80

0

FISCHER'S

PIANOS

国の

HH

0

因

Ω

Z

W

 $\mathfrak{D}$

P

COLUMBIA, S. C. Removed to store two doors next to

-A full stock of Pure Medicines, Chemicals, Perfumeries, Toilet Articles, Garden and Field Seeds, always in store and at Orders promptly attended to. Apr. 11, 15—tf.

Miscellaneous.

A TREATISE ON THE HORSE AND HIS DISEASES.

Containing an "Index of Diseases," which gives the symptoms, cause, and the best treatment of each; a table giving all the principal drugs used for the horse, with the ordinary dose, effects, and antidote when a poison; a table with an engraving of the horse's teeth at different ages, with rules for telling the age of the horse; and other valuable information. Call and get a copy. For sale at

HERALD BOOK STORE. Aug. 18, 34-tf.

BENJ. F. GRAFTON, STORY B. LADD. HALBERT E. PAINE. Late Commissioner of Patents.

PATENTS. PAINE, GRAFTON & LADD,

Attorneys-at-Law and Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents. WASHINGTON, D. C. 412 FIFTH STREET, Practice patent law in all its branches in the Fatent Office, and in the Supreme and Circuit Courts of the United States. Pamphiet sent free on receipt of stamp for postage.

Sep. 1, 1880 3:-tf. Preserve Your Old Books!

E. R. STOKES. Blank Book Manufacturer

GENERAL BOOKBINDER.

Has moved opposite the City Hall, where he is fully prepared, with first-class work-men, to do all kinds of work in his line. BLANK BOOKS RULED to any pattern and bound in any style desired.

My facilities and long acquaintance with the business enable me to guarantee satisfaction on orders for Bank Books, Railroad Books, and Books for the use of Clerks of Gourt, Sheriffs, Probate Judges. Masters in Equity, and other County Officials.

Pamphlers, Magazines, Music, Newspapers and Periodicals, and all kinds of publications are proportional to the country of the country o bound on the most reasonable terms and in the best manner. All orders promptly attended to.

E. R. STOKES, Main Street, opposite New City Hall, Oct. 8, 41-tf. Columbia, S. C.

NEWBERRY HOTEL. -BY-

A. W. T. SIMMONS. This elegant new Hotel is now open for the reception of guests, and the proprietor will soare no effort to give satisfaction to the travelling public. Good airy rooms, comfortable beds, the best of fare, attentive, ac-

TENDERE IN

A Family Companion, Devoted to Literature, Miscellany, News, Agriculture, Markets, &c.

Vol. XVII.

Miscellaneous.

Dealer in

NEWBERRY, S. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16, 1881.

(Sentimental

Episode),

I was gushing

So was I;

I was smitten

Any money?

Not a bit.

Rather funny,

Wasn't it?

Happy pair!

People were!

But your father-

To be sure-

Premature:

Was another

In the way.

What a heaven

Vanished then

(You were seven,

I was ten)!

That was many

Years ago-

Don't let any-

Original Storp.

AT LAST.

BY CLYDE WAYNE.

words from the old physician.

only a few days to live.'

eave her.

trollable anguish.

leave me, my husband.'

'Be brave, my boy. You have

'Ab, Dr.! It is hard to die and Sadie heard in a dazed way

'Oh Carlton!' she cried, 'I can bowed head before he answered:

will we must submit in patience.

But, Sadie, who will care for you was a man who would love but once and deeply. And if he should

'Oh Carlton, of what are you speaking. Do not pain me by ala luding to the past. He will never come again. I sent him away,' she cried, the pent-up love of long

These were strange words to be uttered to a husband, but Carlton or his loving eyes wander from

'Don't cry now, Sadie. You could not help it. And I am to blame. I came in his way and stole your heart while he was the full realization of your feelings it was too late, you were my wife. I have read your heart,

Sadie, child. Have read all your brave struggles to overcome that free, and Dean will come back to

With white, set face, Sadie an uncontrollable sobbing.

vears at last finding vent.

the face of his wife.

come to you remember I am'-

'But, my darling, if it is God's

Thought it rather

And your mother-

Strange to say-

How delighted

Vows we plighted-

So were you

(All that's written

Here is true);

You were shy;

You were blushing-

Poetry.

