THE ÆTNA FIRE COMPANY,-The engine house of this company in Meeting street, near Broad, was closed yesterday. 'A card on the door announced the death of their ex-President. Mr. S. G. Courtenay, and the exterior of the building was appropriately draped in mourning.

THE BRUDERLICHE BUND .- The members of this Society enjoyed another of their social and theatrical entertainments last night. The hall was well attended and after the different pieces were performed, the floor was cleared, and the remainder of the evening spent in Terpsichorean exercises.

· Inquest.-An inquest was held by Magistrate C. E. Kapnapaux, vesterday morning, at No. 104 St. Philip-street, on the body of Anna Fort, a colored woman, aged forty, who had died quite suddenly. After a medical examination of the case, the jury returned a verdict of death from heart disease.

New Books .- We have received from Messrs. E. J. Dawson & Co. the following two books, published by Harper & Brothers:

"No PLACE LIKE HOME."-The Newberry Herald chronicles the return to that place of a number of colored persons who left Newberry a year ago for the fertile, blooming and sunny, so-called, shores of Liberia, where vegetation was supposed to be spontaneous and labor unnecessary, and the birds whistled because they had nothing else to do.

BENEFIT FOR THE POOR.—The ladies in charge of the Widows' and Orphans' Home, in Broadstreet, have been tendered a benefit on Saturday night by Mr. Templeton, manager of the charge of several orphans, the daughters of deceased Confederate soldiers, and have furnished them with board and lodgings. The different schools in the city have kindly consented to teach these orphans at one-half rates, and the money gained by the benefit will be applied to the payment of this moderate charge.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE UPPER WARDS .- The ·City Engineer has commenced operations upon the Mall, and as the timber and other material necessary for the fencing are now on the spot, it will not be long before the Mall will become again a pleasant resort for "up-town" ramblers. The paths that now intersect it at right angles are to be blocked up, and small gates for foot passengers will be placed at each crossing, while the Mall will be surrounded with an ornamental fence. This is the only public park in the upper wards, and its reconstruction has long been needed.

SALE OF A VALUABLE PLANTATION.-Messrs Leitch & Bruns sold yesterday, for Jas. W. Death of Samuel Gilman Courtenay.

It is our sad duty this morning to announce the death of one of our most estimable citizens, Mr. Samuel Gilman Courtenay. His brief but painful illness terminated fatally at half-past six o'clock vesterday morning.

Mr. Courtenay was the son of Mr. Edward S. Courtenay, and was born in Charleston, November 27, 1825. His first business years were passed in the book establishment of Mr. Babcock in King-street, and when he had acquired a knowledge of the book trade he, in connection with Mr. Wienges, bought out the periodi cal and news depot then kept by Mr. Amos Head, at the south corner of Broad-street and East Bay. He afterwards bought out the interest of his partner, and, in connection with his brother, Mr. W. A. Courtenay, carried or the business under the name of Courtenay & Co. It was during this copartnership that the commodious building in Broad-street, now known as "Courtenay's," was built and occupied by the firm. A few years before the war the partnership between W. A. Courtenay and S. G. Courtenay was dissolved, and from that time to the day of his death the business was conducted by the latter as sole proprietor. Mr. Courtenay was fo. many years a prominent zealous and efficient member of our Fire Department, and was President of the Ætna Fire Company. In 1866, he was elected Alderman of Ward No. 2, and proved himself to be an intelligent and vigilant guardian of the interests and fortunes of the city. As a citizer, he was remarkable for his energy, public spirit and, force of character, and in the various organizations with which he was connected, he fairly earned the reputation of being a working member. The last public occasion on which these characteristics were displayed, was at the recent anniversary of the Hibernian Society, and many a friend will recall his kind offices and members of the City Council, the members of genial endeavors to render the entertainpresent. The immediate occasion of his last acts of philanthropy, for which he was ever ready. In passing a private residence on Broad-street, about a week ago, his attention was attracted by the confusion and fright which had been occasioned by the explosion of a lamp. Hastening to the scene of the accident he busied himself actively in averting further damage, and in his efforts became rather heated. On returning to the street he encountered a current of cold air, to the etfect of which is attributed the origin of the congestive chills which caused his death. Thus cut down in the prime and vigor of his manhood, his loss will be deeply felt and regretted in our community, where his life had been recognized by all as that of a good and eminently useful citizen. The funeral will take place at Grace Church at ten o'clock this morning.

