WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 14, 1867. LOCAL MATTERS.

Job Work.-We have now completed our office so as to execute, in the shortest possible time ALL KINDS OF JOB WORK, and we most respectfully ask the patronage of our friends. Post Office Notice.

POST OFFICE, } CHARLESTON, S. C., July 6, 1867. } After to-day the mails for Northeastern Railroad will close at 8 o'clock A.M., and to-day and afterwards they are expected to reach the Railroad "Station" at 2:30 o'clock P.M., and to be ready for delivery at this office at 3:30 o'clock P.M., except on Sunday, when the hour will be from 6 P.M. to 7 P.M., until further notice.

STANLEY G. TROTT, P. M. POSTOFFICE NOTICE.—An evening mail for Augus ta and Savannah, and for distribution beyond those offices, will close daily at the Postoffice at half-past 6 o'clock.

BETHEL CHURCH.-Divine service may be expected in this church every night during this week, and also on Friday morning, at 11 o'clock. This being the week of prayer and fasting appointed by the Church, the congregation is respectfully invited to attend.

BOARD OF TRADE.—We notice an extra meeting of the Board of Trade is called to meet at the Club Room of the Charleston Hotel this day at one P. M. . We understand that the reply of the Commanding General to the Committee appointed by the Board in reference to certain orders issued by him will be submitted. As this is a very important matter to the mercantile community generally, it is to be hoped there will be a full attendance of the members present. We presume there will be no objection to outsiders attending, as the Board represents the business portion of Charles-

AN IMPROVEMENT.—While transacting business a day or two since on the wharves, we noticed what appeared to be quite an improvement on the old-fashioned mode of emptying the mud flats, in which the material taken out of the docks by the dredging machine are deposited. Capt. JOHN FERguson, who is interested in an improved dredge, and who is now engaged in deepening Brown & Co.'s docks, had his steam tug Relief attached to each flat load as it was filled, and towed a long distance into the river where it was emptied. The old plan was to haul out the flats by a hawser attached to the head of the pier, the mud being frequently deposited within a stone's throw of the lock from which it was taken, thereby ensuring the immediate return of a part of the mud either into the dock which was being deepened, or into its neighbors. The present plan appears to obviate this difficulty-its being carried off to a distance which should prevent any of it returning. Map Dog. We have fortunately been thus far spared the infliction of mad dogs, and the canines have been allowed to wander about, happy in their unmuzzled condition, but the unfortunate animals will now learn that every dog has his day, and if they wish to enjoy a long life they must lie low and keep dark. A report was circulated on Monday morning that a rabid canine was seen near the corner of Church and Cumberland streets, and Bergeant Pournoz was sent to dispatch the beast. On arriving on the field, a small yaller dorg was discovered rooting in a pile of bricks but showing no symptoms of madness beyond occasionally biting at a brick. This was, however, considered a casus belli, and a pistol shot was fired, which took effect in the dog's neck, and caused him to hug his fortifications closer. Three shots were fired without dispatching im, when and laid down behind some bacon. This action on his part rodoubled the alarm, and he was finally dispatched by a blow from a club. No post mor tem was hald on the body of the lamented beast, but it is now the general impression that it was "much ado about nothing," resulting only in the death of an innocent dog.

BERING OF HOUSES. We have often noticed the irregular numbering of the houses in this city, and the confusion that is caused on this account. Some houses rejoice in two numbers, both widely different from each other, while in other sections only a few are thus ornamented; the uselessness of such numeration is at once apparent. Under these circumstances, a correct directory is almost an impossibility, as but few of the houses can be designated by numbers, and many of these may have duplicates on the same block. As a directory is a yearly enterprise, we would suggest to the next parties who engage in this undertaking to combine the proper numbering of the houses with their task, and assess each owner a small amount sufficent to cover the expense of preparing and affixing these necessary landmarks. If this plan is pursued, Charleston 1 be changed from the present terra incognita to a city wherein all who run may read, and where any residence can be identified. This of course cannot be done in the burnt district, but the streets intersected by that locality are well known to all in the community. We were induced to make these remarks from an incident that has been brought to our attention. An advertiser who had vainly endeavored to sell certain property, was disgusted at the want of applicants, and could trace it to no cause but the absence of a number on his house. Being convinced that this alone was the cause, he moved to a building that was thus ornamented; renewed his advertisement; restored his identity. and sold his property. Verbum sat sapienti.

