TIM BUNKER ON LEARNING FROM MISTAKES.

We have been a good many years learning what crows were made for, and the lesson is not very well understood.

That the Grangers are still alive in the West is shown by their ownership of ninety public halls in Michigan, ranging in cost from $200 to $8,000.

A young woman of Idaho answered an advertisement of a firm of marriage brokers, who soon afterward sent her a bill of $26.50 for advertising threatening.

Dr. Vinnege has been expelled from the Indiana Medical Society. He has for many years been the foremost physician in Tippecanoe County.

Ex-Governor Daniel H. Chamberlain has been very sick for several weeks from a nervous trouble brought on by overwork.

Over nine thousand immigrants arrived at New York Tuesday, and the commissioner of immigration estimates that the arrivals during April will aggregate over 100,000.

Bob Jackson was missed from Winnipeg, having last been seen going away from a barroom drunk after a week he was found dead.

Our Chip Basket.

Mr. Oscar Wilde has made $25,000 out of his lectures. Chicago has the largest pro rata Jewish population of any city in the world.

The French Cremation Society now consists of 406 members. The receipts for the first year were 7,000 francs.

The President of the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical Society is stated by the Lancet to have said that "two-thirds of all the medicine sold in the United States was in the form of patent medicines."

A man who eloped with a Wisconsin wife left a note for the husband: "I have tooked your woman; but you are welcome to my last week's wages, which I didn't draw; and I hoap that squares things."

It is hard to perserate and act a part long, for where truth is not at the bottom nature will always be endeavoring to return.

Life must be measured by action, not by time; for a man may die old at thirty, and young at eighty; nay, the one lives after death, and the other perished before he died.

Good words do more than hard speeches, as the sunbeams, without any noise, will make the traveler throw off his coat.

The most influential man, in a free country at least, is the man who has the ability as well as the courage to speak what he thinks when occasion may require it.

It is easy enough to find plenty of men who think the world owes them a living, but hard to find a man who is willing to own that he has collected the debt in full.

Poverty is the only burden which grows heavier in proportion to the number of dear ones who have to help to bear it.

Conceit is to nature what paint is to beauty; it is not only needless, but impairs what it would improve.

Avarice is the mother of many vices.

Miscellaneous.

TO YOUNG MEN. There is no dignity in idleness. Impudence is not independence.

You can be decided without being offensive. Do not be impatient for notoriety.

Do not put off your education. Do not occupy time or room that belongs to another.

Do not hold the opinions of other in contempt. Skepticism is no evidence of learning or independence.

The wishes of parents should be lovingly regarded. Piety is an aid to happiness.

Do not sow wild oats unless you wish to reap that kind of a harvest. Procrastination is a fool.

Select a worthy object of life, and give all your strength to that end.

It is impossible to set forth ALL THE ADVANTAGES This Method has over the Old System, in an advertisement, but invite all interested to call at the Studio, or send for Circular.

IT SAVES TIME AND MONEY. It is so simple that even a Child of Five Years can understand it.

It comes away with years of drudgery. It takes the Pupil immediately into the Science of Musical Compositions, and continues the same throughout the whole Course of Instruction.

It is not a superficial method, but applies to all Music precisely as it is written, without any change whatever.

It commends itself at once to the educated class of the community. This Method is entirely different from the Old System.

An opportunity is offered to all to gain a Musical Education in a short time and for Less Expense than ever before.

Many of my Pupils in the South are now successfully Teaching This Method, which was gained at a nominal expense, while my expense for tuition alone was FOUR DOLLARS per lesson.

This Method fulfills the maxim that "Whatever shortens the road to learning, lengthens life and increases usefulness."

Terms, 50 cts. Per Lesson.