B. LEONARD,

GROCERIES. Wines, Liquors, Segars Tobacco, &c. Respectfully informs the public that his took is full and complete in all lines.

Choice Goods, Low Prices, POLITE ATTENTION. Main Street. Newberry, S. C.

NATURES OWN MEDICINE FOR THE BLOOD, LIVER & KIDNEYS.

GURATINE, GURATINE,

A medicinal com-pound of known value-combining in one prep-aration the curative powers for the evils which produce all dis-eases of the Blood, the Liver, the Kidneys. Harmiess in action and Harmiess in action and horough in its effect t is unexcelled for the ure of all Blood Dis GURATINE. cure of all Flood Dus-cases such is Serof-ula. Tumors, Bolls, Tetter, Satt Rheum. Rheumatism. Mer-curial Poisoning also Constipation. Duspepsia. Fract-CURATINE,

CURATINE, CURATINE,

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST THE BROWN CHEMICAL CO

BALTIMORE, Md. Wholesale by Dowie & Moise, Wholesale Druggists, Charleston, S. C. 15-ly.

NEVER FAILS To Give Entire Satisfaction.

A pill that has become standard and having an unprecedented sale throughout

GILDER'S Liver

Pills. They are honest,

They are certain,

They have no equal, and are recommended by thousands as being and doing all that the proprietors claim They have never failed to have the desired effect where other pills have been un-

W. E. PELHAM'S. Dec. 15, 47-1y.

FRED VON SANTEN. 279 KING ST., CHARLESTON, S. C. HEADQUARTERS FOR

Children's Carriages. Velocipedes, Croquet, &c.,

IN and OUT DOOR GAMES, TOYS, at Wholesale and Retail, French Confectionery, Home Made

when I am gone! You have been a true wife to me in all these Cream and Stick Candy, years. But-you will not mind Rubber Goods, such as Clothing, Nurspeaking of it now-I once sery Sheeting, Eurekas, &c., &c. Orders from the country receive thought you loved another. I knew he loved you, and would al-Jan. 19, 47-6m ways love, for Dean Harrington

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL. (Formerly the Wheeler House,) COLUMBIA, S. C.

THOROUGHLY RENOVATED. REFURNISHED AND REFITTED. TERMS, $2.00 TO $3.00 PER DAY.

JOHN T. WILLEY. Propriet'r. Nov. 10, 46-tf.

HENRY BAYER, IMPORTER OF

BANANAS COCOANUTS AND ORANGES, And Wholesale Dealer in

Apples, Potatoes, Onions, &c., away; and when you awoke to 215 EAST BAY,

CHARLESTON, S. C.

Prompt attention given to country rders. Nov. 17, 47-6m. PAVILION HOTEL,

CHARLESTON, S. C. you, and you will be happy.' had heard him through, This popular and centrally located House has been entirely renovated during the past summer and was REOPENED to the traveling public on August 16, 1880. Terms, $2 and $2.50 per Bay. E. T. GAILLARD, commodating servants, and moderate charges will be the rule.

June 9, 24—tf.

Nov. 17, 47—tf.

HIS FIRST LOVE.

fair check as she nestled close to spoke: I remember him. He softly lifted the full Meeting you In September, Sixty-two, We were eating, were downcast. Both of us; And the meeting Happened thus Accidental. On the road ever blessed a man's heart. And self beside her. it is only of you I am thinking. through a mistaken idea of duty, her coldness. refuse to be happy when I am feel it-and he will come to you. Promise me, Sadie.'

husband-my own!'

that I have lived a lie.'