REGISTRATION IN SUMMERVILLE. - Vb have received the following account of the reistration in Summerville, the Fifth Precinct, on the 12th instant: Whites, 16; colored, 75; total, 91 majority of IMPORTANT TO REGISTRARS.—The number of candidates for a voter's privilege who cannot sign their names is alarming, and the gratest pains should be taken by the registrars to have their signatures certified to by the requisit witnesses. In the different precincts yesterday large num ber of colored candidates were compded to make their mark, and we learn that in some instances the names were written by the registars instead of allowing them to affix their marks certified by witnesses. Unless this latter plan ispursued the parties will not be legal voters, and are liable to have their votes protested. At the Third Preinct forty-two colored persons couldnot write; at the Fourth, about one-third, while te proportion at the remaining precincts was about the same. There was also at each precinct a fw white men who could not write, and the same remarks are applicable in their cases.

REGISTRATION IN THE CITY. -Thespiect of registration still occupies the attention of the public mind, and though the weather preents it being up to fever heat, sufficient anxiet is manifested to warrant the belief that all citizes, both white ing it. and colored, will have their names crolled before the closing of the polls. The return of the day give a large colored majority, but he white citizens are evidently biding their tim, and will enroll en masse toward the end. They is probably no more truthful saying than "prerastination is the thief of time," and we advise eary one not to postpone the duty of registration, ht, if necessa ry, devote a whole morning to its acomplishment and the satisfaction of having placed themselves in a position to do their country srvice will be a ufficient reward. Yesterday passed quietly and whout any untoward incident to mar the proceedigs. The rain of the morning served to lay the dst, but the heat was intense, and the crowds who athered around the precincts, while they drew instration from the mouths of the three judges, exhad perspiration in streams that required constat mopping, and which compelled all who had aregard for their personal comfort to keep on the utskirts, where the air was purer. The same ariety was mani fested by some of the enfranchisd to witness the proceeding, and this caused ar unpleasant jam that probably kept many fromenrolling their names. If the plan of the cue, e., standing in single file and waiting for the next turn, was adopted in every precinct, there ould be no difficulty, and the applicants would be saily accommo dated. We commend the subjet to the proper authorities.

The patience of the registrarsis often severely taxed by the foolish answers thatre given to their questions. At the Hope Engin House, 3d Precinct, a colored candidate was axed if he was 21. He replied not yet, but proceedd to state that he was married and had children His appearance contradicted his statement of is age, and further questioning brought fromhim the astounding statement that he had a yonger brother who was 23. He was evidently all riht except on numerals and was passed in. Tis is only one of many instances in which the aplicant either cannot or will not understand thequestions put to him and renders the questioner incomfortably ho in his endeavors to explain.

The registration to-day in the different Precincts WHITER, COLORED is as follows: Third Precinct.....41 Majority of colored IMPOVEMENTS ON RUTLEDGE VENUE.—OFFICE OF

THE BOARD OF HEALTH-Fewpersons who visit this beautiful Avenue can ave failed to notice the improvements that hve taken place in the buildings along the route, but none of these are more conspicuous than th change that has the northeast corner of the Aenue and Calhoun street. Before its regeneratio, this building had a dingy and time-stained lookand was far from being the ornamental edifice tht now pleases the eye and adds another to the man fine houses in that locality. It was purchased sme months back by Dr. GEO. S. PELZER, who immediately began the work of restoration. This ha progressed so slowly and silently that the casus observer was surprised to note the change that had taken place, and asked bewilderingly if it vas the same building that was formerly an eyesore to the neighborhood.

