THE YORKVILLE ENQUIRER.

Edinburg from Dr. Struthers, who is to act as ----- The New Jersey State Democratic Con-

Delegates were appointed to the Charleston ted appropriation bills to the House of Representatives on Wednesday of last week, as fol-

----- The Sumter Tri-weekly Watchman, a new plan, however, failed

---- The Charleston Mercury speaks of the

The Havana Diario de la Marina of the 25th j tant contains a leader of two columns, devoted to ficers on the Mexican (Miramon) squadron. It is to be expected that an official organ of the Spanish Government would give vent to its sym-way the Gulf action took at Havana thus .

CONTRIBUTOBIAL.

they were likely to have pretty 'tight papers'-a College phrase meaning, we believe, here, a rigid examination. The Man about Town observed

..... The Book Concern of the Northern Methodist Episcopal Church published last year over one million of volumes. ..... Gen. John Devreux died lately in London. He raised the Irish legion which. under Bolivar, engaged in the successful struggle for independence in Colombia.

Scraps & Facts.

..... There is a carriage-maker in Providence, R. I., who gives notice that he can make a carriage which will 'carry a man into office or anything else,' and he also not to the Editors or Proprietor, personally. Perrepairs carriages in a Constitutional and sons desiring prompt attention to their favors, Union-like manner.' must bear this in mind.

..... The profits of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad for the month of February, as appears from an official report. amounted to $90,482.49. This is certainly unexampled by any Railroad in the United States.

..... Dr. A. W. Bivings informs us that in exhuming some bodies at a family graveyard near his father's residence, Crawfordsville, lately, the body of a woman, buried some twelve or more years, was found in a state of petrifaction, with each article of dress perfect.-Spartan.

..... The Augusta Evening Dispatch, of the 28th ult., contains a letter from Hon. Howell Cobb, in which he withdraws his name, unconditionally from the canvass for the Presidency. The absence of harmony among the Democracy of Georgia, in regard to supporting him at the Charleston Convention, is the reason assigned by him. ..... We are pleased to state that, in traveling about through the country, we planting their corn; and that the wheat the cause of the fire. crops, which many thought were sadly injured, are now looking well, and promise an abundant yield of the 'staff of life.'- and happy-hearted correspondent and story-Sandersville Georgian, 28th ult. ..... The Republicans and Democrats in the Senate and House, it is said, are pairing off for the Conventions at Charleston and Chicago, so that if Congress refuse to adjourn ten days for each Convention, it is evident that there will be no quorum for the transaction of business during the ses-will be virtually adjourned. ...... Some years ago there was a man in New Orleans who, on week days, was a o'clock, p. m., on Wednesday next. Inasmuch millions. He dies. His will splendidly endows sual excitement in the cotton market, and is specially desired. on the following Sunday our friend commenced the services with a hymn, which long staple !"

for some time between Davidson College perhaps a negro. He persuaded the negro to execution of his plan would keep both mind and and the heirs at law of the late Maxwell meet him on a certain night at a certain place Chambers, Esq., has been compromised by with the horse; the negro informed on him; he the parties. The college will receive something over $200,000 from the estate. The nal he was rushed upon and secured, and is now new college building is neary completed. - confined in Spartanburg jail.

Rev. D. Lacy, D. D., the excellent and ef-

EDITED BY CONTRIBUTING EDITOR: JAS. WOOD DAVIDSON .... Columbia, S. C YORKVILLE, S. C. THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 5, 1860.

The Porkbille Enquirer

Special Notice .- All communications, matters connected with the paper, should be addressed to "THE YORKVILLE ENOURER :" and of the ENQUIRER. TO ADVERTISERS. Our advertising friends will place us under early as Monday or Tuesday of each week. "UNK NOWN"

Capt. D. D. MOORE, Maj. MYLES SMITH. SAMUEL G. BROWN, J. L. THOMPSON, and SAMUEL J. KUYKENDAL, of York; JOHN R. ALLEN, Post Master at Chester, S. C.; JOSEPH WALKER, 120 Meeting-street, Charleston, S. C. ; and WILLIAM D. Cook, of Bennettsville, are authorized agents

Has sent us an enigma without a responsible name. Try a little more. We have an idea that it is somewhere about All Fools' Day. We did'nt publish the E-nig-Ma! We did'nt!

The dwelling house of Mr. JAMES F. CAROTH-ERS, on Catawba River, we regret to learn, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday of last week .-

"WILLIE LIGHTHEART."

We had the pleasure of meeting our graceful writer, WILLIE LIGHTHEART, in our sanctum last Friday evening. 'Willie' is spending a few weeks giving when he dies, he is not an actual but an taining story-"NELLIE, OR THE FATAL GIFT"will appear next week in our columns. will benefit posterity.

JNO. R. JORDAN, who was arrested some time learn from the Spartanburg Express, lately made ..... The lawsuit which has been pending an attempt in that District to steal a horse and of the heart. He would grow in love with it ; the was waylaid at the rendezvous ; at a given sig-

44

38

ELECTION FOR MAJOR.

of New Mexico are clamorous for the organiza- such a course on the part of the Administration, meeting of scientific men from all parts of the to find out the origin of All-Fool's Day, tells us 'etrong-minded' women; hence the physiologist tion of this territory.