REGISTRATION .- There was considerable activity displayed at the different precincts yesterday, and a number of white voters were enrolled. This class have at length seen the necessity of complying with the registration orto take out naturalization papers, are urging their claims to citizenship in the United States Court, or have signified their intention to apply when their probation has expired. There was no crowd around the different polls, and the managers were comparatively idle; but the work done was an improvement on that of the previous day. As the time allotted for registration is fast drawing to a close, every effort should be made, and all who have heretofore neglected this duty should embrace the pres ent opportunity. For the better information of this class, we give the location of the polls in each precinct, and the time of opening: Voters in Wards 5, 6, 7 and 8, or the fourth precinct, are expected to call at the Washington Engine House, Vanderhorst-street, which is open from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M., each day. There are only five days allowed for this extra registration, and as it was commenced at this precinct on the 31st of March, it will conclude on Saturday, the 4th of this month.

and the poll is held at the Hope Engine House in Archdale-street. The registration in this ward was also commenced on the 31st, and will end on Saturday; but the poll is open from nine A. M. to two P. M. each day.

The registration of the second precinct or Ward 3, is held at the Market Hall. As this poll was only opened on the 1st, the registranon will be continued until Monday the 6th. The hours are from nine to two o'clock each

The first precinct embraces Wards 1 and 2, and the office is opened at the City Hall. The session in this precinct will be the same as in the 3d and 4th Wards, as the registration commenced on the 31st ult. The polls are opened each day from eleven A. M. to two P. M.

The Blue Ridge Railroad.

A meeting of the members of the Chamber of Commerce was held yesterday to conside the condition and prospects of the Blue Ridge

Railroad. Colonel O. A. Andrews, the President of the Chamber, in explaining the object of the meeting, spoke in effect as follows: "The energy and perseverance that have been put forth by the Direction of the Blue Ridge Railroad is a favorable indication of a general belief that there is an immediate and pressing necessity for the completion of the road. If we desire to improve the trade of our State and city, if we desire to repair our shattered fortunesnay, more, if we desire to prevent and arrest a retrograde movement in the affairs of both Charleston and South Carolina, we should direct all our efforts to the advancement and encouragement of this most important enter-

Col. Andrews then read the following: At a meeting of the Directors of the Blue Ridge Railroad Company, held in this city on Tuesday, the 31st ult., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Directors concur in the statements and surgestions made by the President in his letter to His Excellency, James L. Orr, and approve of the efforts being made to secure further aid from the State, by the guaranty of the Bonds of the Company, and also donations and subscriptions of lands along the line of the road.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to lay this correspondence before the City Council of Charleston and urge upon them the importance of granting to the company a loan of ten thousand dollars, to defray the ex-pense of repairing the locomotives, and there-by enable the directors to resume the charge by enable the directors to resume the charge of the road on the expiration of the present lease; and also to urge upon the City Council the great importance of uniting with the company in efforts to procure aid from the State sufficient to complete the road.

Resolved, That the President be authorized to pledge first mortgage bonds of the company and the South Carolina Railroad shares it owns, as collateral security for the proposed loan.

Resolved, That the committee be further authorized to furnish copies of this correspond-ence and the foregoing resolutions to the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade, and to urge the co-operation of those bodies in promoting the measures now recommended.

CHARLESTON, April 1, 1868.

The following resolutions were then offered by the Hon. G. A. Trenholm, seconded by George W. Williams, Esq., and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this m that every effort should be made by the State and by the City of Charleston to accomplish the final completion of the Blue Ridge Railroad as a work of supreme importance to th people of this State.

Resolved, That a committee of be appointed to memorialize the Legislature at its next meeting to take this subject into consideration. Mr. Gourdin then explained that money was required to repair the locomotives of the Company, so that the Directors might take charge of the road at the expiration of the present lease to the Greenville and Columbia Railroad and General Harrison, the President of the ders, and those who have heretofore neglected | Company, explained further the important purposes to which the loan asked for might be

On motion of J. E. Burke, Esq., the final hearing in the case of Williams & Brown, bankrupts, was postponed until Monday, the 6th.