Slowly the hours drag on, and surely ebb out the life pulse of | held bers. her husband. Oh the agony of feeling him slipping away and them and stood up looking at her. being powerless to stay the parting bour!

And then it was over! She her. She could not bear to stay again.' in the great, gloomy house now. the dead, and at last she could stand it no longer. Hasty arrangements were made, WRITTEN FOR THE NEWBERRY HERALD. whence she had come ten years face.

vent to a torrent of tears. 'Dear child, you must not cry For ten years had Sadie been a so. Aunty knew you would come true and loving wife. Loving, again to the home-nest. And did I say? And yet there were moments when a memory of the past would haunt her, and a feelng that her love had been bought overshadow her peace. And now she was standing beside hand on the hot brow just as she the bed and hearing these dread used to do in her infancy. How unchanged the old place white gate just as they were on | would be willing.' that evening when she had met Dean Harrington and told him and burying her face in her hands she was married. She could well she kneeled beside her busband's remember the stern, bitter curve bed, and as the old man left them of his lip as he said: 'Then, Sadie, alone, she burst into an uncongood-bye. And may you be hap py.' And then he had gone away and for the first time the truth not give you up! You must not broke upon her. Her hand belonged to Carlton Wayne but her He put one hot hand on the heart to Dean Harrington. And then they entered the little room that had always been her Truly time had not left its traces here. The tiny toilet table stood where she had left it, and every picture still hung in its old place. Even the snow white curtains were looped back with the same pink bows she had made.

A quiet repose seemed to settle on her feelings, and she and Aunt Nina would sit for hours in the little honey-suckle arbor, Sadie reading some favorite poem while the other's deft fingers would ply the knitting needle. And it all seemed so like the old days that were it not for the black robes, Sadie would almost fancy herself the same light girl of Wayne's brow did not once cloud

And almost unconsciously she began to think of Carlton's words. 'Dean will come back to you,' and her heart would beat quickly at the sound of the door-bell only to be disappointed each time.

The year of mourning was at an end, she wore some soft gray material that well became the slender figure. One evening she was sitting alone in the arbor a book of poems on her lap. But love. And now you will soon be she did not read. Her hands were clasped idly on her lap while a tear stole softly down the full red cheek.

PROPRIETOR. Oh, my husband, forgive me! In- then she recognized him, and with without our labor.

deed I have tried, have prayed, a glad cry of 'Dean you have oh, so earnestly, against it. My | come!' she sprang up. But the next moment she had shrank Shame and sorrow dyed her back blushing hotly. At last he

'Sadie, you will not welcome round face and looked long and me?' he said looking steadily lovingly into the dark eyes that into the brown eyes.

'I am glad to see you, Dean, Sadie, I have nothing to for- she said, extending her hand, give, darling. No truer wife has which he took, and seated him-

'Is that all, Sadie? Or were you You will be left alone. Promise not looking for me?' he said, a me darling, that you will not, pained look crossing his face at And suppose I were, Dean, gone. Dean will come back-I she asked, not looking at him. Then, Sadie, I would dare to hope. Shall I stay?' he asked, 'No, Carlton, I cannot promise this time taking her hands in his you that. And God forgive me own large ones and trying to see the face under the broad hat.

She did not reply at once and a Sadie watches them as they tear dropped on his hands as he

In a moment he had dropped 'Forgive me, child, I had not meant to pain you. But, oh Sadie! I have waited so long. If was alone in the world, and a you could only love me just a litgreat feeling of her loss and a tle. I never meant to trouble shadow of remorse, that he had you again. But I could not resist so easily read her heart, possessed the temptation of seeing you once

He stood looking down at her Everything about the place awhile, a wistful expression stole brough; back a remembrance of over her features, and at last she reached out her hand and he took it quickly.

'Oh, Dean! I cannot send you and again she turned her face to away; I am so lonely,' she said, the little village home from as he bent and kissed the blushing before. Her aunt met her as she God bless you, Sadie. And left the train, and for the first you will learn to love me, for my time in many weeks Sadie gave whole life shall be devoted to your happiness."