Mayor of Columbia, which occurred on Monday, resulted as follows: Dr. J. H. BOATWRIGHT.

A new monthly advertising sheet, we learn France. The latest accounts from Ecuador represent annually in one of the capitals of the world, and from the Charleston papers, is proposed to be ssued soon by Mr. JOSEPH WALKER of that city, lesigned for gratuitous circulation throughout the Southern States. The object of this sheet will be to furnish the Charleston Jobbers a medium of communication with their customers in all parts of the country. To secure this the more thoroughly, Mr. WALKER proposes to connect with his own issue a system of advertising by which the card of each merchant patronizing him will appear, also, in fifty or more newspapers. This plan would work well for Charleston ; and we hope Mr. W. will receive sufficient encouragement to induce him to inaugurate the enterprise. POST-MORTEM BENEVOLENCE. He who waits until he has one foot in the 253 : Dr. T. J. GOODWIN, 206 ; JAMES D. TRADE-grave, before he dispenses his charities, may be wELL, 194. ..... We learn from the Fairfield pecial obligation by sending in their favors as said to give away that which belongs to another ; Register, that the Court at that place adjourned for, as he come naked into the world, so he must sine die on Monday, having transacted all the go out naked and possessionless. Every virtue, pending business, and been in session the unpreproperly exercised, has a two-fold influence- cedentedly short time of six hours. ...... Profeson the public and on the individual ; but the lat- sor G. WILSON, has submitted a paper to the

'The first denounces the Republican position in ter is lost in cases of post-mortem benevolence. British Association of science, in which he states longress as disregarding the provison of the Con-We do not condemn such charity-it is nobly that out of eleven hundred and fifty-four persons well; yet charities ante mortem, given before of all occupations, he found one in fifty-five death, are better-better both for the giver and color-blind--that is, unable to distinguish the

These charities, given by dead men to living grand demonstration in favor of the Pope is now sauses, may be of two kinds: they may spring coming off in the Vatican, Rome..........Parties gives should be accorded, and all it withholds twelve years, and was in their possession till a exemplification of shuffling, intrigue and erab Everything in the house, except a couple of beds, up in the mind, like a mush-room growth, on suspected of disaffection to the present order of and a few hundred dollars of notes, cash &c., the death-bed ; or they may have been the things at Naples are being sent into exile ..... was consumed in the flames. The loss is esti- purpose of a long and laborious life. The for- The Patrie publishes a letter from Turin, stating find the farmers generally have finished mated at $1500. We have heard nothing as to mer are like the sudden breaking of the setting that the question of the annexation of Savoy to dening, but not redeeming the dark, perhaps, fair way of reaching a conclusion.

EDITORIAL INKLINGS. convention is proposed to discuss its feasibility. has been statesmanlike and conservative." It will probably result in nothing, as the South-

----- Mayor Wood-FERNANDO WOOD of New York city-is, they say, sending a circular letter $180,000; Indian. $1,000,000; Consular and to the delegates to the Charleston Convention Diplomatic, $11,000; Fortifications over $600 .-

throughout the country, in which he (Mayor WooD) makes a bid for the nomination either for President or Vice President. He is willing to take the gift of either office, but prefers the take the gift of either office, but prefers the violated. How much better to retire from busifor the good of the Democratic party, and tions which will swell the amount to over $53,though the delegates may feel it to be their duty 500,000." to vote for him as President to the last, yet he

> it, to let him down among the candidates for the sanctum on Monday evening. The Tri-weekly, says : Vice Presidency.

----- The Charleston Mercury gives an account says : "Yorkville is among the most important Another man is constantly on the alert for of a hail-storm passing over that city on Sunday as well as ornate of our up-country towns, and his charities. This it is that cultivates and enno. made its debut more like a lion than a lamb. It tering around them the elegancies, and improvebles the man. Probably, during the whole of opened yesterday morning with a mild shower, ments of modern mechanism, art and science." Convention of the Delegates from the several organization, will prove of interest. It is taken his life, he may not expend a thousand dollars in but towards the afternoon the skies in the north _____ The Governors of Ohio and Iowa have obtain for the occasion, the Hall of Representassumed a threatening aspect, which gradually refused to surrender two or three of the Harper's tives." his way: yet do more good, by the unceasing activity of his benevolence, than he who endows grew darker and thicker, and about five o'clock, Ferry marauders, whereupon the Virginia Legisa professorship or even a college after death. with the wind at a high point, we were visited lature has tabled and ordered to be printed the New York Times, speaking of the capture of the cultivation of a martial spirit among the young "Power to do good," says Bacon, "is the true with a hail-storm, accompanied with thunder and following resolution : "Power to do good," says Bacon, "is the true and lawful end of aspiring; for good thoughts, though God accept them, yet towards men are little better than good dreams, except they be put in act." pat in act." If we examine fully this thing of living solely to oneself and dying to the public, we shall see that the public are often, like children who in-berit princely fortunes, idle, improvident and profigate. Great cities will often use donations ton, and we fear it did much damage to early rise to the offences committed by these criminals Senators that it was done in compliance with tend that they are violating no treaty or neutral. and fugitives from justice.

even if there were no other reason why such er- world in one of the autumn months-August or that the custom of making fools on this day or- declares that excessive mental labor in woman, a The April Examination of under-graduates The subject of the absorption of Utah by sur-rounding States and territories is exciting much attention. Mr. Scorr, of California, asks a por-tion to be set off to his State. THE CHARLESTON MERCHANT. A new monthly advertising sheet, we learn osity and inability to keep a secret, the resentish Association, and it is intended to be held the day of its annual return. ment which follows a wound to their self-love, about Town told us that one of the students remarked to him that in some of the departments.