Under the skillful hands of Messrs. W. T. BEAMISH & Co., a complete transformation has been effected, and the once dingy structure now shines forth in all the gloryof new paint, and has shown the truth of the poets dream, "that a thing of beauty is a joy forever." The house has been thoroughly refitted and minted, and the past is not recognizable in its present altered condition, for the tangled mass of shrubbery has been cleared away, and the entire premises, including the outhouses, have been subjected to the same ordeal and now show the gratifying results produced by the manipulations of the expenter and the painter. In addition to the improvements made in th main buildings, Dr Perzee has caused a neat and commodious office to be erected on the Calhoun Street side of the lot. This has been divided into two compartments; one designed as a private office and the other for the accommodation of the Board of Health where the will meet in future and transact their business The new office is admirably adapted for the purposes intended, as it fronts on the street railway and can be reached in a comparatively short suce of time. In addition to the office above metioned, Dr. PELZER has a large store house which s filled with the medical supplies used in the perfemance of his duties as city Registrar and Healtl Officer. The change that has beneffected in this section of the city by these inprovements is at once noticeable, and Dr. PELER deserves the thanks of the community not only for his efforts to restore the city to her forms appearance, but for the energy and zeal he iss manifested in the discharge of his official luties and the conveniences he has furnished for the benefit of all parties who are connected with hm.

CANNING FRUIS .- First-Can the fruit the same day it is gatheed. More than half the secret of having fine preserved fruit lies in this simple direction.

Second-Neer can fruit without adding as much sugar to it s you would to prepare it for the table. This is imperative, else your fruit will inevitably b leathery; cook it in, I should say, at the rate of one-quarter of a pound to every pound of ruit at least; but taste and try, as I did, and then it suits your palate cease from all saccharin matter. And now for the modus operandi :- pare and extract he pit; cut into halves and plunge into cold wher until ready to cook, else your peaches will beblack; this, of course does not apply to other kins of fruit. Place your cans in any vessel wherethey can stand at least half way up in boiling rater, which keep so until sealed. I usually takea large dripping pan and put it on the top o thestove at one side, while my preserving kettle is a the other. Make your syrup and when it cones to a boil, put in your peaches and let them ook (if clings) until you can pierce with a piece & broom corn; if freestones, when the syrup boils ap over them the first time, skim out and put into Also, application of GEO. MENTZEL, for license to with a rag wet with cold water, being careful that no juice remains on them, then put on the covers, remove from the water to the stove hearth, and seal. Everything must be hot from the beginning to the end-hot sirup, hot cans, hot fruit, hot sealing way and harder than all, hot and blowgy hands and faces just when he thermometer is at blood heat in the shade!

All small fruits are subject to the same process Resolved, That the emptying of privies and removal of their contents be suspended until the 1st to come to a hot and not rem the sirup. Strawberres, to retain their color and flavors, require more sugar, and to be put into glass, stone, earthen or anything but tin. The same is true of blackberries. Tomatoes I scald, peel, and then bring to a boil again, with a little salt added, when I put them in new tin, and seal. I have never been fortunate with glass or earthen. If stone jars are usel be sure that you buy dark colored, well baked ind glazed ones, not the yellow.

MAYOR'S COURT.-The only striking feature in the annals of this Court was a personal encounter that took place between two colored sprigs of royalty. The one was a youth to fame and fortune, well known, who rejoiced in the high sounding name of Prince Fortune, while his antagonist was no less a personage than his highness Prince Albert. The royal pair indulged in a neat game of fisticuffs, and pummelled each other right royally until interrupted by some evil disposed characters who carried them to the Palace, where they were entertained in a royal manner, and were only asked $5, merely to give them the pleasure of bestow

PATENT UNIVERSAL COTTON TO And Iron Hoops, FOR BALING COTTON

THIS TIE, WITH THE HOOP COMPLETE, WAS I no more than the usual Rope used in baling Command randers an allowance for tare unnecessary, the only lie requiring no slack while putting on, and is secreted that the necessity for heavy hoose to want is secreted. only Tie requiring no slack while putting on, and is so perfect that the necessity for heavy hoops to make up for the deficiencies in the Tie is entirely obvisted. Can be sola by the pound or ton as cheaply as the Henry Hoops and less perfect. Each and every Tie is warranted perfect. Science and practical use will have the effect of the Iron Tie entirely superseding the use of rope, its combination of advantages, the preservation of the Cotton when baled from consumption by firs, rendering its security to Insurance Comparise a matter for consideration both while in Warchouse or on shipboard, and its simplicity of use and consumy combined. The inventor not finding a Tie adapted to the wants of both planter and compresser has devised this. For sale, in large or small quantities, by WILLIAM ROACH,

INGERSOLL'S

HAND POWER COTTON PRESS

For Convenience, Economy and Cheapness, the greatest Labor Saving Machine that can be put on a Plantation.

