WALHALLA, S. C.:
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 4, 1912.
TWO GOOD CITIZENS GONE.

It is with a marked degree of sorrow that The Courier announces this week the death of two of Oconee's good, substantial and honored citizens—Capt. Jas. T. Reid and J. B. Pickett.

Both of these gentlemen had war records which might be envied by any man. They followed the fortunes of the "Lost Cause" throughout those four years that tried men's souls, proving the valor of the Southern soldier and giving to the world a record of devotion to country and principle that shall ever live and be pointed to with pride, not alone by the people of the South as indicative of the chivalry of this section, but by the people of the nation as showing the highest type of American manhood and soldiery. Capt. Reid entered the service of the Confederacy as a private in Company E, Orr's Regiment, under Capt. Miles M. Norton, and upon the promotion of Capt. Norton to the colonelcy of the regiment Mr. Reid was promoted to captain of Company E, in which capacity he served with that same efficiency and bravery that had marked his career as a private. For a number of years he was honored by his comrades with a position on the Pension Board for Oconee county. He was dominated by a degree of honor and integrity that made his life conspicuous for its high tone, both in private and public matters. At the time of his death he was in his 82d year.

The record of John B. Pickett is given fully by our correspondent at Walhalla, S. C., in another column.

man might well be proud.

Both were men of sterling worth and high integrity, and their deaths will be mourned wherever they were known. It was our pleasure to know them both, and each we esteemed highly as citizen and friend. Oconee has suffered a distinct loss in the passing away of these two gentlemen. Each, however, had rounded out a good, long life, and the world is better for their having lived and moved among their fellow-men. While we sorrow with many others that they have been removed from our midst, we rejoice that "the days of the years of their sojourn" were many, and that it was our privilege to have known them.

FOES HAVE SIGNED ARMISTICE.
Greece Balking—Members of Balkan League Not Harmonious.

Constantinople, Dec. 3.—It is officially announced that an armistice has been signed between Turkey and Bulgaria, Serbia and Montenegro. Apparently Greece has not signed.

Adrianople a Stumbling Block.

London, Dec. 3.—Adrianople was the obstacle which threatened to wreck the parleys between the plenipotentiaries of Turkey and of the Balkan allies when they first opened at Baghche, and Adrianople appeared again at the end of the negotiations as the most serious hindrance to the attainment of an agreement. During the first session of the delegates the Turks absolutely refused to consider the surrender of the stronghold of Adrianople, and when the Bulgarians later yielded to them on this point, the Greek delegates shrank back and demanded time in which to submit the question to the government at Athens.

The reason for the Hellenic objection to any such submission to the desires of the Ottoman representatives is not far to seek, according to the opinion expressed in diplomatic circles. It is pointed out that it is obvious that if the Bulgarians sacrifice the ultimate possession of Adrianople in the interests of general peace, they will expect their allies to share their sacrifice, and the only way in which this can be done is to give Bulgaria compensation in the shape of territory conquered by the Greeks, Servians and Montenegrins, and which they had staked out for themselves. Hence the wall from Athens that any concessions to Turkey will "endanger the fruits of victory gained by the allied powers."

(Anderson Mail, Dec. 3.)
The matter of principal interest this morning, with the possible exception of the appointments, was the discussion of the report of the board of education. The annual recommendation was as follows: In view of the needs of the colleges to pay the indebtedness, the board recommended that the special interests be unified, "that these imperative needs," said the board, "and believing that the best way to meet by unifying the interests of our colleges, year after year, submits the following tentative plan to be considered by the board for one year, and adopted at the ensuing session of the Annual Conference, with whatever changes the wisdom of the conference may seem best:

1. "That, as soon as a college of education can be secured, a campaign lasting not longer than three years, be inaugurated for the purpose of $300,000 for our colleges.
2. "That this fund be distributed as follows: One-half of the fund raised to be donated to Western College and Fitting Schools, one-half to Lander College and one-half to Columbia College. Amounts raised for any institution through any other source, within the bounds of the conference, between now and the inauguration of this campaign, shall be deducted from the amount apportioned to that institution.
3. "That the presidents of the colleges, with the chairmen of the boards of trustees, and the secretary of the conference board of education, be appointed a committee to secure a commissioner of education, and shall assist him in planning and prosecuting the campaign.
4. "That all our pastors and members give their undivided support and support to the accomplishment of this great work.
5. "That with the inauguration of this canvass all other financial matters for our colleges shall be withdrawn from the field.
"We ask the conference to adopt at this time Section 3 of this plan.
"We recommend that the president of the board of education be empowered to call a meeting of the board of education in Section 3 as early as practicable to begin this work."

WILLIAMS CAPTURED AND SHOT.
Crowds Overtake Sheriff and Kill Negro Who Shot Women.

Cordale, Ga., Nov. 30.—Chesley Williams, the negro who shot two white women near Rhine and assaulted one of them, was dragged from the vaults of the clerk of the court at McRae at 2 o'clock Saturday morning by an angry mob and riddled with bullets.

Sheriff Wilcox, of Telfair county, attempted to evade the mob with his prisoner by hiding the negro in the vault of the clerk in the court house at McRae, but his efforts were unsuccessful.

The lynching was quiet. Neither one of the negro's victims is dead, but one is not expected to live. The negro was captured early Friday night by the Dodge county sheriff in a small frame building near the home where the crimes were committed. Fearing that the accused man would be summarily treated by enraged citizens, the sheriff placed the negro in an automobile, and, with five deputies, left for an unknown destination to place the negro in jail.

Residents of the vicinity where the assault and shooting occurred, and who had been searching for the negro on their own account, learned of the action of the sheriff a half hour after he had left with the negro. Other automobiles were obtained and, following the general direction taken by the sheriff, raced to overtake him and obtain possession of the negro.

While the mother and her daughter were in their home last night near Rhine, which is thirty miles from here, a negro entered the house. When ordered to leave he shot the mother and then assaulted the daughter. Both are in a serious condition. The crime was discovered later when other members of the family returned home and heard the story from the two women.

Other negroes are said to have revealed the hiding place of Williams to the sheriff. The accused had been a farm hand on the plantation where the assault and shooting happened.

Mrs. Mulkey favored the guests with several beautiful vocal selections. A special feature of the evening's entertainment was the reading of two selections by H. C. Dresser, which were greatly enjoyed; also a recitation by Miss Lillian Breazeale, "States and Capitals" were distributed to pair off the ladies and gentlemen for refreshments, and the "matching up" created much merriment. A delicious sweet course was served by Misses Hortense and Carmen Cross, Lillian Breazeale and Marion Pitts. Mesdames J. M. Bruner and T. S. Miller presided at the punch bowl. A complimentary "toast" and vote of thanks was tendered the class by D. I. Mulkey in behalf of the gentlemen present. Too swiftly the time passed and too soon the hour came to depart, but, hoping to enjoy many more such gatherings the guests bade each other and their host and hostess adieu at the eleventh hour.

It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters have no equal. Try them.