----- The following item 'gives a general view of the restless union of remarkable talent with femithat country as being on the eve of civil war. thus the advantages ensuing from British and money matters in our country. Our Imp says nine sentiment, as De Stael, Charlotte Bronte, ....Sir Moszs Monreynez, the distinguished American Associations for the advancement of the Jewish faith in England, has ad-ber of the Jewish faith in England, has ad-solution of Washington a Maturalists, will be combined with the great. ember of the Jewish faith in England, has ad- science, and the meeting of German Physicians him to have no more than he has:

dressed to a Jewish citizen of Washington, a and Naturalists, will be combined with the great-"The Treasury Department has made its an- ties of constitution, to facts of nature and temus in an undertone that he was not sure what letter, handsomely acknowledging his deep sense of the liberality of our House of Representatives, gether of representatives of science, literature of the liberality of our House of Representatives, gether of representatives of science, literature was meant by 'tight papers'; but from some of the liberality of our House of Representatives, getner of representatives of science, literature in inviting a minister of the ancient faith to and art from all parts of the universe. By the of capital paid in, $421,880,000; amount of spe-and absolute foundation of instinct the vital and that he knew what it meant. in inviting a minister of the abcient faith to offer prayers at the opening of the House on the first of February, on which day the election of a Speaker was effected......BLONDIN is getting his tight rope ready at Niagara Falls for the sum-To E. T .-- A Revery. I have a little song for thee, his tight rope ready at Niagara Falls for the sum- a nature as not to debar, as is frequently the ---- The Boston Post says: "Joseph A. Wood, mer season, and hopes to have the Prince of Wales case, the poorest students of science from mingmer season, and hopes to have the Prince of Wales case, the poorest students of science from ming-among his spectators..........The election for ling in the brilliant throng of the aristocracy of years ago, the same leg broken in South Carolina intellect. Fuller information may be got in ten years ago, and in New Hampshire two years annexed 'beautiful experiment,' a useful hint for It is not aglow with passion's gleam ago, was decending the stairs of a hotel in Worsester on the 10th ult., when he slipped and broke adorning their parlors with a natural curiosity, interim Secretary, or from the Chairman pro it for the fourth time. After this he concluded and a means, perhaps, of relieving the tedium But fond as the radiant soul that beams tem, our celebrated townsman, Prof. Simpson. to have it cut off, and amputation was perform- of some idle hour: "If an acorn be suspended, ed without taking him to a hospital. There is a chance that Mr- Wood will survive his unfortn- by a piece of thread, to within half an inch of vention met at Trenton on the 11th ultimo .- nate limb." If Mr. Wood survives, he will have some water, contained in a hyacinth glass, and a wooden leg, we suppose. so permitted to remain without being disturbed,

---- The Macon Telegraph gives the follow- it will, in a few months, burst, and throw a root convention. Resolutions were adopted as foling account of a very old African-born negro : "Dr. Horatio Bowen of Clinton Jones county, pering stem, with beautiful little green leaves. mentioned to us the death of Sam. a native Afstitution for the protection of slave property; rican negro, at the plantation of his master, Mr. the second says the Constitution must be sus-tained, and a ready observance of the laws en-When captured in Africa, to be brought to this ject."

colors, red, brown, green and blue......A forced to preserve the Union; the third asserts country, he says he was 45 years old. He land-that Federal Legislation on slavery should be din Charleston, and was bought by the Low-limited by the Constitution—all that instrument ther family, lived with them in that city nearly ---- "Palmetto," of the Columbia Carolinian writing from Washington, gives the following should be denied; the fourth says it is the duty few years since. From Charleston Sam was car-of every State to protect itself against invasion ried to Savannah-stayed there forty years, the Bannblicans when put to the test the Republicans, when put to the test! mer are like the sudden breaking of the setting sun-light through clouds behind which the sun had been struggling all the day—beautiful, glad-dening, but not redeeming the dark perhane by fanatics, and to punish offenders in an exem- and moved to this section about the year a tariff by wise discrimination in favor of home African, for he never learned to speak English dock-yards and the District of Columbia. The ys the Government should, well. From the evidence of reliable persons, home products; the eight and the negro's own statement, he is supposed as they wanted the Republicans to show their Alexander for Vice Presimanufactures, and says the Government should, well. From the evidence of reliable persons, EDITORIAL INKLINGS. — The question of reuniting the Northern and Southern wings of the Methodist Episcopal Church is receiving some attention. A reunion Says the Administration of President Buchanan South at the tenthing attention is made in White's Statistics of Georgia, Church is receiving some attention. A reunion Says the Administration of President Buchanan Says the Administration of P allusion is made in White's Statistics of Georgia, as being a very old negro, and having died a few years previous to the publication of that work; but the record of his death was a mistake. ----- The committee of Ways and Means reporvote on this resolution, but in vain, for Speake ---- If the actions of men are always a better Pennington stood up to the rules and they wer ndex to their desires than their words, the fol- obliged to vote. The result was that sixty of the party registered themselves in the affirmative owing may be regarded as