'No, Dean, I will never learn to love you. I have always loved you, and he knew it, though God I have your own little room ready knows how I prayed against it. for you. I am so glad you have It was the memory of his kindcome,' the dear old lady said, ness to me that caused my tears. pushing aside the long black veil And somehow I feel like I would and placing the soft, motherly be doing wrong to marry again.' 'Do you think I cannot make you happy, Sadie?' I know you will. And. oh seemed. Even the elder bushes Dean! We must remember we were still struggling over the low owe it all to him. He told me be Miscellaneous.

MUSK.

Musk is a concrete substance, found in an animal having a near affinity to the deer tribe, a native of Thibet, China and Siberia. The musk deer is a timid animal, and rarely appears during the day; consequently the musk collectors | Mary Ann his left hand. watch and surprise it at night. The best musk comes from China, and to have it genuine it should terated. The Bengal musk is inferior, and that from Russia the of the best musk is a fawn color; fixed. that on the inferior a dirty bit. Musk is of a bitter taste, and of water. of an odor more powerful than anything known; substances in its drinking and the tumbler stood neighborhood become strongly in- right there. feeted by it, and, when once perfumed with it, long retain the scent. of tea placed at a considerable distance, even though both had been packed up in leaden boxes, for which reason the East India Company gave an order not to but the tumbler slipped, and, graimport musk and tea in the same cious me! if, between us both, odor. It has the property, when her collar and sleeve. employed in very small quantities,

It is not good to be angry with those who may seem with malicious intent to assail our cher- folks had held it pretty well up to ant case in court sent two very ished beliefs. A few burning this time, but then such a giggle handsome and expensive flagons She did not look up at the weeds may produce smoke enough and laugh as there was. I didn't to the Judge. He ordered them sound of a foot fall, thinking it to hide the stars, but the stars know what had given them such to be filled with costly wine and them. The less of a man one is, her gently to him she burst into was Aunt Nina. But directly she are shining all the same. It is not a start till I looked and see, I'd sent back to the donor. The the more he makes of an injury felt a hand on her shoulder, and wise to vex and weary ourselves give Mary Ann that baby's shirt! Judge was a pagan, however, and 'Oh Carlton, how can you love lifting her head she saw a tall, by angry denunciations of the me when I have been so base! bearded stranger beside her. And smoke which will soon pass off fleshy woman, undulated and foolish stories can't be told of the what others say or do against

THE BRIDAL HANDKER. CHIEF.

We all prepared to go to the wedding. I was going, father was going, the gals was going and cheeks, 'I'd tucked it into my we was going to take the baby. dress pocket, instead of a hand-But come to dress the baby, I kerchief. That comes of being could not find its little shirt. absent-minded and all in a fid-I'd laid a clean one out of the get.' drawer a purpose; I knew jest where I'd put it, but come to look for it, it was gone.

'For mercy's sake,' says I, 'gals, has any of you seen that baby's Of course, none of 'em had seen it, and I looked again; but it wan't nowhere to be found. 'It's the strangest thing in all ions,' that they can occasionally nature,' says I; 'here I had a shirt in my hand not more'n ten minutes ago, and now its gone, of the hit Roger Sherman once nobody knows where! Gals,' said I, 'do look round, can't ye?' But fretting and fuming privilege. wouldn't find it; so I went to the bureau and fished up another shirt, and put it onto the baby, and at last we were ready for a Father had harnessed up the ions, and how a great many peodouble team, and the gals were all ple went to him to get an opinior, having a good time going to see and John, who never had, nor Mary Ann married ; but somehow I couldn't get over that baby's other difficulty for a lawyer to away right from under my face and eyes, 'twas too provoking. 'What be you thinking about mamma?' says Sophronia. 'What | the room.

