The Charleston Daily News.

VOLUME VII.—NUMBER 1014.

CHARLESTON, S. C. THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 25, 1869.

SIX DOLARRS PER ANNUM.

BY TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON.

The American Register was thrown on the floor of the Senate Chamber, by a man in uniform, who had attempted to enter, but was prevented by the police. The Register was intended for the use of the Senate. It was reported that the man was a member of the New York legislature. The action was taken in the interests of the Union, and was condemned by the President of the Senate.

The House of Representatives met on Thursday, and proceeded to organize. The Speaker was elected, and the rules were adopted. The House then adjourned for the day.

The Senate met on Friday, and proceeded to organize. The President was elected, and the rules were adopted. The Senate then adjourned for the day.

The House of Representatives elected a Speaker, and the rules were adopted. The House then adjourned for the day.

The Senate elected a President, and the rules were adopted. The Senate then adjourned for the day.

FINANCIAL.

The Secretary of State reported that the United States had received from foreign governments a sum of $1,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury. The Secretary also reported that the Treasury had received from foreign governments a sum of $2,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury.

The Secretary of War reported that the army had received from foreign governments a sum of $1,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury. The Secretary also reported that the army had received from foreign governments a sum of $2,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury.

The Secretary of the Navy reported that the navy had received from foreign governments a sum of $1,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury. The Secretary also reported that the navy had received from foreign governments a sum of $2,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury.

The Secretary of the Interior reported that the government had received from foreign governments a sum of $1,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury. The Secretary also reported that the government had received from foreign governments a sum of $2,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury.

The Secretary of Agriculture reported that the government had received from foreign governments a sum of $1,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury. The Secretary also reported that the government had received from foreign governments a sum of $2,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury.

The Secretary of the Treasury reported that the government had received from foreign governments a sum of $1,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury. The Secretary also reported that the government had received from foreign governments a sum of $2,000,000, which was placed to the credit of the Treasury.