"Pensions, $849,000; Military Academy, The Drunkard's Will .- I leave to society s The appended resolution (with preamble) ruined character, a wretched example and a memthe one referred to above : ory that will soon rot. I leave to my parents, e rest of their lives, as much sorrow as human-

Whereas, the chatteling of mankind and th ity, in a feeble and decrepid state, can sustain. I leave to my brothers and sisters as much mor-natural justice and the fundamental principle tification and injury as I well could bring on of our political system, and are notoriously a rethem. I leave to my wife, a broken heart, a proach to our country throughout the civilized than the estimate of the Secretary of the Treaife of wretchedness and shame, to weep over world, and a serious hindrance to the progress sury. There are, however, specific appropriamy premature death. I give and bequeath to of republican liberty throughout the m h of my children, poverty, ignorance, a low the earth; therefore, character, and a remembrance that their father Resolved, That the Committee on the Judicia to vote for him as President to the last, yet he wishes it to be distinctly understood that they are at liberty, whenever the public good requires it to let him down among the candidates for the sanatum on Monday evening. The Trienerkly and its first visit to our the office of the weekly, paid its first visit to our the office of the weekly, and its first visit to our the office of the sanatum on Monday evening. The Trienerkly was a monster. — The Columbia Carolinian, speaking to the office of the sanatum on Monday evening. The Trienerkly itutional power to legislate on the subject.

speaking of the Gas-light movement in Yorkville. "We have been requested to state that, at a ---- The "K. G. C's," or Knights of the Golmeeting of the Richland Delegates to the Columden Circle, are likely soon to create stirring bia Democratic Convention, it was decided, in P. M., of the 16th of April, be the hour for the

My Beautiful, to-night; As light as thy gentle soul is free And as free as thy form is light. -Our lady friends of taste will find in th

> Nor wild with a lover's vow In light on thy lifted brow.

It is not an estival day as wild As a poet's midsummer lay But an April's genial morn, my child, With a promise of more for May. down into the water, and shoot upward its ta-My little song should bid thee know How often there comes a smile A young oak-tree, growing in this way on a

To gladden my soul when it's lonely and low, mantle-shelf of a room, is a very interesting ob And to soothe and to teach it the while.

And anon I turn to the past where lie-Like leaves in life's volume for sye-My dreams of thy presence ; till almost a sigh Flutters in to whiff them away.

And pure are the dreams as a prayer can be As pure as thy faultless brow ; And they come with a thrill when my spirit is free, And linger as fondly as now-

As now-while I gaze on this shade of thy form, Whatever of dearness it own :

But I find in the memory a vision more warm Than the shadow can bring me alone.

Mid moonlight and starlight, my child, though afar

The pulse of thy being may beat, read in the radiance of every star A message of thee that is sweet.

For thy sister-the Beautiful-lowly or high, Always speaks a fond message of thee-The Beautiful, regent on earth and in sky,

Wherever God's autograph be. The soft April flower, the vine, the tree, Oft the same gentle tidings impart; The path, too, the rill so lonely and free, Speak a language well known to the heart.

These few simple trifles of art that cheer My book mantled walls so lone Have a voice-they are dear-that my spirit can hear No. 10- 210.7 250

For their beauty's akin to thine own. surveys " indesterings he shows add

Since the days of Alexander Smith's Life Drama we have seen nothing in poetry that more nearly fills the idea of the slang term 'steep' then the following stanza. It is quite recent, and by a young lady at that-western, of course, however, Read :--

"The hanghty thunder often swears The order was instituted in Mississippi dur

FIRE. the public.

ton Convention. The first chapters of his enterin Yorkville, until the convening of the Charles-

MILITARY MEETING.

We have been requested to notify the Commitamassed a large fortune. His brain has been sion of the two bodies. Congress, therefore, tee heretofore appointed to select a parade ground kept on a stretch; he has half clad his aching for the 84th Regiment, to meet at 'Yearwood's and toil-worn body; he has stinted himself ; he Branch,' on the King's Mountain Road, at 1 has been up early and late-all to heap together cotton broker-on Sundays he was a as matters of very great importance will be some college, Orphan House or like institution. prescher. There had been a week of unu- brought before the committee, a full attendance In ninety nine of a hundred such cases, the real

67

25

4

818

JNO. R. JORDAN.

he announced as follows: We will sing ago with J. NEWTON FLOYD for stealing flour, to the praise of the Lord the 427th hymn- and lodged in the jail at this place, has, we ficient President, has tendered his resigne. on was hel South Battalion of the 34th Regiment, for Mation to the Board of Trustees. ..... A letter from Waco, Texas, about jor, which resulted in the choice of Capt. E. B.

penurious and sinful past. In the latter case, when a man lives to make with the purpose of intentional benefactor-a living miser, a dead ous temptation, too; for he may excuse himself for wronging his neighbor by thinking that it ern wing will be apt to oppose a measure which would be injurious both to the church and the Here is a man who has lived, and toiled, and South in the end.

will of the donor, perhaps, is in some respects ness, and devote the last five or ten years of life to the execution of his own will. The active personal engagement in the scheme of benevolence would quicken all the unselfish feelings body active ; and a new train of joys and desires would spring up around old age.

the middle of February, states that two CLINTON, by a Majority of 101 votes. The fol-Baptist preachers who went to Rainev's lowing is the state of the polls : Creek to hold a protracted meeting, came Burris' Company, E. B. CLINTON. G. R. BURBIN upon a large drove of horses the Indians Carroll's had stolen. The Indians gave immediate Wylie's 66 chase and shot six arrows into one of the Neelands' Clinton's 104 preachers and one into the other. They are Jenkins' 164 both shot in the body, the arrows penetra-419 ting the lungs. Their names are White Total, and Griffith.

