YORKVILLE ENQUIRER. TIL

Conservatives on the ticket agreed upon was made up without consideration of the wishes of the meeting referred to.

When the polls were opened on Saturday, there was only one ticket in the field ; but later, there appeared another on which the names of W. J. Cherry, S. A. Fewell, Frel Mobley, A. A. Baron and R. H. Cornwell were substituted for W. J. Roddey, Iredell Jones, W. B. Wilson, R. T. Fewell and A. E. Smith, The regular ticket was elected by a vote of 106 to 81.

At Blacksburg, some of the Conservatives were displeased with the Conservative ticket voted for and elected by the Reformers, and sprung a new ticket of their own containing the names of the following Conservatives: J.T. Darwin, B. J. Gold, D. S. Ramseur, R. P. Roberts, J. G. Black, R. M. Roark, N. W. Hardin and John F. Jones. This ticket was voted for along with the regularly nominated Reformers, but received only 26 votes.

The club meeting at Yorkville at which the ticket was nominated, was slimly attended and there was no friction.

LOCAL LACONICS. Until January 1896.

THE TWICE-A-WEEK ENQUIRER will be furnished from this date until January 1, 1896, for $1.00.

Fountain on the Corner. The town council of Yorkville has decided upon the location of a fountain in the centre of the crossing of Congress and Liberty streets.

More Cotton Blooms.

THE ENQUIRER is in receipt of several more cotton blooms, evidently forwarded before the senders saw the announcement of the first bloom in Wednesday's issue.

Attempted Poisoning.

Berry W. Sanders, colored, of Bullock's Creek township, was committed to jail by Trial Justice Blair, on Wednesday, charged with an attempt to poison his wife.

Picnic at Lockhart Shoals.

THE ENQUIRER is requested to announce that there will be a big picnic at Lockhart Shoals on July 4. Large crowds are expected to be present from York, Chester and Union counties.

Delinquent Tax Sales.

The only official auction sales advertised for next Monday are those of the sheriff who offers to sell lands of delinquent tax payers. It is often the case that good bargains are picked up at sales of this kind.

Offices Look Better.

The painters have been at work in the offices of Probate Judge McCorkle and Sheriff Crawford. The walls and ceilings, which ever since the fire have been soiled and dingy, now look bright and cheerful and Sheriff Crawford and Judge McCorkle both take a great deal of pride in the improvement.

rates will be announced later. It is expected that there will be from 85 to 100 delegates in attendance. The members of the Methodist church here and the people of Yorkville generally will see to it that the delegates are hospitably entertained.

Bethesda Commissioners.

A meeting of the Atlanta Exposition commissioners for Bethesda township was held at the residence of Dr. Wm. Love, at McConnellsville, a few days ago, and lady commissioners were appointed as follows : Mrs. Scott Wilson, Mrs. John Bratton, Miss Irene Starr, Miss Lizzie Brown These ladies will assist Dr. Wm. Love and Messrs, J. Lon Moore and D. L. Black in getting up a proper exhibit for Bethesda. -

Full of Colored People.

The outlook is that Yorkville will be full of colored people next Thursday, July 4th. There are to be excursion trains to this place from Lenoir and all points along the line of the C. and L., and from Lancaster and all points along the C. and C. railroad. The programme of entertainment calls for bicycle races, match game of baseball between Yorkville and Chester, dress parade by Charlotte Light infantry, Arlington reel races and water display, address by Rev. J. C. Tobias, D. D.

Won't be General.

The stores won't be closed in Yorkville on the Fourth of July. The agreement spoken of in Wednesday's paper was not generally signed. Several of the dry goods men, about all of the grocerymen, the drug stores, and probably others, expect to do business as usual, and country people and others who desire to take a day off in Yorkville and do shopping, will find proper accommodations. The closing of the stores will be confined only to the business men who see proper to celebrate the holiday. Each proprietor will use his own discretion.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

Swung Him Up. Bill Stokes, colored, was lynched in Colleton county last Monday night for assault on a white woman. The Negro was hanged to a tree and riddled with bullets. The Sullivan Trial.

The second trial of J. Mims Sullivan, the slayer of Herman G. Gilreath, was commenced in Anderson last Tuesday and will not be concluded until today. It will be remembered that Sullivan has once been convicted and sentenced to be hanged ; but by virtue of his money and the social position of his relatives, he has been enabled to get a new trial. The case is one of very great interest throughout the State. Judge S. W. Melton is conducting the defense while the State is being represented by Solicitor Ansel, assisted by Jas. L. Orr. Judge Aldrich is presiding. Work of Flends.

If you do, HENRY STRAUSS has bargains ; yes, BIG BAR-GAINS for you if you will go and see him before July 1st.

Low Price of Only

$1.50 PER DOZ. THIS is perhaps the lowest price that Fine Cabinet Photographs have ever been offered in this city. It is perhaps lower than you have ever been offered tintypes. At this price there is no profit in it for me; just simply an advertisement. If you want photographs at this low price you must come before JULY 5TH.

Come yourself, bring your wife and all the children. You will never regret it. The low price for this work will in no wise affect the quality. It will be EQUAL to any photograph work in America. Satisfaction is GUARANTEED. Try me. P. R. RICHARDS.

ARE YOU A THINKING MAN?

