

An Awful Holocaust.

The Hong Kong Mail says: At Tientsin, on the 7th of January, a terrible calamity occurred. A fire broke out at 10 o'clock in the morning, at one of the relief yards established outside of the city wall for the benefit of the famine refugees. A strong northeast wind was blowing at the time, and scarcely an hour passed before all the sheds were burned, and between 2,800 and 3,000 women and children were suffocated or burned to death. As correct an estimate as I can get gives the number of inmates as 3,000 of whom only a little over 100 escaped. The location of this soup kitchen was unfortunate. On the east side was the city ditch; on a part of the south and west sides was an ice pit, while houses lined the remaining sides. In addition, it was surrounded by a strong fence of hauling stalks plastered with mud, in which there was only one gate, and it is said that on the bursting forth of the flames the gate keeper locked the gate and ran away. Many of the Chinese showed much courage in trying to render assistance, as testified by an eye witness, who, passing just at the time, hastened to do what he could in tearing down the fence and rendering other services. He speaks of the scene of that time as terrible beyond description. The scene presented after the fire had done its work was ghastly and horrible, and the picture of it rises before my mind as one that can never be effaced. The contortions of the features, the positions of the bodies, hands, limbs, mouth and eyes, the same as when the flame and smoke overtook them, reminded one of the descriptions of Pompeii. Had the gate been left open probably many more might have made their escape, but so rapidly did the flames spread through the mat sheds, and in the straw and mats spread on the ground as a protection against dampness, that before an opening could be made in the fence, few even were left to linger on in suffering. How the fire originated no one seems to know—a spark, probably, from the range where, at the time, the millet was cooking.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A special from Atlanta, Ga., says: "The city of Atlanta experienced to day the severest wind storm or rainless tornado ever known here. The storm burst suddenly about 11 o'clock a. m., and when all the churches were filled with worshippers, and lasted, without rain but with steady and tremendous force, for two hours. The Episcopal Church, like others, was filled at the hour for the commencement of divine service, and no thought of danger was entertained by the congregation; but during the early part of the service, the wind suddenly rose and shook the whole building to its foundation. The officiating minister realized at once that a tornado had struck the building, and knowing it was merely a question of minutes to secure the safety of the people, he cried out to them to throw themselves under the seats. This advice the congregation at once followed, and not a moment too soon. With a few fearful creaks and jars of its roof and walls, the whole building crumbled into a shapeless ruin, burying the congregation under the debris. Luckily the shelter afforded by the seats protected the great mass of the congregation, but eighteen were seriously wounded by the falling timbers. None of those, however, have died. Several other churches in Atlanta have been seriously injured, their walls shaken and roofs partly stripped. The City Hall was entirely unroofed and the car sheds of the railroad depot unsettled. There was great damage, an estimate of which cannot yet be determined.

A CITY SHAKEN AND SCARED.—A special from Nashville, Tennessee says that a terrific earthquake shock was felt at Columbus, Kentucky, at 4 o'clock on Monday morning, 13th instant. It awoke the residents of the town and created considerable consternation. Beadsteads rolled across the floors of rooms, bureaus and presses were thrown down and broken. A portion of the Mississippi River bank caved in near the town, leaving one house hanging over the bluff. The movement was so violent as to ring bells on locomotives standing on the tracks.

More About Mr. Hayes.

The following, considering that it comes from the Philadelphia Times, a paper published in loyal north is full of significance: "The truth is that retribution has come upon the Republican party with a swiftness and a force that is almost impossible to withstand, and the sarcasm of destiny is seen in the fact that the hand that deals the blow is the hand of him whose promotion to place and power, as the representative of the party, a great crime was committed. The consciousness of this crime ranking in the breast of every Republican who witnessed the electoral frauds without a protest makes the situation more critical. As man after man becomes alienated from the administration he falls into line with the opposition and tries to calm his conscience by condemning fraud even louder than the regulation Democrats. The yell of 'fraud' is becoming so general that it drowns all other party cries political watch words. Clearly the first thing to be done, if the Republican party is to be restored to life, is to stop this din that falls upon the ear of the leaders, now like the roar of the tempest and now like the keel of departed hopes, but always in tones that strike terror to the guilty conscience. This is a task for a Hercules and Hercules is not in the Republican ranks at this time. It looks very much as though the object cannot be accomplished without the removal of the fraud itself, or all that now remains of it, and that operation is very likely to kill the patient."

The inside as well as the outside of farmer's homes should be pleasant. The eye naturally loves what is beautiful, and through this organ the taste is educated and the mind enlarged. Pleasant pictures on the walls, wreaths of flowers from the garden, fields and forest, works of poetry, fiction and science are within the reach of the most humble, and their influence for good upon the mind and character cannot be over-estimated. The children especially are attracted by these adornments, and their attachment to the professions of their parents becomes strengthened and confirmed. The bare walls of too many of our country homes—their total lack of any food for the mind, in the shape of books and papers—the humdrum life, which frowns upon all pleasures and considers it a sin—too often drives away the young and aspiring mind, and the country loses a first class farmer and gives to the world a poor physician, lawyer or clergyman.

Live within your means, and lay up something for a rainy day. You may not always be able to work.

An old lady has just died in England, aged 104, who drank one thousand dollars worth of gin per annum. She took it for her health.

"My dear boy," said a mother to her son as he handed round his plate for more turkey, "this is the fourth time you've been helped." "I know, mother," replied the boy, "but that turkey pecked at me once, and I want to get square with him." He got his turkey.

REPUBLICANS PREFER TILDEN TO HAYES.—It is useless longer to conceal the fact that the Republicans are getting very tired of Hayes. It is conceded that his course is sapping the life and wearing away the energy of the Republican party. It is a solemn fact to day that in Washington a majority of Republican Senators and Representatives would rather see Tilden in the White House than Hayes. There are but five or six Republican Senators (so called) who sustain the administration, and there are not twenty all told in the House, so that in an emergency Hayes would be almost utterly without any support.—Toledo Journal.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

For all the purposes of a Family Physic, and for curing Constipation, Jaundice, Indigestion, Piles, Stomach, Bile, Headache, Erysipelas, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia, &c. Dimer Pills, for Purifying the Blood.

Are the most effective and congenial purgative ever discovered. They are mild, but effective in their operation, moving the bowels surely and without pain. Although gentle in their operation, they are still the most thorough and searching cathartic medicine that can be employed: cleansing the stomach and bowels, and even the blood. In small doses of one pill a day, they stimulate the digestive organs and promote vigorous health.

AYER'S PILLS have been known for more than a quarter of a century, and have obtained a world-wide reputation for their virtues. They correct diseased action in the several assimilative organs of the body, and are so composed that obstructions within their range can rarely withstand or evade them. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, the safest and best physic for children. By their aperient action they grip much less than the common purgatives, and never give pain when the bowels are not inflamed. They reach the vital fountains of the blood, and strengthen the system by freeing it from the elements of weakness.

Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, these Pills may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take: while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