OPINIONS OF THE PEOPLE: ALLENDALE, BARNWELL DISTRICT, S. C., March 1, 1807.

MCSSTS. Little & Marshall:

(NENTLEMEN: I used, during the past season, one of 'Ingersoll's Portable Cotton Presses,' purchased of you last september. I have always been prejudiced in favor of the "Screw Press," and nothing but dire necessity induced me to try any other. I take pleasure, however, in adding my testimony in favor of its entire adaptation to the wants or a cotton plantation. It has surpassed my most sanguine expectations. I have packed with but two hands, yet I prefer four—two at each lever. My bales all weighed over 500 lbs. The first lot I sent to market averaged 562 lts. My impression is that 500 lbs. is about the capacity of the Press, and a greater number of pounds subject the follow-block to too much risk, unless the sides of the cotton box was increased. It would add greatly to the value of the Press if the cotton box was ten inches longer. In haste, I am, very respectfully, Your obedient servant, &c., B. W. LAWTON.

P. S. I took my Press down and carried it some four miles to pack the crop of a neighbor, who falled to have a "Screw" built; he was so much pleased that he has determined to abandon the "Screw" and purchase "Ingersoll's Press.".

Chyptics OF KING'S MOUNTAIN RALEROAD COMPANY,

C'FFICE OF KING'S MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY, CIFICE OF KING'S MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY, YORKVILLE, S. C., APril 15, 1867.

GENTLEMEN: I have just received your letter of February 14th—upon my return to this place, after an absence of two months—and this reply may be too late for some continuous continuous forms—and the reply may be too late for your "Descriptive Circular of Ingersoll's Cotton Press."

The Press I used in packing my cotton last yeas worked simirally, packing, with ease from 500 to 52 worked simirally, packing, with ease from 500 to 52 that from eighteen to twenty bales might readily be marked in a day.

that from eighteen to twenty bases hight compacted in a day.

This Press combines the advantages of lightness, and the press combines the simplicity (being easily minaged by any one of ordinary intelligence). Great compressing force, with little motive power, and "last, but pressing force, with little motive power, and "last, but not least," it is worked entirely by hand, thus saving for the farm horses the hard labor imposed upon them by the use of the ordinary "Screw."

Respectfully, &c., yours,

SARATOGA "EXCELSIOR" SPRING WATER.

The Water of this sering is believed to be unequalled by that of any other in the far-famed valley of Saratoga. Its virtues are such as have secured it the high encomiums of all who have used it, possessing, as it does, in an eminent degree, cathartic, diuretic, alterative and tonic qualities.

From S:AMUEL HENRY DICKSON, M. D., Professor Practice of Physic, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, formerly of Charleston S. C.

Philadelphia, formerly of Charleston S. C.

I have been for z year or more past in the habit of taking the water of the "Excelsior" Spring of Saratoga. Accustomed during the great portion of my invalid lite to use the different waters of the several fountains which boil up along that remarkable valley, dependent, indeed, upon them for much of the cornfort I enjoy, I am satisfied that the Excelsior Water is as well adapted as any other among thom, if not more so, to the purposes for which they are generally employed. It is very agreeable, strongly insprignated with the carbonic acid, lively and sparkling. * * * I can heartly and conscientiously recommend it to all who need a gentle cathartic and directic.

I have always recommended the Faber Polygrade Lead Pencils as the only pencils fitted for both ornamental and mathematical drawing; but, after a thorough trial of the American Polygrade Lead Pencils, manufactured by the American Lead Pencil Company, New York, I find them superior to any pencil in use, even to the Faber or the old English Cumberland Lead Pencil, being a superior pencil for sketching, ornamental and mechanical drawing, and all the ordinary uses of a lead

These pencils are very finely graded and have a very smooth lead; even the softost pencils hold the point wall; they are all that can be desired in a pencil. It gives me great pleasure to be able to assure Americans that they will no longer be compelled to depend upon Germany or any other foreign market for pencils.