O'R do you let somebody else do your studying. If you are a thinker we want you to consider a few points which we will submit. Here they are: Can you afford to go on from day to day, week to week and year to year without throwing around your wife, children or those dependent upon you, that iron clad protection which is absolutely guaran-teed to them by a policy in a first-class protection which is absolutely guaran-teed to them by a policy in a first-class life insurance company? If you decide that you cannot ignore life insurance, are you using the same business sense that characterizes your daily business transac-tions if you place your insurance with a company that charges you twice as much for your protection as it is worth, or as another company equally as reliable will furnish it for? The MUTUAL RESERVE FUND LIFE ASSOCIATION, of New York, Furnish it for? The MUTUAL RESERVE Fund LIFE Association, of New York, has been in business about 15 years and during that time has paid more than $22,000,000 to the beneficiaries of de-ceased policy holders. It has in force today as much insurance as the THREE EMONUTEST and has comparing bed when STONGEST old line companies had when they had reached the same age, and something like $50,000,000 to spare.

It has more assets, as compared to liabilities than any company in the world.

the world. It has paid every honest death claim that has been presented, in full, and has never taken advantage of a technicality, as other companies often do. Now for a practical illustration: Say you are 43 years of age : A $5,000 life policy (pay as long as you live) in the ______ Insurance Company, of New York, will cost you $180.50 annually or $3,610 in twenty years, if you live that long, in cold cash, not counting interest. The same size policy in the MUTUAL RESERVE, will cost you $86.10 annually, or $1,722 in twenty years. We will be pleased to explain our system to you and also to convince you that any derogatory statement made by any agent of any old line company doing business in this section about the Mutual Reserve, is absolutely false and is inspired business in this section about the Mutual Reserve, is absolutely false and is inspired by his desire to sell you something you will never derive any benefit from. It will certainly do you no harm to learn all you can about our company and its plan before placing your insurance. SAM M. & L. GEO. GRIST, General Agents.

The following conversation took place between a man and his wife re-cently: Husband—Where did you get the Flour to make these rolls? Wife—Why, at J. H. RIDDLE'S. Don't you know he keeps the best Flour in town? Husband-I didn't know it before; but I know it now. Wife-You had better get one of those nice Hams I saw in his store yester-day; they had just arrived and looked so nice. Get some of those Canned Peaches like we had for dinner yesterday; you like we had for dinner yesterday; you know how nice they were. Husband-I'll go and tell Mr. Carroll or Mr. Brown to send some Rice and Hominy and one of those Hams. Anything else? Wife-I expect you had-better get some Sugar. It has gone up in price; but Mr. Riddle still sells it at 20 pounds for $1. Husband-All right. Good bye.

The First Presbytery.

The special attention of members of the First Associate Reformed presbytery is called to the announcement of J. P. Knox, moderator, in another column. Moderator Knox wants a meeting of the presbytery to be held at Yorkville on July 4, for the purpose of considering a call addressed to Rev. W. A. M. Plaxco.

Representation of Hickory Grove.

As to why Hickory Grove failed to elect delegates to the Fourth of July conference last Saturday, we have no information. If the people out in that section desire to be represented in the conference, however, we see no reason why they cannot hold an election tomorrow. It is to be hoped that they will be sure and send delegates.

Last Day.

Next Monday is the last day upon which registration certificates can be be procured in accordance with the law. There are hundreds of otherwise qualified voters in this county, both white and colored who are not yet provided with registration certificates, and the chances that even a considerable number of them can get certificates next Monday seem to be decidedly slim.

Progressive Rock Hill.

Columbia Register : Mr. W. T. Woodruff, who is working up the handbook of South Carolina in connection with Mr. H. M. Ayer, leaves today for Blacksburg. He will also go to Rock Hill. That progressive little city has not only taken considerable space in the handbook, but is going to get out an extra pamphlet detailing its advantages. Mr. Woodruff and Mr. Ayer will have charge of this work also.

York at the College.

The commencement exercises of the South Carolina college have been on for the past few days. On Monday President Woodrow read the roll of students who have attained distinction. Sage Hardin, a special course student from York, is put down as proficient, and George White Whitherspoon, also of this county, a member of the freshman class, is put down as distinguished.

wrecked within a mile of the town of Edgefield last Tuesday. Engineer J. R. Parker and Fireman Cherry were badly scalded, Hugh Weatherford, a brakeman was killed, and Albert Brunson and Wallace Holloway, colored laborers, were badly injured. The wreck occurred near a water tank and was caused by rairoad spikes that were evidently placed on the track by fiends for the purpose. Detective Holloway has been sent to the scene for the purpose of running down the wreckers, if possible.

A Infinct Of DEAUIT. T seems to us that at sometime and somewhere, we heard somebody—we don't remember the individual or what was his style of architecture—venture the assertion that "a thing of beauty was a joy forever." We are not prepared to accept the quotation as absolutely and uncondi-tionally true, because we, during our brief but eventful career on this terrestial ball, have seen some things that we considered especially beautiful, but entirely devoid of the joy feature. Don't ask for details. We, however, have in our possession at this time a thing of beauty which we think would be a joy inspirer for an indefi-nite period—from one to five years—if owned and used by almost any man in this section who is susceptible to "joy." We refer to a bran new 25-pound MONthis section who is susceptible to "Joy." We refer to a bran new 25-pound MON-ARCH SPECIAL bicycle which was re-ceived a few days ago. The boys have devoted considerable time examining and gazing on it since it arrived and they are unanimous in the unqualified asser-tion that "it is the handsomest wheel ever brought to Yorkville." We don't quote the boys for the purpose of stirring up envy in the hearts of rival agents, but be-cause the boys made use of the expression and because they think it is true and we think the the standard we think so too. In order to satisfy yourself about this matter, suppose you call at our place of business, fernent the Carolina Buggy factory, and gaze on the wheel, Don't walk; but ride a MONARCH and keep in front.

MORGAN & WRIGHT.

Have made and sold more bicycle tires than all the other tire manufacturers com-bined. The reason is not far to seek.