..... A correspondent writes from Paris : Experiments have lately been made at the money therefor secured, and the day for awardpolygone of Vincennes with the explosive ing the premiums to the successful competitors ball of Devisme. The experiments were passed. The Proprietor takes great pleasure in made under the direction of Commandant announcing the result gratifying, as it is, to Nesler, director of the School of Vincennes, himself and to the constant, true-hearted friends and in the presence of all the officers of the who have so generously entered the lists in his

Arsenal. The same ball as that used by behalf. The premiums, although equal to our Jules Gerard, the lion killer, was used on ability, are but meagre in comparison with the this occasion. The target was a cassion, energetic and untiring efforts of those who have lined with an iron plate on the inside. and competed for them; and we would deal falsely, placed at a distance of 130 feet, English. did we not ascribe these kind exertions to the of prodigality.

Twelve balls were fired, and every one of higher motive-a desire to promote our own and them exploded inside the cassion. After this, the prosperity of the ENQUIRER; and we shall experiments were made with the improved be doubly false, if we ever fail to hold the friends each other, and keep us in the 'golden mean' clean out of the bag-that we believe Mean rifle of the Foot Chasseurs, with the new who have so signally aided us in grateful and ball of Commander Nesler. At the enor- lasting remembrance. It will be seen from the appended list that the mous distance of a half mile, sixteen balls, fired successively, struck a target only a club subscriptions amount to the unprecedented yard square; one half the balls touched the number of one thousand and fourteen names !-

centre mark. This seems to be the last This is a success beyond our very highest anticilimit in the perfection of infantry fire arms. pations, and nerves us to do and to hazard everything to deserve fully such a hearty and over-The town of Napoleon, in Arkansas, flowing patronage. For the next year-but we pleasure of seeing his charities springing up all For a distance of several miles in its rear, a programme of attractions, which will prove our of his charity. Surely there is nothing more a narrow strip of land, about four hundred determination to return four-fold the kind parvards in width, separates the two rivers, tiality of our public ! and connects the town with the main shore. The first premium is awarded to Capt. D. D.

train of powder has been placed across this the third, to S. G. BROWN, Esq.; the fourth, to en. neck or slip of land, and that on Monday Maj. MyLES SMITH ; and the minor premiums night last a match was applied, causing a have been distributed according to the following terrific explosion, which tore up the earth 'state of the polls,' which we publish with the SIMPSON, Esq., of Laurens, has consented to bers of Congress. On last Thursday the Presito such an extent as to permit the water remark that many of the persons named did not become a candidate for the State Senate....... dent sent a message to the House, protesting afrom Arkansas to pass entirely across and enter into competition for the prizes :-

empty into the Mississippi. The result Capt. D. D. Moore, ... has already been the introduction of a Col. W. B. Allison,. strong current through the pass thus form-Msj. M. Smith,..... ed, which is rapidly widening and deepen-ing, and threatening to isolate the town J. L. Thompson,..... Rev. W. W. Carothers,..... entirely from the main land, and at no very Capt. J. J. Wylie,..... distant day sweep it entirely away. What W. D. Cook ... evil-disposed person perpetrated the act, is W. C. Winn, ..... unknown, but suspicion is said to attach to J. R. S. Meek, a planter residing in the vicinty, whose Dr. E. H. Edwards, property would be greatly benefited by the Capt. Sam'l Anderson, ... M. Smarr. change. - Memphis paper. ..... According to Cicero, the debts of Henry Pratt, A. Milo amounted to above $28,000,000; T. D. Fulton,. Julius Cæsar, when setting out for Spain, T. M. Baxter,. is reported to have said himself that he was B. P. Barron,. $10,000,000 worse than nothing. When D. N. Mitchel, he first entered Rome, after crossing the D. J. Hill, ...... W. B. Barron,... Rubicon, he took from the public treasury $5,500,000, but at the end of the civil war put over $24,000,000 in it. He purchased the friendship of Curio with a bribe of over $2,500,000, and of the Consul L. Paulus ca was worth over $20,000,000. Lentulus, the augur, over $16,000,000. Agustus attempt made by the friends of DougLAS and July, as Professor of English Litera.ure in the Carstang divorce case, under the assumed seated in our parlors at home. raised by the testaments of his friends nearly HUNTER to coalesce upon one or the other for Wofford College ......Our treaty with Paraguay, name of W. Alston. He accounts for his new $161,000,000. Tiberius left at his death the Presidency. The attempt did not result in which is now officially made public by the proc- name in this wise : nearly $109,000,000, which Caligula spent any definite arrangement.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

