NORTH CAROLINA NEWS.

- A heavy and kiling frost-the first of the season-fell in the vicinity of Weldon on the morning of the 14th instant.

- Mr. G. W. Chalk, editor of the Gastonia Gazette, announces himself as an independent candidate for Congress in the Charlotte district. -Two distilleries were burned in Surry

Two distilleries were burned in Surry county last week, by incendiary fires, as is supposed. One contained 1,500 gallons of whisky, and the other 2,000 gallons, all of which was destroyed.

There are now in the North Carolina penitentiary 284 convicts. Of these 240 are colored and 44 white. There are 246 males and 38 females. Of the females only one is an and 58 females. A large line of Table Cloths. And and colors, Doylies to female colors, Doylies to femal white. She is a murderess, and is in for life. - The Reidsville News thus records the death of an aged lady: Aunt Polly Wray departed this life on the 16th of last month, in Wentworth, at the good old age of 110. She remembered well hearing the guns at the battle of Guilford Court House, and at the time of her death she had in her possession a cannon ball that was used in that battle. Auut Polly has over 175 children, grandchildren and great-grand children, and what is a little remarkable, she was never twentyfive miles from where she was born and raised.

- The Gastonia Gazette of the 16th has the following under the head of "A happy reunion:" On the 4th instant, at the residence of Dr. John McLean, in this county, Maj. Augustus McLean, of Lincolnton, Dr. Wm Mc-Lean of Lincoln county, and Robert McLean, of this county, met and celebrated the 87th birthday of the two first named (who are twins). It was a happy meeting; and they are the sons of Dr. William McLean, who was a surgeon in the battle of King's Mountain, and the same individual who erected the old monument on the battle ground in 1814. POLITICAL NOTES.

- The Prohibition party of Massachusetts has decided to put forward full electoral and Congressional tickets in that State.

- The constitutional amendment of Maine, for electing Governor by a plurality, was carried by 21,331 majority.

- The official returns of Maine are at last in, giving Plaisted, the Fusion candidate, a plurality of 176.

- The Governors of nine of the Southern States, in answer to letters addressed them by the editor of the New York World, express themselves as in accord with General Hancock on the question of Southern war claims.

- Sold out by the Greenbackers, is the cry of the Democrats in regard to the Indiana election. Let the white people of South Carolina take warning in time to prevent such a result in their own State. Every Democrat who votes with the Greenbackers not only literally throws his vote away, but also strengthens and encourages the Republi

- Official returns from the Georgia election give Colquitt a majority of 60,000. His appointment of Ex-Gov. Brown to fill the unexpired term of Senator Gordon, who resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate, was the principal cause of the independent opposition organized against him, and yet it is claimed that two-thirds of the Legislature just elected are in favor of returning Brown as his own

- Under date of the 14th instant, on the result in Indiana, Mr. English, candidate for Vice-President, telegraphs to the Chairman of the Democratic National Committee: "In this contest we have encountered the resources of the whole Republican party of the United States and have suffered a temporary defeat. In November we shall encounter only the Republican party of Indiana, without the machinery of United States Deputy Marshals, and confidently expect to carry the

- Complete returns from the recent Conlicans carry but seventy-nine out of one hundred and sixty seven towns in that State, a Republican loss of twenty four towns, as compared with the elections of 1877, when the Republicans carried one hundred and three towns. In the strong Democratic centres of New Haven and Bridgeport, no election was held. While local issues, in a large measure, influenced the vote, the result is regarded as encouraging to the Democrats, and no doubts are entertained but that Connecticut will cast its electoral vote for Hancock.