The following order, sustaining the opinion of Registraf Carpenter, was made by his Honor Judge Bryan:

In the matter of John G. Grant—In bankruptcy—This being the day appointed by the court for the first meeting of creditors, I sat at the time and place above mentioned, among other things for choice of assignee. The only claim proved was that of Hudson & Townsend, attorneys at law, for about $175, subject to a claim proved was that of Hudson & Townsend, attorneys at law, for about $175, subject to a deduction, as stated in the deposition, of an unknown sum, supposed to be $15 or $20. These creditors, by their attorney in fact, J. Barrett Cohen, Esq., voted for D. D. McCall, of Bennettsville, S. C., as assignee of said estate. C. P. Townsend, Esq., attorney for the petitioner, objected to the appointment on the ground that Mr. McRae had been recommended by all the Bar, including Hudson & Townsend themselves; had given up other business and devoted himself to this business; that he has been elected and appointed in all the cases in the district; and that he is a man of high character, honest and capable, and that to make this case. thorest and capable, and that to make this case an exception would be disparaging to him, and that the amount due to Hudson & Townsend is that the amount due to Hudson & Townsend is much less than is stated by them, and that their claim is insignificant beside the whole amount of the debts—about $5000; that the creditors holding securities represent about $2500. Considering these objections, and that the interest, although that of the bankrupt is an opposing one, I do hereby certify the facts to the court for its action in the premises, simply adding that Mr. McRae is an efficient assignee, and that I would appoint him if I had the power.

Witness my hand, this 1st day of April, 1868. R. B. CARPENTER, Registrar in Bankruptcy.

The RODUNDA GUANO is not a mineral phosphate, requiring the action of the Sulphuric Acid to render it soluble; its great power as a fertilizer is in its entire solubility, without the aid of acid. It is not a "manipulation" or Compound of rish or Flesh with Mineral Phosphates, the regularity of which is always uncertain and dependent upon, and controlled by the honesty of the manufacturer. The distinguished feature of this SUPER-PHOS-PHATE from other similar Fertilizers is, that all of its ingredients are of animal origin, and are either soluble in water, or in a condition to quickly become soluble in the soil and be taken up by the crop. Contains no inert or mineral materials.

The proper relative proportion of the ingredients in MAPES' SUPER-PHOS-PHATE to meet the requirements of the Cotton crop on Georgia and South Carolina soils, is fully proved by the experience of planters who tustified that wherever applied, even to land notes for rusting cottom, the disease is entirely corrected, and a healthy, vigorous growth produced. On the same land Peruvian Guano and other fertilizers have failed to secure a healthy growth.

11th April, on 22 acres blue clay land, a good deal worn from being planted in cotton from 1857 to 1867, with only one year's rest during that time, and notwithstanding the long continued cold and heavy rain, and gales during the spring and summer, about the first of September the crop on this field was estimated by some of our best judges to promise a yield of

Notwithstanding the ravages of the caterpillar, the first cotton picked was from the field on which MAPES' PHOSPHATE was used, and it has made about 65 pounds to the scre, while no other manured land made over 45 pounds. Has used MAPES' PHOSPHATE on meloas, potatoes and the garden with satisfactory results.

THOMAS S. SALTER, Washington County, Ga, reports that seventy-five pounds per acre on old land increased both the Cotton and the Corn three-fold. Considers it far more *conomical than Peruvian Guano. 180 to 200 pounds fine Sea Island Co. on Lint to th

John R. Ham, Mims, S. C.:

"Cotton was more vicorous and healthy, and matured at least two weks earlier where MAPES' SUPER-PHOSPHATE was used as compared with other Ferthlizers applied. MAPES' SUPER-PHOSPHATE produced 100 pounds per acre more Cotton than Rhodes' Super-Phosphate, and 50 pounds per acre more than Soluble Pacific Guano. TAS RAPIDLY DISTINGUISHED ITSELF FOR its wonderful restorative and curative qualities. Under its stimulative influence, and by its penetrative agency, this health invigorating cordial excites a general beneficial reaction, and disperses the impermeable obstructions which prevent access to other remedies. While gradually reducing the accompanying constriction which attends the malady, it reproduces the essential warmth and elastic vigor of the respiratory vessels, which, by this remedial combination, promotes the healing process by which relief and cure is effected.

Hemorrhages are arrested and cured, with every other concurrent disorder.

As neither narcotic nor emetic properties of any kind are employed in this Pulmonic Compound, and the most assiduous attention given to the quality and medical value of each component article which constitute it, it is confidently and conscientiously recommended for its safety and reliability, without restriction in generous, wholesome diet, or apprehension of reneward cold from the effects.