ONE THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS! to erect splendid buildings, &c., and thus do less vegetation in its course." Our clubs for 1860 have all been sent in, th for real use than for show and ornament. En------ Reports have recently reached our State dowed colleges tend to pervert the law of "dili- that Hon. L. M. KEITT had been killed in a duel gence making rich ;" and are liable to have a- with a Tennesseean. This rumor has been conbout them a set of lazy professors who feed upon tradicted. The following paragraph from the of a recent Polynesian massacre. The schooner lege be in prosperity or adversity. The law of life is such that the money distilled from the brain and musle of one, purchases indolence and rial Canone in the Capital Science frequencies of the control science in the Capital Science frequencies of the control ria! Caucus, in the Capitol. Seeing frequent tain, were killed and eaten by the natives. An luxury for another; so that excess of thrift and dark allusions to it in the newspapers, many of attempt was also made to capture the Clarence money-making propensity is as bad as excess them implicating parties as the belligerents, who Packet. A similar attempt was made upon the were not the men, and hearing all sorts of im- cutter Oberon. Two of her crew were murdered probable verbal stories concerning the affair, we while on shore, and then word sent to the Capmay as well say now as at some future time-for tain, as if from them desiring to see him. The True wisdom teaches us to be diligent and charitable both; and the two act as checks to such a cat must, of course, sooner or later, get Clay and Clingman to have been the parties in collision ; and that, until separated, the latter tainly it is heaven upon earth." says a wise man, was very roughly handled. So says Madam Ru-"to have a man's mind move in charity, rest in mor, in circles in which she not unfrequently tells Providence and turn upon the poles of truth :" the truth. Ten to one, 'squatter sovereignty,' in disguise, was at the bottom of the muss. either of which three things is a great virtue in An exchange explains the rumor quite differunity with the others, but taken alone would ently. It says : "A gentleman of our acquain run into vicious extremes. A man should court tance explained the mystery of the report, quite the luxury of doing good while he lives; the satisfactorily; it seems that the rumor first origissituated on a sort of peninsula at the junc-tion of the Mississippi and Arkansas rivers. for 1861 we are preparing a list of premiums and the ground him; the privilege, which is his right, of deciding for himself who shall be the objects the difficulty between Messrs. KEITT and GROW the difficulty between Messrs. KEITT and GROW ernment to disapprove of the act. Still, even some two years past, and dreamt that the former divine on earth than for a man to see with his was killed in the rencounter."

own eyes and feel in his own consciousness while he lives, that the tendency of all his ac-It seems that within a few weeks past a MOORE; the second, to Col. W. B. ALLISON ; tions is to conform earth to the likeness of heav-

MERE-MENTION.

ANAN has not used 'money, patronage and other this journal to presage a war and the absorption We learn through the Herald, that W. D. improper means' to corrupt and influence mem-The Bank of Chester has declared a dividend, gainst this proceedure. We give the concluding payable on and after the 2d April, of $1.25 per paragraph of the message: .114 share, being the value of 10 per cent. per an-

um. ......... The Boston Journal says : The first in the name of the people of the several States protection of the weak against the strong. contribution for the new monument at Lexing-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in Fights of the coordinate Ex-ton has been made by Senator HAMMOND of South in in violation of the rights of the co-ordinate Ex-GO Carolina, who has sent his check for fifty dollars ecutive branch of the Government, and subver- a balloon voyage across the Atlantic in May, Toronto Globe, says : The best thing the Yan- they are calculated to foster a band of interested Toronto Globe, says: The best thing the Yan-kees can do for the world at large, if not for the advantage, to swear before ez parte committees United States, is to annex Mexico as speedily as possible..........Gov. Houston, of Texas, is beck in the car, I bade good afternoon to those to pretended private conversations between the president and themselves, incapable, from their the troop and shot him; the rest instantly ran off to their dens. Mosely was afterwards asked the rest to Providence. Let them see to it, that nature. of being disproved; thus furnishing ma. and cutting loose the last cord that bound me to why he did not fire among them sooner? He the youth is provided, by free exercise of his preparing for an immediate and extensive cam-preparing for an immediate and extensive cam-terial for harassing him, degrading him in the earth, I, for the fortieth time, made my way far replied that he was perfectly safe in the tree, bodily powers, with a full stock of physical pire that the whole transaction between the parpaign against the Indiaus, and also threatens an eyes of the country, and eventually, should he above the clouds. At the expiration of ten min- but felt a sort of pride in waiting till day-light invasion of Mexico, in case the McLane treaty be a weak or a timid man, rendering him subser- utes, I had attained an altitude of 5600 feet. that he might pick off the leader and the largest invasion of Mexico, in case the McLane treaty be a weak or a timid man, rendering nim subser, in order to avoid is not ratified by the Senate.........Both Houses because the view that presented annovances : because they itself was much the same as on my former trip, itself was much the same as on my former trip. is not ratified by the Senate......Both Houses such persecutions and annoyances; because they itself was much the same as on my former trip, The venerable tree connected with this story of Congress have passed a bill authorizing the tend to destroy that harmonious action for the save that the approach of spring had rendered is still a living witness of the occurrence, and publishers to print on their papers the date of common good, which ought to be maintained, the foliage more green and beautiful.

