anderson, s. c., wednesday, january 30, 1866.

volume xxxii—no. 31.

25 per cent discount sale.

low prices.

our only fear is that, from the prices, you'll imagine we are selling "cheap" overcoats and suits.

we are simply meeting dyseoting business conditions with the people of money to loan.

this is business!

buy where you can best get your wants supplied, and that place is sullivan hardware co.'s.

all up to date and prices drop down—drop down.

the great oliver flown, known the world over as the turning and taming.

sullivan's superior steel files, made to the patented, proper george shape, quality of metal the celebrated "improved" axes—sold and used in anderson for over sixty years, now sell ten times faster than other makers.

your mind and pocket your dimes by doing business