shirt. 'Twant so much the shirt,

but to have anything sperrited bave an 'opinion.'

makes you so sober?' 'I'm pestered to death thinking about that baby's shirt,' says I.

sartin,' says I. 'Now ma,' says Sophronia-says | the matter?'

she, 'you needn't say that.' And, as I had laid it onto 'em a good many times, they were of your opinions. They say they're beginning to get vexed, and so we had it back and forth all about the baby's shirt, till we got to the

Seeing company kind o' put it out of my mind, and I was getting good natur'd again, though I couldn't help saying to myself, every few minutes, what could have become of that baby's shirt? till they stood up to be married, and I forgot all about it. Mary Ann was a real modest creature, and was more'n half frightened to death when she came into the room with Stephen. and the minister told 'em to jine hands. She fust gave her left hand to Stephen.

'Your other hand.' says the minister, and poor Steve, he was so bashful, too, he didn't know what he was about; he thought other labor. 'twas his mistake, so he gave

That wouldn't do anyway, but cide. At length he said, 'I'll tell by this time they didn't know you what, Polly, I've been to a what they was about, and Mary be purchased in the natural pod Ann jined her left hand with his cost me four and sixpence. There or bag, as it is very often adul- left, then his left with her right, it is; read her out. It's a lawyer's then both their left hands again, till I was all in a fidget, and worst of all. The bair on the pod thought they never would get

Mary Ann was as red as a turwhite. A variety of musk is found key, and to make matters wuss opened the paper, and read as in the musk-rat of Canada, an ani- she began to cough-to turn it follows: 'Never put off till tomal about the size of a small rab- off, I s'pose-and called for a glass morrow what can be done to-day.'

The minister had just been hurry to see it all over with, that them. It has been known to affect chests I ketched up the tumbler and run with it to her; for I thought to goodness she was going to faint. She undertook to drink. I no not know how it happened, of augmenting the scent of other it looked as though 'twas all my substances, without imparting its fault, and the first thing I did was ant-eater, my son.' After a long tion. These are the traits which > give it to Mary Ann. It was nicely done up. She took it and shook it out. The shook like a mighty jelly, with courts of nowadays.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Advertisements inserted at the rate c<sup>1</sup> $1.00 per square (one inch) for first insertior, and 75 cents for each subsequent insertior. Double column advertisements ten per cent

Notices of meetings, obituaries and tribuics

Special Notices in Local column 15 cent

Advertisements not marked with the number of insertions will be kept in till forbid,

Special contracts made with large adver-isers, with liberal deductions on above rates.

JOB PRINTING DONE WITH NEATNESS AND DISPATCH

TERMS CASH.

A NEW COMMANDMENT.

No. 11.

mirth; and it was some time before she could proceed with her

'Why,' continued she, while tears of mirth ran down ber

'And Mary Ann and Stephen-

'Dear me, yes,' said Mrs. Jones;

'and it turned out the gayest wed-

WANTED, AN OPINION.

It is a lucky thing for lawyers who are much sought to for 'opingive a piece of wisdom not their own. There is a good story told made by taking advantage of this

An honest farmer once called upon the celebrated lawyer and told him he wanted an opinion.

He had heard a great deal about the value of Mr. Sherman's opinwas likely to have a lawsuit or

'Oh, nothing. I ain't got no

'Oh, anything, sir; take your

Mr. Sherman, seeing the notions of his client on the matter

it hand, took ben, and writing a few words folded them up and handed them to John, who care-

'Four and sixpence'-Yankee

When John returned home the next morning, he found his wife, who pretty much took the lead in his business matters, anxiously discussing with his chief farm servant the propriety of getting in a which had been cut on the previous, or of undertaking some fully placed them in his pocket.

'What's to pay, sir?'

money, seventy five cents.

'But, John, about what?'

valuable.

pick and choice.

were they married after all?'

ding I ever 'tended.'

parrative.)