----- Some days since Mr. Covope, a member of the House from Pennsylvania, offered a reso-mittee to investigate whether President BUCH-the expirations of subscriptions......A letter and which I sincerely desire to cherish, between from Vera Cruz states that MIRAMON, on his way down from the capital, imposed a forced loan of lick procedure, of the covernment of the would estabdown from the capital, imposed a forced loan of lish a precedent dangerous and embarrassing to that direction, I could but wish I were on board distance from the house of Garland Meng, Esq. sown from the capital, imposed a forced total of this a precience and provide and the server political party my large balloon, the City of New York. How they might be attached." they might be attached." of $70,000 on those of Jalapa, and what is more, that W. W. WALKER jr., proprietor of the Cou- ern shore. But I consoled myself by thinking without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we without success, to secure a recess of Congress Spartanburg Express says: The friends of Dr. that we will be that the day is not far distant when I shall have the pleasure of demonstrating the feasibility of

A Democratic caucus has been held; and an resume the duties of the position he vacated last up in St. Louis as a witness for the plaintiff in without danger, and as comfortable as if we were natural philosopher. He recognizes in her art nearly $109,000,000, which Caligula spent in less than one year; and Vespasian, at his succession, said that he required for the memory of the State orage flexible writer asserts with emphatic in less than one year; and Vespasian, at his succession, said that he required for the memory flexible writer asserts with emphatic the Presidenty. The attempt du not result in which is now omcially made public by the pro-lamation of the President, concedes to us the that Athenacum affair, and a report has been spread that I had acted dishonestly; and as I came out West; I did not want that report to the first day of April. This droll anniversary immediance dishonestly in the first day of April. This droll anniversary immediance dishonestly in the first day of April. This droll anniversary Very truly yours, he slept in Basle overnight, and ate breakfast A. B. SPRINGS. there in the morning. Subsequently, at the support of the State, over $1,614,000,000. Nevertheless, though greatly enriched by the admission of Kanzas as a State into the dominions of the republic th For the Yorkville Enquirer. town of Constance, he slept again-this time in Messrs. Editors : You will please withdraw my a bed which he assures us had 'linen sheets.'-

Fool's Day, or the 1st of April, says :

The Washington correspondent of the ing the year 1854. Its original object was the men of that State, and for a long time the num Spanish vessels near Vera Cruz, savs: ber of its members was quite limited. Within special instructions to our officers. The Gov- ity law, but that they are simply assisting a le

-An exchange paper gives the appended sibility, and acknowledge that it is an act of account of a cannibalistic massacre and feast in intervention." one of the islands of Polynesia : ----- We have promised to give our readers an Late advices from Australia bring the account

LOGAN'S History of Upper Carolina. (Price

John Duncan :--- When John Duncan built his disorders along the frontier, and then march di-"Let dogs delight," &c. house in a cane-brake, on the creek, which bears rect to the Mexican capital. The other will go his name, he opened a path, some fifteen paces to the relief of Vera Cruz. This is the present Harper's Weekly is very savage upon it, and long, through the cane to the stream, for the programme, but it is not finally determined up. yet profits in its advertising columns thereby. convenience of getting water. In after years he on, and may be altered by the turn of affairs at Next above such things is the present rage for related to his children, that there was scarcely Vera Cruz. Any attempt on the part of Spain a minute in the day that he could not see some or any other European power to interfere in the wild animal moving stealthily up or down the straggle between the factions will precipitate batten. See, for example, the pending breach-the outrage committed by American naval of- for a moment into a great fright, by springing of Texas alone no less than four hundred and suddenly over his leg into the cabin. Recover-ing himself, he seized his gun, and before the tributed, and a division of twenty-five hundred room, &c. The evidence is given in circumstanbold intruder could effect his escape, shot him men have been armed and equipped besides.

bears' oil. "All the indian Americans, says ages of twenty ive and thirty, and there is in And those, generally, who dote and gloat on bears' oil or grease very valuable, and use it af- charge of a number of gentlemen of experience ter the same manner as the Asiatics did their and means. What astonishes me most in the recitals of crime-the specifications of vice-the fine essences and sweet perfumes. The young movement, is the perfect confidence evinced by spicy details of scandal-the shivery horrors of should full reparation be tendered, the Diario fears that the youthful impetuosity of Miramon is always shining with it; which is probably the should full reparation be tendered, the Diario is always shining with it; which is probably the is always shining with it; which is probably the cessful. They declare it will only be a running will not rest satisfied, particularly should he reason that none of their heads are bald." fight, and that the campaign will not last six succeed in taking Vera Cruz. The present purby the United States of Lower California, Sonora, Chihuahua, Coahulia, Nueva Leon and Tamaulipas, to pay for the expenses of that war. In consequence, the Diario casts a longing eye themselves, hasten to settle the Western question, to the branches of a post oak tree, as the pack now experimenting in Charleston preparatory to watched them as they circled, incessantly yelping and barking around him.

