double boiler and cook until smooth. Curdled. Add the juice of two medium sized oranges, heat and strain into custard cups.

Potato Puff.

To one quart of hot mashed potatoes add two teaspoonfuls of salt, one-fourth teaspoonful of white pepper, one saltspoonful of celery salt, two tablespoonfuls of butter and hot milk to make slightly moist. When partly cool, add the well beaten yolks of two eggs and add the whites beaten to a snow. Bake in a pudding dish for ten minutes and serve at once.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE

The Invalid's Fire.
When a fire has to be kept up all night in the room of an invalid, an old, loose glove should be kept handy with a long wooden stick. With the glove on a piece of coal can be picked up with the fingers and put on the fire without making a sound, while when the fire requires poking this can be done with the stick with far less noise than with an ordinary poker.

To Make Table Mustard.

To prepare mustard, mix two table-spoonfuls of the powder with half a teaspoonful of salt and a salt spoonful of pepper and stir to a creamy paste with equal quantities of vinegar, table or olive oil and hot water. Have ready a poker, made red hot and thrust it into the mixture till the bubbling ceases. The result is a smoothness and flavor unequalled by the best French mustard.

Candle Shades from Wall Paper.

Very attractive candle shades of any color, in flower or design to harmonize with surroundings, are made from wall paper and coarse net. Cut the net to fit the mica shade protectors, which cost 10 cents apiece. Cut the designs from wall paper, and paste them on the net. If a girl is skillful with her brush, the designs may be painted with still less cost.

The Art of Braising.

Braising is a particularly good way to treat dry meats like veal, lean beef from the under part of the round or the face of the rump, the shoulder of mutton, heart, liver, tough fowls, pigeons or other dry game. The method of braising is like the old-time pot roast, only the braising is far easier in that the water in which it is cooked does not need replenishing and there is less danger of the kettle boiling dry. In each case the meat is rolled in flour, seasoned with salt, pepper and just a dusting of sugar to assist in the quick browning. Then it is browned in the bottom of a kettle or frying pan, using some of its own fat, drippings or butter as preferred. After this browning process, it is put into a stew pan or braising kettle, covered with well-flavored soup stock, gravy or even hot water, with herbs and seasonings, then covered tightly and left to simmer gently for several hours.

To Cleanse and Brighten Carpets.

After carpets have been thoroughly beaten on both sides, the color may be brightened by the following: Add one pint of ox-gall to a pint of warm water; into this dip a soaped flannel, and rub the surface of the carpet well, rinsing as you proceed with clean cold water. Use care that the carpet is not made too wet, and finish by rubbing with a dry coarse cloth. If possible, do this out of doors, or if the carpet is laid, open all windows, as the ox-gall has an unpleasant odor. However, this soon passes away. If there are grease spots on the carpet use the following mixture: one quart of soft water; aqua ammonia, two ounces; one tablespoonful saltpetre; one ounce shaving soap, finely scraped. Mix well and allow it to stand several days. Pour on enough to cover the spot and rub well, then wash off with clear water. When ink has been spilled on a carpet, dip up with a spoon as much as possible, then pour cold sweet milk upon the spot, and keep taking up with a spoon and pouring on the milk, until the ink is only faintly colored; then wash with cold water and wipe dry. Faded carpets may be restored by washing with strong salt water.—The Housekeeper.

The Quicker Way.

A. J. Cassatt, the president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, said at his New Year's reception, anent an inexperienced workman:
"That reminds me of a Western lad. He got a place on a railway, and one day, in an emergency, he undertook to run a locomotive well enough, but he could not stop with the necessary precision, for this needs practice."
"With one station in particular he had trouble. He ran some thirty yards beyond this station; and then, putting back, he ran as far the other way. He was preparing for a third attempt, when the station agent put his head out of the window and shouted:
"Stay where you are, Jim. We'll shift the station for you."—New York Tribune.

How to Have Sweet Peas All Summer.

When the sweet peas come into bloom, cut their flowers off as soon as they begin to fade. This prevents them from forming seed, and the plants, in their efforts to perpetuate their kind, will straightway produce more flowers, and keep on doing this as long as interfered with. In this manner flowers are secured throughout the entire season. But, if seed is allowed to form, you will have comparatively few flowers during the latter part of summer.—Eben E. Rexford in "Making the Country Home," in the Outlook Magazine for June.

Matter of Relative Risk.

"I see that Maxim Goriky is in Berlin superintending the production of his play, 'The Children of the Sun,'" said a newspaper correspondent.
"Later on he will come to America and I will be glad to shake his hand, cold hand again."

"I met Goriky in St. Petersburg. He is delightful. He told me that a Russian soldier only gets about $2, or 3 rubles, a year—say 5 copecks a day.
"During the war, said Goriky, a private soldier stole a shirt worth half a ruble and was condemned to be shot.
"As he was being led away to death his colonel met him.
"Ivan, Ivan," said the colonel reproachfully, 'what a fool you were to risk your life for the sake of 50 copecks.'
"Colonel," Ivan answered, 'I risk it every day for 5 copecks.'"

Most Powerful Microscope.

Dr. Zeigmond and Siedentopf of Jena, Germany, have devised an "ultra-microscope" by the aid of which particles of matter entirely undistinguishable by ordinary microscopes of the highest power are brought to light. The principle acted on is the same as that witnessed in the motes of dust seen floating in a sunbeam, which motes are in themselves infinitely small but which are made visible by their interruption of the light. With the new microscope particles of gold only 1-1,250,000,000th of an inch in size were distinguished. Gold is used for giving the red color to ruby glasses, and articles of gold were resolved into separate grains of that size, whereas under other microscopes the gold simply appears as a uniform coating.

Speak for the Simple Life.

"Speaking of the woful waste of money, we wish to interrupt the meeting long enough to give a few figures on an important matter that seems to have been entirely overlooked," says Homer Hoeh.
"We refer to the sleeves of men's coats. Now, there are probably 600,000 in Kansas, and they probably have on an average two coats apiece. That makes 1,200,000 coats and 4,800,000 or 400,000 dozen sleeve buttons. The buttons cost about 20 cents a dozen, and at that rate the men of Kansas alone are carrying around on their coat sleeves in the form of buttons that have no use on earth or in the sky an investment of about $90,000. And the estimate is most conservative. Fellow countrymen, in the name of economy, and thrift, and philanthropy, and business sense; and all sorts of other things, is there no way to stop this reckless extravagance?"—Kansas City Journal.

BABY'S AWFUL HUMOR

Thin Skin Formed Over Body and Under It Was Water Blood—Cured in One Week by Cuticura Remedies.

"When my little baby was six weeks old she had a skin disease. A thin skin formed over her body and under it was a watery blood. The doctor began to wash it, but it would burst and break. She was in that condition for weeks, and I tried everything I could think of, but nothing did her any good. When she was three months old I took her to San Antonio to see a doctor. He wanted me to see a doctor, so my sister gave me a tube of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment, and told me to use them, which I did in time. I used Cuticura Soap, and the doctor began to wash her, and it has never returned since. I think every mother should keep the Cuticura Remedies in the house. Mrs. H. Aaron, Beaton, Texas, July 3, 1905."