In the seventeenth century the minister of a certain parish in Scotland was the famous Samuel Rutherford, the religious oracle of the Covenanters and their adherents. It is among the traditions that on a Saturday evening, as one of the family gatherings, when Ratherford was catechising his children and servants, a stranger knocked at the door and begged shelter for the night. The minister kindly received him, and asked him to take his place with the family and-assist at their religious

It so happened that the ques-exercises.

tion in the catechism which came to the stranger was that which asks: "How many commandments are there?" He answered, "Eleven." "Eleven!" exclaimed Rutherford. "I am surprised that a man of your age and appearance should not know better; what do you mean?" And he answered: "'A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another." Rutherford was much impressed by the answer, and they retired to rest. The next morning, as he threaded his way to church through the thickhelp him from, thought he would et, he heard among the trees the voice of the stranger at his devo-Well, John, what can I do to tions. The elevation af the sentihelp you?' said Mr. S., when ments convinced him that it was no common man, and, on accosting John, in his turn, was shown into him, the traveler confessed that 'Why, lawyer,' replied John, 'I he was no other than the great happened to be in town, and havdivine, Archbishop Usher, the ing nothing to do, I thought I Primate of the Church of Ireland, 'One of you must a took it, I'm would come and get your opinion.' who well fulfilled that new com-State your case, John. What's mandment which he bore to others. He it was who had come in disguise to see Rutherford in the lawsuit. I only want to get one privacy of his own home. Side by side they pursued their way to the little church, and from the rustic pulpit the Archbishop preached to the people from the words which had so startled his host the evening before: "A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another."-Library Notes. CHANGED HIS MIND .- Mr. H. C.

exhibiting fifteen cents, said: 'Please, mister, I would so much like to see Cinderella, but

The boy's manner touched Jarlarge quantity of oats on that day John was appealed to to settled the question, but he could not delawyer and got an opinion that not know how to express his ward the street, he said : writing, and I can't make head or tail out of it ! John, by the way, could not read the plainest print, but Polly, who was something of a scholar,

'Enough said!' cried John. 'Them oats must be got in.' And they were 'got in,' and the same night such a storm came on as I was so narvous, and in such a otherwise would have ruined

Just before visiting the menagerie, Jonny had a passage at arms with the young aunt who assisted at his toilet, and with whom he flew into a rage. Arrived at the Annt Mary here some day ?"

A person who had an import-

Jarrett, the theatrical manager, tells the following story: One evening, while his party were playing at the Opera House in Detroit, a small boy approached him, and holding out his hand, that's all the money I've got.'

rett's tender spot, and after asking him two or three times if that was all the money he had, and receiving each time a pitiful affirmative answer, he gave him a quarter. The boy's countenance beamed with delight, and he did gratitude. Finally, moving to-

'You don't know how thankful I am, sir. I am ever so much obliged to you, sir; but now that you have been so generous, I guess I'll go to the other theater and see 'Jack Sheppard !" 12

TRUE WOMEN.-Every man of sense and refinement admires a woman as a woman, and when she steps out of this character, a thousand things, that in their appropriate sphere would be admired, become disgusting and offensive. The appropriate character of a woman demands delicacy of appearance and manners. refinement of sentiment, gentleness of speech, modesty of feeling and action, a shrinking from nomenageric. Johnny was imme- toriety and public gaze, aversion ships. Many persons dislike the we didn't spill the water all over diately interested by a strange to all that is coarse and rude, and foreign animal with a long, lithe an instinctive abhorrence of all I was dreadfully frustrated, for body. 'What animal is that, mam- that tends to indelicacy and imma?' he asked. 'It is called an purity, other in principle or acto out with my handkerchief and silence: 'Mamma, can't we bring are admired and sought for in

The greatness shows itself in ignoring, or quickly forgetting personal injuries, when meaner natures would be kept in unrest by (Here Mrs. Jones, who is a big, didn't know any better. Such he is, the less he is disturbed by