They bayed him in this manner all night. At At a little past 5 o'clock, the Pioneer being to grow larger ; and as soon as he could see fully inflated, and having my instruments, ballast, through his sights he singled out the leader of and effectually to cultivate himself. known to all the surrounding country as Mosely's

____ A writer on Woman, in the Christian Ex-ter, and when day broke next morning, many aminer, has the following which we think sugges- of your journal, my nomination as a Candidate ---- We learn from the Charleston Mercury, hundred miles would separate me from the west- tive and worthy of consideration. We do not for a seat in the House of Representatives. I endorse his views ; we do not oppose them ; we gratefully acknowledge and appreciate the compliment paid me by "Clay Hill;" and especially, the very kind and flattering terms of its expres

Whilst I tender to the citizens thereof, my sin of pleasing a means of realizing what is not at-tainable through her limited executive power; in her perspicacity he beholds a compensation and esteem, I beg leave most respectfully to defor the want of that philosophic method of reach- cline the nomination. ing truth that distinguishes the masculine intel-

His passion in the car of Jane; And ocean's giant bosom wears The picture of the moon !" That beats Alexander Smith's distich-

"And Wind, the grand old harper, smote His thunder-harp of pines." Or this- 5 willor

"-She covered me With her wild sorrow, as an April cloud With dim dishevelled tresses hides the hill On which its heart is breaking." The Prize-Fight.

Just now there is quite an interest in the pending fisti-cuffs. Heenan and Sayers are Beroes. The pictorial newspapers are nervous to be first ernment to subdue a band of factious outlaws. to illustrate the details. If there is ever a time when we see such a taste rife among us. It is mania for such things coming upon the confines scandal, upon which the pictorials constantly

Harper's Weekly illustrates the affair-giving room, &c. The evidence is given in circumstantial detail-details, personal, questionable, and the seventh commandment-and, in fine, guilty horrors of all sorts-horrors such that of the House from Pennsylvania, offered a reso-suit of Cortinas on Mexican territory-which individual also has the Diario's sympathy-in der. The wolves got a scent of the game, and were soon howling on the trail of the hunter. val of a large squad from Maryland and Virginia. He heard them, and knew that an effort must be It is said that they have a number of recruits do not want anything of the kind, would better let towards the East, and earnestly hopes that the made to save both himself and his deer. Turn- from Harper's Ferry, each man of whom is able European nations will soon be less busy among ing a little from the path he hastily sunk the to make his own musket. I shall keep you adcarcass in a creek, and running some distance vised of any further steps taken by the order."

"I do, therefore, for the reasons stated, and and thereby enforce international law for the further, just had time to climb with his rifle in ----- SMILES, in his recent book, "Self Help," came up in full cry. It was now too dark for him to use his rife with effect, and he silently of mature reflection. In one place he says:

> ur own diligent self-education when we become see their children's talents forced into bloom .-- sand dollars. For the Yorkville Enquirer. The Flowers. SPRINGFIELD, York Dist., S. C., ) of ours-vernal Columbia-in the hope that a these things. Books.

April 2, 1860.

not read Mr. Prime's book, but we infer its merits from a notice of it in the Saturday Press, a part of which notice runs in this wise, - 'Moreover health; set him fairly on the road of self-

I first took a northerly course, but soon reach- Oak; no sacrilegious hand would dare approach the pleasure of demonstrating the feasibility of simply quote :

---- The Charleston Courier, speaking of All

Editors : I observe in the last numbe argument should then assume the whole responoccasional extract from the 1st volume of Dr.

gitimate and formally recognized friendly gov-

This done they mean to assimilate the Mexican when we are ashamed of being Americans, it is republic as nearly to our own as the different habits of the two races will permit. They disclaim the character of fillibusters, and declare the tone below the lower ledger-line of the vilest that they will march down to the levee and em- vulgarity. Disgust, contempt, pity, are all feeble terms to express the feeling when we see the their force will be separated in two divisions.— mania for such things coming upon One will cross the Rio Grande to suppress the of respectability through the press.

creek across that path. Sitting, one evening at dusk, in his door, with his foot against the frame, a bear slily approached the house, and threw him at to the number of its members. In the State

Spanish Government would give vent to its sym-pathies with Miramon, whose rule in Mexico is recognized by Spain, as well as by England and France. The Diario scarcely doubts but that both the representation of the foreign diplomatic both the representation of the foreign diplomatic

"Lewis never wrote or borrowed Any horror half so horrid ."addition to the above mentioned outrage, causes later day as an intrepid whig scout, was late one ing the expedition. Yet the K. G. C.'s expect all those, we say, who have a taste for these evening returning from a hunt in which he had to hurl a sufficient force upon Miramon's army taken a small deer, that he carried on his shoul-to overwhelm him at once. A great deal of engratify the taste, can best do so by subscribing for the Police Gazette, at once. Those who, however, alone the Police Gazette and those pictorial weeklies that get up such nice illustrated masses of minced scandal.

But this Carstang-Shaw case in its legal aspect, is an important one, we believe. The present is The highest culture is not obtained from teach- a new trial, after a verdict of a bundred thouers when at school or college, so much as by sand dollars for the plaintiff last spring. Then, it appeared that the promise was distinctly made and as distinctly broken, and that the defendant Let them watch and wait patiently, letting good was wealthy and should be made an example.

however, in the new trial, it is about to transties was entirely in the way of business; and carefully train his habits of application and per-severance; and as he grows older, if the right certainly not to the amount of a hundred thou-

We hold our breath amidst this floral heaven prettier pen than ours will tell you, readers, of

We see on our Columbia book counters a new book of travels. It is 'Letters from Switzerland' by the Rev. Mr. Prime-the Reverend Samuel Irenaeus Prime, who has written other books of travel, and has his circle of admirers. We have