THE NEW STETSONS ARE HERE.

That's all we need to tell you. New Fall Styles with the distinctive mark, and the good, old-rock bottom Stetson Quality.

If you're a regular Stetson customer, of course you'll want one of the new Fall Styles. If not, let us urge you at least to come and try one on.

You can judge for yourself what this Stetson "feeling for style" is, that the young men talk about.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES.

Winters to Speak in Oconee.

Westminster, 4 p. m., Tuesday, Sept. 5th.
South Union, 8 p. m., same date.
Keowee, 2 p. m., Wednesday, Sept. 6th.
Fairview, 8 p. m., same date.

N. E. Winters, specialist in soil fertility, known throughout the State as "The Billy Sunday of Agriculture," will speak at the four places in the county named above. While many other places wanted dates with Mr. Winters, it was impossible to supply them, due to the short time which he could remain in the county, and as the greatest number of requests came from these places it was decided to hold the meetings at these points.

In addition to the meetings it is planned to take interested farmers on tours of several farms in these sections to show what is being done in the matter of soil building and other important features of farming.

On Wednesday morning, Sept. 7, at 9 o'clock, it is planned for the first tour to start from the school building at South Union to several farms of this and other nearby school districts.

On Wednesday afternoon, (same date,) at 3.30 o'clock, those who are attending the meeting at Keowee school house, and any others who come, will be conducted over several demonstrations which show the effects of winter cover crops of vetch and clover, velvet bean fields, etc.

On these farm tours it is expected that much will be gained by seeing the effects of these crops on production of the soil, and many questions regarding the rotation and treatment of summer and winter legume crops, fertilization, lime needs, etc., will be answered by Mr. Winters.

Farmers and others from nearby school districts should also take advantage of these meetings and trips, as they should prove very helpful to all who attend.

How best to make poor and medium soils rich, and how to keep rich soils in the most productive state, are matters of vital importance to all farmers. Rich farmers, or well-to-do farmers, if the latter title is more applicable, usually own rich soil—that is, if they made their money farming.

At a time when money crops are doubtful, and when acreages in money crops must be cut down, it is highly important that many extra acres should be planted in winter cover crops of oats and vetch, rye and vetch, bur clover, crimson clover, etc. Mr. Winters will stress the importance of these things in a way that will leave a very strong impression upon his hearers.

What Farmers Are Doing.
Jas. H. Brown, of the South Union section, is well pleased with several acres of Acacia cotton which he is growing this year. This variety has a better staple than the Cleveland and is heavier fruited, it seems, having a large number of bolls well developed.

Mr. Brown is fighting the weevil through intensive, thorough square picking, and seems to be getting results. On last Friday a pile of squares about three feet high and four to six feet across was burned. In some of the fields examined there was a very light infestation.

S. L. Brown, of the Return section, grew some of the finest vetch and oats last spring that was grown in the county. Following this he has one of the best pieces of corn growing, with peas in between.

G. M. Barnett, of Oak Grove, former county agent, has some of the best peas seen growing between corn rows of any seen lately in the county. "Mish" has plenty of velvet beans, too, and some Sudan grass every year.

J. H. Barnett, of Oak Grove, has some nice soy beans growing between corn rows; also some fine looking cotton. Square infestation showed very variable percentages in his cotton, running from 4 per cent in one corner to about 22 per cent. He is trying some dusting.

Geo. R. Briggs, County Agent.

Rainfall and Temperature.

Below is a record of meteorological observations taken by H. W. Brandt, co-operative observer of the Weather Bureau of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, during the week ending Aug 20th, 1922, at 7 p. m. Local News from South Union.

Westminster, R. F. D., Aug. 21.—Special: A number of cottage prayer meetings are being held in this community preparatory to the series of meetings being held here beginning the 27th.

Fulton Pierce, of Athens, Ga., and a friend of his are visiting his cousin, Mrs. S. L. Burriss.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Minyard attended a family reunion at Abbeville last Thursday.

Mrs. M. W. Gibson was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. John Zachary, of Seneca.

The numerous friends of Mrs. Paul Marett will regret to learn that she is very ill.

There are quite a number of cases of typhoid fever here now, the families of Kay Blakeley and Mrs. Creighton Price being victims.

Thos. Willis, of Charlotte, N. C., was circulating among friends here Sunday.

A large company gathered at the home of Hart McCurley Friday to celebrate the birthday of his oldest son. An enjoyable day was had by all.

Mrs. W. D. Ivester spent the week-end in Georgia with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Looney complimented the young people with a social Saturday night.

Walroy and Ross Gibson and Henry Harris were in Anderson last Saturday on business.

Rev. and Mrs. Froeman are spending this week in Greenville. They carried their son, Robert Earl, to North Greenville Academy, where he entered school.

Mrs. John Zachary and children spent the past week-end with the family of M. W. Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stanell have returned from a week's visit to Fair Play.

The children and grandchildren of Wiley Allen, deceased, held a family reunion Sunday at the old home place now occupied by J. O. Allen, the youngest son.

Harry Goodman was a visitor at the home of Geo. R. Briggs, of Walhalla, Saturday.

Chicken thieves are getting numerous around here. James and Lawrence Burriss caught one Saturday night—an opossum. The other kind will have to be chased and caught by bloodhounds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. West spent Saturday and Sunday at Wolf Stake. Mr. West went up to his farm at that place to see if he had any boll weevils. He reports a crop of them too numerous to count.

B. H. and H. M. Cole and their families and Mrs. Hoyt Thomas attended the Cole reunion at Double Springs, Anderson county, Saturday.

Neville R. S. I. A. to Meet.

The Neville R. S. I. A. will meet at the school house on Friday evening, Aug. 25, at 3 o'clock. The members are all urged to attend.

Herbert Sullivan, Secretary.
