Corespondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. LETTER FROM LANCASTER.

LANCASTER, April 14.-It is painful to state that we had two homicides in Lancaster county the past week. On Thursday night, at a church of the colored people, about five miles from town, Calvin Clyburn, colored, shot and killed Andrew McIlwain, also colored, on account of a dispute which arose between them in regard to the daughter of the deceased. The slaver gave himself up and is now in jail. On Saturday at noon, about four miles north of town, Abram Ferguson shot and killed a colored man, whose name, after inquiry, I could not learn. The negro was a laborer for Ferguson; and the trouble originated about work on the place. Ferguson has given himself up to the sheriff. There is a crying necessity for legislation on the subject of homicide. There should be more degrees of punishment for homicide and carrying the concealed pistol. It is reduced to almost a certainty that juries will not convict either of the charge of homicide or murder, no matter what the evidence. Then let lower grades of punishment be enacted by the legislature, so that in justice some punishment may be measured out to the slayer of his fellow man. This is not intended as a criticism of the conduct of the slayers in the two cases mentioned, for I do not know the facts of these cases. I am now only remonstrating against the frequency of such cases, and the general result of such trials in the courts. The people of Lancaster ought to be a religious people, if much preaching will bring about this result. In a former letter I made allusion to the protracted meeting conducted by Rev. Mr. Cook, and now for a round week we have had one in the Methodist church conducted by the Rev. Jno. C. Kilgo, who is the soliciting agent of the United States. Mr. Wannamaker paid for contributions to Wofford college. Mr. $120,000 in cash for the picture. In Dress Goods and Silks I am prepared to show a line that would do credit to any Dry Goods establishment in the South. I not only have one piece of Silk, but I have a "genuine selection in all the fashionable shades and colors" with trimmings to match," a few of which I mention below.

EXTRA FAILLE FRANCAISE SILKS. BLACK GROS GRAIN SILKS. "ROYAL" BLACK SILKS, Armure weave

THREE C'S.

DRESS-MAKING.

MISS SHIRES has charge of the Dress-Making department, and as to her ability as an artiste it is entirely unnecessary for me to say one word, as she was here last season and established a reputation which is far-reaching, and to-day ladies in almost every Southern State are wearing dresses of her make. Besides her natural artistic ability, she has just returned from New York where she had several weeks in studying styles and fashions. Miss Shires has organized a thoroughly competent corps of ssistants and is prepared to execute work in the highest stages of the art.

MILLINERY.

As for the Millinery business, I am head and shoulders over any competitor in the county. With the styles up to the hour and the prices at the bottom, "comparisons are odious." Miss Anthony is able to trim hats in any possible way or style at the very lowest possible prices. With thousands of yards of elegant ribons of all shades, colors and styles, I am prepared to furnish Easter Hats at the lowest possible prices at the shortest possible notice consistent with good work and artistic finish.

GENT'S CLOTHING.

Every man in York county who likes goo fitting, well-made Clothing, knows that W. C. LATIMER'S is the place to get it, and this year, as in all previous years, he has surpassed all former efforts in making his selections. His a hard lick.

Our stock of Tinware and small Hardware is tremendously low priced; bought at auction prices, and we are willing to divide with our friends. Our profit is 25 per cent. sharp, and shoulders and "corset fitting" styles by the very best and most experienced tailors in the United States, he is able to furnish Clothing at prices which defy competition.

STRAW HATS.

As was demonstrated at my recent Grand Opening, I have the nicest and best propor tioned line of Straw Hats ever put on this market. They are symmetrically made of elegant materials, which render them becoming to almost every face and stature. Call and examine them and let me astonish you. Very Respectfully, W. C. LATIMER.

OUR ANNIVERSARY.

Dress Goods in all Shades and Colors At any and all Prices.

T has been nearly a year since we opened

'our little racket" in Yorkville. It was the dull eason. No money, so people said. No business-streets deserted and business men everywhere laughed at the idea of trying to do a cash business; and candidly it did take a great mountain of faith in our values, in our business, to hope for and expect success to follow from the hour of opening. But it did, and all our most sanguine hopes of one year ago have been fully realized. It looks like prophecy when we go back to read some of our talks to consumers then. One says: "Consumers bear the burden of all this exacting system of credit. Already they have worn this galling yoke until their financial life is worn thread bare.' "We expect to make the Racket store the stepping stone to a revolution in the mercantile interests of the country, and hope to live to see the day when every town and village in chandise based on dollars: where one can buy dollar's worth of goods for a dollar." In another we find this: "Revolutions come after long suffering. The great public move slowly, and will suffer long and fearfully before they will arise en-masse and resent the oppressive wrongs; but the hour is coming, and is not far distant, when the masses will free themselves from this bondage of Ledger servitude, and when they do, woe be to him who stands in the

MARIBILIA

Is the name of probably the best 5-cents Cigar sold here. The identical Cigar in little larger size has been sold throughout the country for many years at ten cents, but the demand for 10-centers growing smaller, the makers of this brand-by-the-way one of the largest factories in the United States-reduced the size and the price to 5 cents. There is a vast difference in Cigars sold at the same price. We took hold of this brand week before last and have just received a second lot. Try it. We have a fine assortment of Tobacco in every shape. Popular brands as low as the lowest. Fine-cut Chewing and Graveley's celebrated Tobacco. Smoking Tobacco of all sorts. Snuff of all sorts and at wholesale prices to mer-
